Well Merited Defeat.

The defeat of young Mr. Astor's aspirations to go to Congress will serve as a wholesome example to that class of people who, alas! have had too frequent occasion to believe that money and its illegal and profuse use are unfailing means of political advancement.

It sometimes becomes needful to rebuke that spirit of demagogism which teaches that to wear a clean shirt and to have a certain knowledge of the forms of polite society are disqualifications of a popular representative.

Good clothes and good breeding in themselves should be no bar to political honors, any more than horny hands or lack of luge. Good men are often poor; the meanest and worst frequently happen upon wealth.

Neither Stalwart Arthur nor Hall-Breed MacVeagh voted on Tuesday. Call it a stand-off.

Mr. Wolfe polled a large Democratic vote in Snyder and Union counties. And yet Judge Decher could have spotted them more easily than Noble!

That a considerable number of Philadelphia Democrats voted for Wolfe or Baily may be inferred from the fact that Mr. Noble had only 42,475 votes, while Veale for recorder of deeds had 46,476.

The advantage of a non-partisan policy, under a Democratic reform mayor, over the operations of Stokley's force, can best be inferred from the fact of universal testimony regarding the elections of Tuesday in Philadelphia that "a very noticeable feature of the day was the absence of electioneering quarrels."

On election day in New York young Astor's opponent met a friend, who told him of some working men who had assured him they were Democrats and were going to vote for him but would like a little more money to spend.

There is good reason for saying that the president in his forthcoming message will urge upon Congress a reduction in internal taxes to the extent of at least $7,000,000.

The election of a Democratic majority in the New York Legislature will block the game that was on foot to secure Latham's resignation, with the offer of a life judgeship, and re-elect Conkling to the Senate, where he could do his friend in the White House the most good.

WE regret to hear from the solid South that in the election news from the Democratic state of Mississippi fresh subject is furnished for an outbreak on the floor of the Senate, by such "outrage shriekers" as Messrs. Hoar and Dawes, who now rattle around and are lost in the reats once occupied by Webster and Sumner.

Ex-R. B. HAYES has been elected supervisor of roads at Fremont, Ohio. We knew that man would come to something yet.

SARAH BERNHARDT'S success in Belgium has been so great that she is to return later to Brussels in order to give fifteen more performances.

Dean STANLEY left $24,000 to his sisters and $2,000 for a fund to pay guides to show strangers through Westminster Abbey and abolish the fee system.

For some mysterious reason the Philadelphia Times speaks of the late Dr. HOLLAND as a "wild genius" who "has passed to other work in other spheres as we say."

On Wednesday last week Mr. ISAAC WALKER and his wife Eliza Ann, esteemed residents of the Gap, celebrated the golden (fiftieth) anniversary of their wedding.

The silver wedding of ABRAM EICHOLD and wife in Chicago cost $20,000. The festivities occurred in a large hall, the music, decorations and supper were the best, and no presents were accepted.

Rev. Dr. JOHN HALL has declined the chancellorship of the University of the City of New York, as he does not want to leave his church and his family.

Mr. Grant and Conkling had only "walked through" Tom Murphy's district.

Mr. Grant and Conkling had gone on horseback through Astor's district, what might not have happened?

PERSONAL.

Ex-Treasurer JOHN C. NEW is ticketed for the Russian mission. Indiana will soon be a bigger state than Ohio.

BERTHOLD ABERNETHY, the celebrated German novelist, is lying seriously ill at Canastota.

The Marquis and Marquise de ROCHAMBEAU sailed from New York for Europe yesterday on the steamship St. Laurent.

THE ELECTIONS.

PENNSYLVANIA REPUBLICAN.

THE RETURNS BY COUNTIES.

Results in Other States of the Union. The following are the reported majorities for Noble and Baily by counties:

Table with columns for County, Noble, Baily, and Total. Includes counties like Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, Berks, Bucks, Carbon, Chester, Clearfield, Clinton, Columbia, Cumberland, Dauphin, Delaware, Erie, Franklin, Fulton, Luzerne, Lycoming, Mifflin, Monroe, Montgomery, Northampton, Northumberland, Perry, Pike, Potter, Schuylkill, Sullivan, Union, Westmoreland, York, and Luzerne.

The following gives the total vote for Wolfe in the counties named, so far as ascertained:

THE ELECTIONS ELSEWHERE.

