TENNYSON'S "DESPAIR."

A New Bramatic Monologue by the Poet Laurente of England. Alfred Tennyson publishes a dramatic monologue, entitled Despair, in the current number of the Nincteenth Century. It is the story of a man and his wife, who, having los faith in a good future life, resolved to commit suicide by drowning. The woman is drowned but the man is rescued by the minister of the sect he has abandoned. Of this work the critic remarks: "Mr. Tennyson has never been less ambiguous, seldom more powerful, never more weirdly impressive than in this, the latest fruit of his genius. Mr. Tennyson, on this occasion, exemplifies without enforcing, or, in terms retuting the mental misery of a man without hope, without belief and without the capacity of enjoying the only life of whose existence he can feel sure. The whole poem is a dressed by the man snatched from death to his unwelcomed friend in apparent need. Here and there are interspersed fragments of spasmodic reproach to this officious intruder, but the greater part monologue is an explanation of the sufferer's feelings so far as they are capable of analysis." The following are quotations from this poem Is it you that preached in the chapelthere,

College Students Without Dinner. When the students at Trinity college assembled in the dining hall Sunday morning, it was found that there was nothing to eat and no waiters. Samuel Harris, colored manager of the dining hall, had disappeared at midnight on Saturday, and taken with him the cooks, the waiters and the kitchen implements. Until about three weeks ago the dining hall was managed by a committee of the faculty and stu-dents, but as all did not run smoothly a contrac: was entered into with Harris, by the terms of which he was to run the hall. His expenses were quite large, and there was much complaint of the quality of the food furnished by him. Harris claims that the college did not furnish bim with proper rooms to live in, as he says had been agreed, and so he threw up the con-

STRANGE-YET TRUE!

STRANGE, YET TRUE!

STRANGE, YET TRUE, that after the hundreds of extraordinary cures wrought by DR. GREENE in this city and county. of Consumption, Diabetes, Palsy, Fits, Dyspepsia and other diseases, after the patients had (without success) tested Allo, and Homeopathic physicians. Tis very strange that hundreds of other persons, more or less afflicted with disease, will not read Dr. Greene's pamphlets, or call upon him and be cured of their ailments. Strange that they could be influenced by jealous physicians, or druggists, to keep away from Dr. Greene. They ought to know that the major portion of his patients are from the ranks of other M. D.'s, and that if they did not lie, or throw out some kind of inuendoes, they would lose the balance of their patients. Mrs. McCaskey, of Philadelphia, came under Dr. G.'s charge through Mr. Powell, of No. 6 East Walnut street, almost blind; been for years testing the Philadelphia oculists. Oct. 27, went home with good vision and health. Oct. 27, Wm. Ensminger, a blacksmith of Strasburg. came in almost a new man, having suffered for years with Dyspepsia in its worst forms. That Old Store.

"The old corner," "the old reliable." "the good old place"-All right, friends, call it what you please. We confess to some pride in being "old" in some respects.

It was a pretty dark day, 21 years ago, when we christened "OAK HALL," and stood up to answer to the name. 21 years is long enough for a baby to grow to manhood, and for a small undertaking to grow into a great enterprise. 21 years ago we were our own buyer, bookkeeper, porter and watchman; and stuck to it until others came along to help, some of whom have been with us ever since.

To day the needed helpers are numbered by thousands, and our customers are almost beyond number and everywhere.

Our store 21 years ago was "only that cubby-hole at the corner," hardly large enough to turn around in. Now you know what it is.

Truly we have grown old-and "settled." We havn't any disposition to change from fixed prices, nor from fixed principles, the chief of which is guarding the interests of our customers.

We keep to our plain old-fashioned Oak Hall buildings. They are like old-fashioned silver, well-worn, but still solid and good, better than some

We hold fast also to our oid methods of serving our customers, viz: with the largest assortments to select from, the very best for the money, a guarantee with every purchase, viz: the privilege of bringing back goods and taking the money again if they want to.

The only new thing about the Oak Hall premises strained and overcrowded by the ever-increasing business, is the new stock for the winter of 1881. We sold out almost to bare boards last winter. Nearly everything is this season's cut and fashioning. New materials have been used, and new patterns to cut them by.

Please accept this old-fashioned, hearty invitation to look in upon us and thus find out if our old age and experience hasn't served us well in producing this stock.
