COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

Before Judge Livingston

the case of B. W. Harnish vs. Wm. McPherson, the defence was that Mc-Pherson did not make any contract with the plaintiff; an order which Smith took to Harnish, purporting to have come from McPherson, was a forger: ; and the de-fence claimed that they were not liable for the debts which Smith made. The jury found in favor of the plaintiff for $247.50. Mary A. Bartholmew and David B. Bartholomew, for the use of said Mary A. Bartholomew, vs. the Lancaster & Reading narrow gauge railroad company, action for damages. The plaintiffs live in the southern part of this city, and the defendants have constructed a siding from their railroad line to Peacock & Thomas's furnace, passing over over their land, rendering a portion of it uscless. After the jury were sworn they visited the premises and upon their return the hearing of testimony began.

Refore Judge Patterson.

Judge Patterson was in court this morning and the case taken up by him in the lower room was that of David S. Witmer vs. Michael Batdorf. The defendant is the father in law of the plaintiff, who in 1870 lived in Campbellstown, Lebanon county. The old man bought a lot of farming utensils from Witmer in April of that year, giving a promissory note for $950 on which he made payments up to 1873 when there remained a balance of $632. Some time during that year, the plaintiff claims, the defendant asked him to allow him to look at the note. It was handed to him, but he would not return it. The note was produced upon the plaintiff demanding it, and was offered in evidence.

The defense admitted having signed the note, on which he made payments, and claims that he would have paid all had demand been made. In August, 1873, he learned through his wife that the plaintiff, who is married to one of his daughters, had seduced another, who was then under the age of 16 years. He immediately sent for the plaintiff, telling him to come to his house and to bring with him the note and his wife. Witmer came and when they were all seated in the room defendant asked witness if the story was true; he replied that it was and told him not to allow the affair to become public; it is alleged that he then gave up the note to defendant ( who had told him that he intended to prosecute him) to settle the matter and keep the scandal quiet. The defendant did not again hear anything of the note until the suit was brought in 1878, after the statute of limitation prevented him from bringing a suit for adultery against Witmer. On trial. half.

Sanders the Homicide.

Last week it was reported that the Postmaster Marshall has received two owner of the cow which threw the engine and tank off the track at Wrightsville, inletters making inquiries about Edward tended suing the railroad company for Sanders, now confined in our jail on charge damages. It is not true. Mr. William of murdering Mary Seymour, m John Wallace was the owner and requests us to street, this city. The first letter is from a Mrs. Sanders, in New York, who writes correct the false report. He never thought of suing the railroad company, and was that her son Edward Sanders left New York more than a year ago for Chicago, only glad that no serious consequence resulted from the escape of his cow from since which time she has heard nothing of the stable. He is a poor man and the him, and she feared he might be the Sanders now in our county jail. The other letter is from Mr. A. #### Coroner's Verdici.

Deputy Coroner John P. Frank, of Columbia, yesterday empaneled a jury and held an inquest on the body of Samuel Ihling, of Washington borough, who was found dead, as stated in yester ay's INTEL-LIGENCER. The jury was as follows: Henry Mellinger, J. L. Shuman, J. W. Kise, Wm. II. Myers, James Kise and Frederick Struck.

Dr. Alexander Craig made a post-mortem examination of the body, and after hearing his testimony and the testimony of the other witnesses the jury returned a verdict that the said Samuel Ibling came to his

Bass Fishing.

Last evening Johnny Martin, of the Relay house, ex-Mayor Stauffer and Deputy Collector C. F. Eberman returned from a jaunt to Fite's Eddy, where they had indulged in a day's bass tishing. They with $10,000 to pay their expenses. Now brought back with them about 75 pounds of black bass, and one moon eyed bass, a new variety lately introduced into the Susquehanna. The largest of their fish, all of which were taken by rod and line, weighed about two pounds. They had the pleasure of seeing a bass, weighing 51 pounds taken by a York county fisherman. This morning Postmaster Marshall, Harry Demuth and Frank Diffenderfer, not pay that transportation what will beleft Lancaster for Fite's Eddy to try their luck with the rod and line.

A Watch Missing. James O'Brien and George Kelley were arrested last night on the charge of stealing a silver watch and chain from James Conway at the hotel of Christian Hagelgaus on East King street. Conway was sleeping in the barroom and the only men present were the two who were arrested. When he awoke his watch was gone, and so were the men. They returned shortly and then they were arrested. The watch was not found on them, but they had had time to dispose of it. As yet it has not been recovered. Both men were locked up for a hearing before Alderman A. F. Don-

Attempted Highway Robbery. Last evening as George Kichl, dealer in mineral waters, was returning to town from a trip in the country, where he had of habeas corpus, and their discharge was been serving some of his country custom | asked for on the grounds that the comers, he was halted by two men on the pike near the almshouse, and asked if he had any money. He told them he had, and they commanded him to give it to them. Thereupon Mr. Kiehl reached for a bottle and struck one of the thieves over the head with it, breaking the bottle but not knocking the thief down. Hearing other vehicles approaching the thieves became frightened, took to their heels and ran away.

Discharged from the Lunatic Asylum. Frank McLaughlin, alias "John John-: on," of Little Britain township, acquitted at the August quarter sessions of horsestealing, &c., and sent to the county lunatic hospital, was ordered to-day by Judge Patterson to be discharged from custody, the evidence of the attaches of the hospital and the attending physicians, heard before both judges, satisfying the court that he could be safely released. His father has taken charge of him, and he is much improved, physically and mentally.
