A Particular Advertiser. "How much will this cost in your paper?" asked a quiet-looking man, as he handed in the following advertisement at the Eagle counting room yesterday :. SMITH.—Busted a trace, in this city. Friday, just after dinner, Mary Smith, wife of the undersigned and daughter of old Sam Pratt, the leading blacksmith of Denver, Colorado. The corpse was highly respected by the high-ton dest families, but Death got the drop on her, and she took up the bucket with perfect confidence that she would have a square show the other side of the Divide. The plant transpires this afternoon at her boarding house on Willow street. Come one, come Dearest Mary, thou hast left us, For you on earth there wasn't room; But 'tis Heaven that has bereft us And snatched our darling up the flume. Denver papers please copy and send bill, or draw at sight.

ht. By her late busband, P. SMITH. "I don't believe you want it just that way, do you?" asked the clerk, rubbing his chin dubiously.

"Why not, stranger?" asked the quiet "It don't read quite right, does it?"

asked the clerk. "Was you acquainted with the corpse, stranger?" demanded the quiet man. "Was you aware of the late lamented while she was bustling around in society down at that boarding house?" "I don't know that I ever met her, responded the clerk. "So I reckoned, judge, you wasn't up to the deceased, when she was in the liv ing business. Now, judge, the deceased wrote that oration herself afore she died, and I want it in. Do you hook on, part-

"But it isn't our style of notice," objected the clerk. "Nor mine, neither," acquiesced the quiet man. "I was for having a picture of her and a lot more talk, but she said she wanted to be quiet and modest, so she whooped that up. Say, stranger, is it going into your valuable space without any difficulty ?" "I don't know, ' said the clerk, dolefully.

"I know, partner. This cebration comes off to morrow afternoon and that's going in in the morning if it goes in out of a cannon. I've got grief enough on my brains now, stranger, without erecting a fort on the sidewalk; but if you want war, I've got the implements right in the back part of these mourning clothes. What d'ye think, judge ?"

"Does it make any difference where it goes?" asked the clerk. "I want it in the paper," said the mourner, "and it's going in, if it takes a spile driver. Think you twig my racket, stranger :

"All right," replied the clerk. "I'll put it in the 'Salad,' among the other mournful remarks. Four dollars, please." "That's business," and the quiet man pail the money. "If you ain't busy come around to morrow. I'm going to give the old woman a send off, and if that gospeller don't work a pretty good programme before he gets to the doxology, his folks will think he's been doing considerable busiold woman a send off, and if that gospeller ness with a saw mill. She was a good one, judge, and she was pious from the back of her neck to the bunion on her heel; you can tell that from the notice," and the mourning widower wiped his eyes on the sly, and later in the day was fined ten dollars for thrashing the undertaker, who had put silver handles on the casket instead Policemen as Athletes.

Baltimore has perhaps the best police force of any city in the United States. One reason of their superiority is, that there is connected with the police department. a first class gymnasium, in which all can participate and become expert in the graceful and manly exercises of the athletes.

Our Lancaster policeman, are, as a rule, well built muscular men, but they don't take half enough exercise. When they have no special duty to perform, they are often to be found lounging around alder-man's offices, or perhaps dozing in the mayors office, the station house or other places. What they need to wake them up and make men of them is a good gymnasium, of the Baltimore pattern, in which they could spar, wrestle, swing the Indian clubs and dumbells, and perform other gymnastic exercises. City councils should at once fit up a gymnasium for the police force. It would not cost a great deal and would beyond doubt be of vast advantage the men. The Baltimore papers yesterday publish an account of exhibition given on Tuesday evening by the police force at their rooms over the middle station, which was witnessed by a number of persons, including Police Commissioners Milroy and Herbert, Comptroller Vansant, Marshal Gray, Deputy Marshal Frey, and Captains Earhart, Delanty and Lannan. There were pyramid forming, club swinging, by the class and by Prof. Kimball, dumbell exercise, exhibitions on the parallel and and horizontal bars and ladder, sparing by the professor and officer Miles, and a tug of war beeween classes of Sergeant Rowe and Sergeant Barrenger, four on a side, won by the former in one turn. The wrestling was the feature of the night, and it was very fine. In the Graco-Roman match tripping allowed, between officers Roberts and Cole, one round, the former won. A similar match between officers Meehan and Leech was won by Leech and one between officers Dolan and Pow ers by Dolan. The strict Graco Roman match between officers Dunn and Barney Burns, best two out of three, was won by Burns in two straight rounds. A collar and cloow match between the Doyle Bros, John and William, beat three in five was won by John, who secured three falls to wrote an Illinois girl to her Eastern relatives.

William's two. "Mother has Recovered"

"She took bitters for a long time but without any good. So when she heard of the virtues of Kidney-Wort she got a box and it has completely cured her, so that she can do as much work now as she could before we moved West. Since she has got well everyone about her is taking it." See adv.

Invigorating food for the brain and nerves is what we need in these days of rush and worry. Parker's Ginger-Tonic restores the vital energies, and brings good health quicker, than anything you can use.—Tribune. See advertisement.

Second Edition of Job. Mrs. Og.len, N. Division street, Buffalo, says
'I cannot be too thankful that I was induced "I cannot be too thankful that I was induced to try your Spring Blossom. I was at one time afraid I should never be able to get out again. I seemed to be a second edition of Job without his parience: my face and body were one vast collection of boils and pimples; since taking one bottle of your Spring Blossom I am quite cured, all cruptions have disappeared, and I feel better than I have in a long time." ### That Old Store.

"The old corner," "the old reliable." "the good old place"-All right, friends, call it what you please. We confess to some pride in being "old" in some respects.

It was a pretty dark day, 21 years ago, when we christened "Oak HALL," and stood up to answer to the name. 21 years is long enough for a baby to grow to manhood, and for a small undertaking to grow into a great enterprise. 21 years ago we were our own buyer, bookkeeper, porter and watchman; and stuck to it until others came along to help, some of whom have been with us ever since.

To day the needed helpers are numbered by thousands, and our customers are almost beyond number and everywhere.

Our store 21 years ago was "only that cubby-hole at the corner," hardly large enough to turn around in. Now you know what it is.

Truly we have grown old-and "settled." We havn't any disposition to change from fixed prices, nor from fixed principles, the chief of which is guarding the interests of our customers.

We keep to our plain old-fashioned Oak Hall buildings. They are like old-fashioned silver, well-worn, but still solid and good, better than some

We hold fast also to our old methods of serving our customers, viz: with the largest assortments to select from, the very best for the money, a guarantee with every purchase, viz: the privilege of bringing back goods and taking the money again if they want to.

The only new thing about the Oak Hall premises strained and overcrowded by the ever-increasing business, is the new stock for the winter of 1881. We sold out almost to bare boards list winter. Nearly everything is this season's cut and fashioning. New materials have been used, and new patterns to cut them by.

Please accept this old-fashioned, hearty invitation to look in upon us and thus find out if our old age and experience hasn't served us well in producing this stock.
