LANCASTER DAILY INTELLIGENCER WEDNESDAT: OCTOBER 26, 1881.

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Walking parties are the rage here. There was a drunken ball at Marietta last night.

Special meeting every evening this week in the M. E. church.

The Garfield drapery is being generally taken down and there is task of sending it to the Michigan sufferers.

The Workers' society of the Trinity Re formed church of Columbia will hold another sociable in the lecture room of the church to-morrow evening.

Matthew Wolfe sued a man named Prodochl for shooting within the borough limits, the latter, in firing at some pigeons, having struck a cow belonging to Wolfe. He paid his fine and costs to Chief Burgess Sneath.

A horse attached to King's bakery wagon scared at the fall of a tree which was being cut down in front of Detwiler's bank. The animal ran off and succeeded in tearing the harness to shreds and badly damaging the wagon. At a special meeting of the school board last evening, the only business of import ance transacted was the granting of leave of absence to Misses Skeen, Nowlen, Hinkle, Hogentogler, Leman and Straw-bridge, teachers in the public schools and classmates of Miss Emma Kessler, who died last Sunday, in order that they might attend the funeral this afternoon, and that their schools be closed. It was also decided to insure the new Fifth street school building and furniture in the sum of $3,000.

A little over two years ago a man by the name of Grosse committed a rape in York county. Detectives were at once put upon his track but were unsuccessful in capturing him. Yesterday a policeman from York came to Columbia and asked for a first class detective. Samuel Campbell, formerly a policeman in the borough, and who now keeps a livery stable, sent for Special Officer Rodenhauser. A description of Grosse was given, and hiring a team and taking the necessary papers along, Rodenhauser set out. He knew of a man answering to the discrip-tion, hving at or near Chestnut hill. He proceeded thither, found the man, who bet. upon hearing the warrant read, attempted the escape. For nearly half an hour Rodenhauser chased him and finally caught him, by getting near enough to knock him down with his fist. The handcuffs were put on him and he was brought to Columbia, placed in the hands of the York policeman and taken to York. This is a big feather in Henry's cap. Grosse is a desperate villain, and one whose name alone causes terror in the breasts of the York police.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Before Judge Patterson. The case of George Shoff vs. Thomas Baumgardner, summon in ejectment, was called yesterday morning to be tried be fore Judge Livingston, but it was found that the plaintiff was without counsel; the attorney whom he had, having withdrawn. Mr. Reynolds was employed, and was given by the court until this afternoon to examine the case. He informed the court that he would not be supposed Theft of Postage Stamps.

This morning George Thompson, who was committed to the county prison for drunken and disorderly conduct. "gave Hair Color Bestorer," the most cleanly and dedrunken and disorderly conduct, "gave away" a gang of his fellow-bummers, who were said to have about $60 worth of stolen U. S. postage stamps, which they all impure ingredients that render many other offered to sell for $15. This part of the story was soon confirmed, as the police soon learned that some of the tramps had been to the drug store of Mr. Groff, corner of Middle and East King streets, and offered to sell the stamps for $15. Mr. Groff of course refused to purchase. The police at once went in pursuit of the party at 75 cents a bottle. Eix bottles for $L. and succeeded in capturing James Mack,

Thomas Morgan and Wm. Clark, but none of the postage stamps were found upon them. They had considerable sums of money, however, and were armed with rather formidable looking knives. They were locked up for a hearing.

A Young Lauy Terribly Burned.

Last evening at Chambersburg Mary Eyster, while holding a student's lamp, was frightfully burned. Her clothing caught fire, she screamed and ran into the yard, where a brisk breeze fanned the flames. Her mother wrapped a shawl about her and had her hands burned to the bone. Hor sister and brother attempted to wrap her in a carpet and were burned. She tore the carpet off, and the fire was only quenched when two gentlemen, by main force, held the carpet about her. She is now conscious, but suffering terribly, and it is not expected that she can recover.

A Long Run. Last evening John Hood, colored, came dashing into the Pennsylvania railroad depot at a tremendous rate of speed, out wanted to tell the 'porter, or reporter as some folks name him, that he left Rohrerstown at 6:35 afoot and reached the Lancaster depot at 6:52, making the trip in 17 minutes! The distance is about three miles and the run was made to win a $5

This morning the night school commit-tee of the school board elected Mr. R. S. Gates as an additional teacher in the Duke street night school for boys. The teach-ing force now consists of Messrs. In the case of Jacob M. Long vs. Sher-wood Smith judgment was entered in favor of the plaintiff for $841.44.

The plaintiffs suffered a non-suit in the case of Schastian Miller and Levi Miller, assignees of Elias Billingsfelt, vs. Wm. K. Maurer, Sarah Maurer, W. W. Fetter and Josiah Hertz.

Daniel Brua, John Brua and Franklin Brua vs. George Beiler. This is an action of trespass in which the plaintiffs complain that they have been damaged by the raising of the defendant's mill dam, so that the water floods their land and interferes somewhat with the running of their mill. The plaintiff's mill is on the Pequea creek, in the upper end of Paradise near where Watson's run empties. Defendant's mill is on the same stream about three quarters of a mile farther down, near where Espenshade's run empties. Yesterday the jury were taken to view the places and this morning the evidence began. Wm. Wohlsen, who appealed from the award of viewers to assess damages by the opening of Christian street from Church street to the city limits, was granted an issue and the case will now be heard by a jury, when the amount of damages sus-tained will be ascertained.

AT FREDERICK.

The Washington Boys Enjoying Themselves.

The Washington Boys Enjoying Themselves. The Washington fire company and Clemens's band arrived in Frederick at 6:25 p. m. yesterday after an uneventful and pleasant ride. The road passes through a beautiful and highly improved country, not unlike our own county, and the boys carefully noted the objects of interest on the way, and inspected the leading sta-tions. Arriving at Frederick they were met by the United company and escorted to the latter's house, through crowds of cheering spectators and while the bells of the city were rang. At the engine house Vice President F. J. Nelson, a the city were rang. At the engine house Vice President F. J. Nelson, a leading lawyer, formally welcomed the Lancaster visitors, and Mayor Moberly extended the freedom of the city. W. U. Hensel fitly responded for the Washington. They were then marched to the Carlin house, where they are comfortably quartered. It is a well managed and centrally located hotel, run under the same direction as the City hotel, the leading hostelrie of the place.

The parade comes off this afternoon and among the companies in line is the Sarah Jane, a crack company from Win-chester, Va. Clemmens's band was busy to-day, serenading prominent people and places. Among the features of the visitation are the presentation to the United of the beautiful finished horns from Dana Graham's comb factory, and to Mayor Moberly of a good photograph of Clemmens, Norbeck and Chambers of the band, Moberly is an old band leader, a first rate fellow, and our band men knew him well and learned to like him when they were stationed in Frederick in the early days of the war.

A special dispatch received by the In-TELLIGENCER this afternoon states that the Washington company were out sere-nading the newspaper offices and the fire companies this morning ; that the weather is delightful, and that all hands are having an enjoyable time. The parade was a very successful affair. The company will return to-morrow via York, stopping off there during the afternoon as the guests of the Union.