Mixed Result in New York. The returns from the state still leave the result on the general ticket somewhat doubtful. The latest figures, however, strongly indicate Republican success.

Associated press dispatches from Albany at a late hour last night says: "The returns from the state, so far as received, together with the estimated returns, give a majority of 5,700 to the Republican ticket in the Senate."

AN INDIGNANT "BARON." He Would Escort Mrs. Bigelow or Nobody. At the New York call to the foreign visitors from France and Germany, a most ludicrous incident was the very early departure of the Von Steuben, seven in a row, from the ball room.

Democratic Claims. The latest figures throw some doubt over the result on the secretary of state, but the rest of the Democratic ticket is undoubtedly carried.

Virginia and Other States. The Readjusters have captured Virginia. The returns are but meagre, but it is not probable that the majority will fall below 8,000, while the Readjusters claim to be twice as large.

THE OLD GAS COMPANY.

Recollections of the Corporation's History. At the Stevens house last evening there was a pleasant social gathering of the directors of the old gas company, and a few personal friends of the treasurer, to partake of some of the good things of life and spend a cheerful evening around the social board.

A train broke through a trestle bridge near Bloomfield, and John Gardner, brakeman, was fatally injured.

An unknown woman was killed by a railroad train, near Pawtucket, R. I. Her body was thrown into a field, where it awaits identification.

A sailing vessel with dynamite aboard has been detained at Gallipoli and placed in charge of the commandant at Dardanelles.

Samuel Barr, for twenty years superintendent of repairs on the Delaware and Raritan canal, has died at his home in New Brunswick.

The Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio railroads have decided that it will not be expedient for the present to follow the advance in freights made by the Vanderbilt roads.

Tastes differ and are not to be disputed. Dr. B. Barnum, an old and prominent physician of Schoelcher, Mich., said himself on his dissecting table and shot himself through the heart.

A few days ago the yearling filly Hinda Reel trotted a mile in 2:43; and the two-year old Wildflower, that recently trotted a mile in 2:21, was given a quarter of a mile in 32 seconds, a 2:58 gal. Both are by Electioneer, the son of Hambletonian and Green Mountain Maid.

Frank Martinez was killed by William Caid in a railroad camp, near Liberty Hill, Texas, a few days ago. The body of William Caid was found near a pistol ball in the camp, and was identified as the murderer.

John Sullivan, of Boston, and Paddy Ryan, of New York, have posted the second and third prizes in the annual match for $5,000 and the championship of America. Ryan at present weighs 250 pounds and will enter the ring weighing 185. Sullivan weighs 193 pounds and will enter the ring weighing 175.

RAILROAD INSPECTION.

Annual Trip Over the Pennsylvania Road. This afternoon about half-past ten o'clock the "inspection train" passed east through this city over the Pennsylvania railroad.

The inspection is conducted by the general manager, chief engineer, general superintendent and assistant engineers. The inspectors, numbering nearly a hundred, ride in four special trains, consisting of open box cars constructed especially for the survey of the road bed, and the right of way.

There are about one hundred sub-divisions between Pittsburgh and New York. Each of these sub-divisions has a foreman, and for every forty miles there is a general superintendent, and by the employment of the men under these, who in summer are employed at track repairing, in winter as watchmen, every mile of the road is guarded.

The condition of the track is ascertained by means of a delicately constructed instrument which is operated by means of delicate rods and levers connected with springs under the car, and the depression is recorded upon paper, which moves at the rate of four feet to the mile by a peculiarly shaped wheel.

Another pen worked by an electric press button is used for marking mile posts, signal towers, stations, switches, etc., so that by subsequent inspection of the diagrams the positions of faults in the track may be readily located. A pen worked by the same gearing that drives the paper moving mechanism makes a notch in a line every time the car has passed over a distance of a hundred feet, so that if any peculiarity is observed in the diagram, the car may be stopped at once, and the position of the fault ascertained.

Count met on Tuesday for the purpose of counting and consolidating the returns of the several election districts of this county of the votes cast at the election on Tuesday last.

Judge Patterson presided, Judge Livingston being a candidate for re-election, and being eligible to take part in counting the vote.

Prothonotary McMellen produced the returns of the late election, and they were taken in charge by Judge Patterson.

After transacting some routine business court rose, to meet at 2 o'clock.
