Yesterday was a beautiful day, and in consequence, all religious services were largely attended, especially the Methodist. as they had the sacrament of the Lord's Supper in the morning, and preaching to the young folks in the evening.

On Saturday morning in the high school room the teachers employed in our public schools, held their semi-monthly meeting, or as it is better known, the Columbia school district institute. The Herald will, as it has done ever since these meetings have been held, come out to-morrow in a long article against them.

For a wonder the "coons" on Tow Hill had no fights on Saturday. We were greatly surprised upon being informed of the fact. Every Monday for the past few months the fights on Tow Hill on Saturdays and Sundays have occupied a prominent place is our letter, but to day's will be conspicuous by their absence.

THE PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION.

Shaking Hands with Members of the Mich

gan Legislature. WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 17 .- There has been a constant rush of callers upon President Arthur this morning at the temporary quarters on Capitol hill. At 11 o'clock the doors of the Butler mansion were thrown open and the governor and staff of Michigan, accompanied by about 150 citizens of the state, were admitted to pay their respects. President Arthur received the visitors in the parlor, being introduced and shaking hands with each one separately. Senator Ferry and Conger arranged for the reception, and the latter introduced the callers. After the reception to the Michigan delegation, from 50 to 100 other gentlemen took advantage of the occasion and walked through the parlor, shaking hands with the president. The reception occupied about half an hour. Among others call-ing upon the president this morning, were Senator Cameron (Wisconsin), Representatives Page and Valentine, and Commis sioner of Patents Marble. The president leaves for Yorktown today, whither Blaine and other officials of the state department went this morning, accompanying the French and German To-Day's Proceedings in the Senate. WASHINGTON, Oct. 17 .- In the Senate this morning changes in committees were announced to fill the places of Conkling, Platt and Burnside. Mr. Sherman called up his resolution directing the secretary of the treasury to transmit to the Senate a copy of the report of James T. Meline. Objection being made to its present consideration, it was postponed until Friday. Without transacting any other important business the Senate at 12:45 adjourned

Disastrous Typhoons in China.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 17 .- The steamship City of Tokio, from Hong Kong, brings advices to 14th of September. News from Peking states that disasters to life and property by inland typhoons are very great. A village named Shetosha in Row district has been completely swept away by floods, and all the inhabitants were drowned. A steam launch was dispatched to the scene of disaster, and upwards of two hundred bodies were recovered. A typhon passed over Foe Chow doing great damage to the town and the foreign and native shipping.

Democratic Senators in Caucus, WASHINGTON, Oct. 17 .- The Democratic senators met in caucus this forenoon to discuss the secretaryship question. There was a small attendance of senators, barely a quorum. The question of proceeding to an election of secretary was discussed informally, as was also the expediency of authorizing Chief Clerk Shober to act J. B. MARTIN & CO., temporarily as secretary. Runaways.

On Saturday afternoon a country man named Kreider got into his buggy at the Cross Keys hotel, on West King street, when his horse suddenly started off at a brisk rate. In front of Snyder's trimming store a wheel was broken from the vehicle. He ran to Prince, down which he turned, and coming into collision with another buggy Kreider jumped out and the animal was caught.

Another This Morning.

This morning Dr. Sample, of Intercourse, with his son, was on his way to this city, and when about a mile and a half from town he was overtaken by a team driven by a boy named Styer, who attempted to drive around him. In so doing one of his buggy wheels caught one of the were present : Mayor MacGonigle, Judge doctor's and frightened his horse. The animal ran up on a bank and upset the buggy. The doctor was thrown under the vehicle but his son jumped. Both escaped with a few slight bruises. The horse ran in as far as the Philadelphia pike, where he broke both shafts off from the buggy. He was caught near Knapp's Villa. The buggy was otherwise badly wrecked, > Indignant Irishmen in St. Louis. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 17.-A very large meeting of Irishmen was held at St. Patrick's hall yesterday afternoon. Speeches were made by prominent Irishmen, resolutions adopted strongly denouncing the English government for the arrest Parnell, and a committee appointed to arrange for a monster mass meeting. The feeling among the Irish is very bitter.

> > Mahone's Movements.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Oct. 17 .- Senator Mahone, who left for Richmond yesterday. is not expected to return to Washington under a week or ten days. It is understood Many of them bought at AUCTION that the challenge contemplating a duel between Mr. Mahone and General Early originated with the latter instead of with Senator Mahone. It is not believed, however, that a hostile meeting between them is imminent. Steamer Capsized. New York, Oct. 17.-The steamship Cresent City, while in the dry dock at the foot of Clinton street, was capsized this morning, being badly balanced. The steamer was considerably damaged, but HAUGHMAN'S the exact extent of the injury cannot be ascertain until she is righted. MARKETS.
