COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Mr. Richard Kain, of Pottsville, is visiting in Columbia. The river has risen two feet since Sunday evening. practicing as they have no room and are cause of complaint. waiting to see what council intends doing. A numbers of Co, C are "kicking" about the article the Columbia correspondent of the New Era wrote last evening, namely, that the National Guardsmen of Pennsylvania had no right to complain about the way they were treated.

Just two months to-day will be Christ Mr. Wm. Shuman, of Philadelphia, is visiting his sister. "One Hundred Wives" is the next play booked for the Columbia opera house. The Weaver boys caught in two days one hundred and thirty-two bass, making an aggregateof one hundred and seventythree and a quarter pounds.

A party of young ladies who call them selves the "Doves," will be the guest of Miss Rutter, this evening. Their doings are strictly of a private nature. The gentlemen's waiting room in the Pennsylvania railroad depot, at this place, needs a new clock, as the one now in is worthless. Two Austrians on their way to Wilcox, Pennsylvania, were in town this morning in a pietty bad fix. They wanted to buy tickets to the above station, but could not understand when told the price. Paul, a barber in D. Coleman's hair emportum, was the only person in Columbia who equid understand their wants. He went to the depot with them and procured their Another heavy fall of rain began about the middle of last night, but this morning dawned clear and beautful. In consequence thereof our streets are in a very muddy condition. Our pavements are also dirty, caused by the trees shedding their leaves. This would be the day for the tnuting parties, as the rain and wind caused a large number of trees to be entirely shed of their burrs. A party of five, taking advantage of this, left this morning for Chestnut hill. Helen Potter's Piciades in the opera house tast ev ming were greeted by a very ter where she has since resided. A grand entertainment will be held in Odd Fellows' hall on Saturday evening by the 1st African Baptist church for the repairs of the church. The colored band will play.

Several persons were arraigned before Squire Young yesterday for drunk and disorderly conduct. One paid the fine and costs and the others were discharge 1. One day last week the squire imposed a fine upon a woman and last evening told her that as he wanted to square his books he would like to be paid. The woman did not have the money, so the squire told her to send him a box of cigars, which she did. Squire offers samples of them to people who want to know what sea-sickness is Three wrecks occurred on the Pennsyl vania railroad this morning at this place. As engine No. 187, with a cabin attached, was pulling off of the engine track in the west yard, engine No. 169 was coming off siding No. 1, the cabin struck the latter with sufficient force to break one of the steam chests and knock the engine off of the track. The ties were badly damaged as was one rail. The wreckers soon repaired the latter, while the engines were put in the shops. Engine No. 187 also caused another wreck in the west yard. It was "shooting" cars on the trestle work in front of the round house. On one of the sidings was an empty box car, and when the car, which was shifted back of 187 struck the other, it knocked it half way off the trestles. It still remains in that condition as the wreckers have had no time to rep'ace it. About the same time of the happenings of above wrecks in the west yard, a wreck also occurred in the cast yard. Engine No. 114 was dropping cars on main track No 2, and in doing so struck a train that was standing on a siding and displaced the car. The woodwork of the wrecked car were broken off of their trucks. By the three wrecks the way passenger train was delayed thirtyfive minutes.

Going to Reading.

The family of our well-known and highly respected townsman, Mr. Garret II. Everts, will to-morrow remove to Reading, where Mr. Everts has for some weeks past been engaged as cutter for the merchant tailoring house of Myers & Heim. Mr. Everts has long been a worthy citizen of Lancaster and held in high esteem by our people, as have been all the members of his family. For many years he has been connected with the clothing houses of Hager & Brother and Myers & Rathfon, successively, and enjoyed a deservedly high reputation as a skillful cutter of gentlemen's garments. Reading is assured of an acquisition in Mr. Evert's removal to that city, and his departure from Lancaster is accompanied by the best wishes of many friends. The composing force of the INTELLI-GENCER is affected by the removal of the family of Mr. Everts in the loss to it of the valued services of Mr. Garret B. Everts, his son, who has long been a "fixture" of this establishment, having learned his trade here, and maintained almost continuous relations with it for a period of years. "Garry" is an excellent printer and a mighty clever fellow, and his associates in this office, to say nothing of hosts of other friends outside of it, who cordially echo the sentiment, wish him plenty of good fortune in his change Having been tested by wide and constant use

A Wolfe Meeting.

Milk Wagon Robbed.

This morning the milk wagon of Levi F. Kauffman, was robbed of the money box, account book and between $3 and $5 in money. Mr. Kauffman's son was in the original and not a counterfeit present- | charge of the wagon, serving milk to his customers, and had occasion for a minute or two to go into the house of one or two of them. On returning to the wagon he found it had been robbed. He gave the police a description of a boy who had been dogging him for some time, and this afternoon officer Kautz arrested Henry Fisher, aged 14 years, and locked him up for a hearing before Alderman Spurrier. Fisher has been arrested several times of scenes in Germany, and the exhibition charged with till tapping at the Northern

RAILBOAD MATTERS. The increased Rates—Bond to Answer

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—The advanced passenger rates adopted by the Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio railroad companies apply to East-bound as well as West-bound traffic. The increase in freight rates is at present confined to East-bound traffic, but the same figures will shortly go into effect for West-bound freight. The Pennsylvania railroad officials state that they expect to maintain the increased charges and they must ultimately be adopted by all the through lines.

President Bond of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad company will not make any reply to the statements contained in Receiver Gowen's circular until next week, when he will publish a circular reviewing the condition and requirements of the company. He states that Mr. Gowen's request for unregistered stock is a repetie tion of his tactics of last year when he claimed to possess a majority of the stock which was, however, decided to be inelig-
