THE KNIFE IN MARIETTA. A Man Assaulted and Dangerously Wound-

Special Dispatch to the INTELLIGENCER. MARIETTA, Pa., Oct. 15, 2:30 p. m.-This morning Jacob Erisman quarreled with Jonathan Larzelere, concerning the alloged trespass of Larzelere's cows on Erisman's land. Erisman knocked his antagonist down with a stone and cut him with a knife, cutting a large gash in the leg and one in the thigh and throat, which places him in a critical condition. Erisman was placed under six hundred dollars bail by Squire Roth.

LOW WATER.

An Old Low-Water Mark Discovered. About half a century ago a Mr. Thomas, residing near Safe Harbor, cut his name on a rock, in the Susquehanna river, which became exposed during a very low stage of water. The water soon rose and covered the rock, and old residents say it has never since been uncovered until the recent drouth, when it again showed its head above the surface, with Mr. Thomas's name still upon it. Mr. Thomas has been dead about 45 years.

A Handsome Chair.

In the window of Augustus Rhoads, ieweler on East King street, is a handsome piece of workmanship in the shape of an easy chair which, with the exception of the seat, is made of the horns of steers. The chair was made by Antonio Pippiski, of San Autonio, Texas. The horns, which are beautifully polished, came from Matamoras, New Mexico. The upholstering was done by Widmyer & Ricksecker, of this city. The chair is the property of J. U. Fritchey who had it made in Texas.

Attempted Sulcide A man named John Moyer attempted to commit suicide in the city lockup afternoon, first by hanging hims If with his suspenders, and afterwards by trying to butt his brains out against the wall, and steam pipes in his cell. He tore the clothes from his body and acted in a very insane manner.

Cellar Robbed. On Thurday night thieves broke into the cellar of the residence of Michael G. Harnish, West Willow, and stole therefrom a quantity of bread and butter and about 70 pounds of lard. They effected an entrance by forcing the lock of the outside cellar door.

Case Dismissed. The case against the five young men who were charged with disturbing religious services at Clearfield church, was heard before Alderman Barr this afternoon

turned from the Philadelphia and New York markets with a large stock of all winter trade, is making his fall opening today. His display of ready-made clothing is very attractive, while his shelves and racks are laden with the finest of uncut goods, and his show cases brilliant with all the little nicknacks necessary to complete a gentleman's toilet

No Such Store.

If there is any such store as Oak Hall in either England or France I could not find it. The nearest approach to it is "La Belle Jardiniere" Paris on the Seine, but any one visiting this store will say Oak-Hall does better in quantity to select from, style and make-up of goods, though the prices in the main are cheaper in Paris; because of the cloths without duties, and the cheap labor of France. The people here, however, think our prices are quite low enough, considering all things. American Clothing outranks all other throughout the world for real gracefulness. We have here none of the narrow-breasted and contracted shouldered coats that are so universal abroad. Some of the New York Tailors who have opened branches in Paris are among the most popular artist-tradesmen there, and are well patronized.

The English and French open their eyes wide when told of the size of the Oak Hall Clothing House and its vast stock of ready goods for

It is our purpose and hope always to have Philadelphia lead the retail clothing trade and we are giving our best efforts to improve every year on our cutting, patterns and workmanship. The character of materials we use is no longer an uncertain question. The people know that we are to be depended on for sound judgment (based on experienced) in the goods selected. This year our fashions and finishing would warrant higher rates, but our prices are as reasonable as ever. Signed,
