

The Lancaster Intelligencer.

Volume XVIII--No. 67.

LANCASTER, PA., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1881.

Price Two Cents.

DRY GOODS

STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER'S OPENING.

OPENING OF NEW STORE

—BY—

STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER,

ON WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 2,

WE OPENED OUR NEW STORE, AT

EIGHTH AND FILBERT STREETS,

Which Building forms part of the main structure at

EIGHTH AND MARKET STREETS.

This addition enables us in many ways to add greatly to the comfort and convenience of our patrons.

THE DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENTS

Now occupy one unbroken line of counters, reaching the entire depth of the Filbert street extension and around to Eighth street, about 300 feet in length.

Many departments heretofore crowded have had largely increased space assigned them, and all are given more or less additional room by reason of the enlargement.

The only New Department we have added is that of

NOTIONS AND STAPLE TRIMMINGS,

where the thousand and one necessary trifles needed by ladies will be found.

We signalize the opening of the New Store by presenting for public inspection

THE MOST MAGNIFICENT STOCK

—OF—

DRY GOODS IN EVERY VARIETY

that has been placed on sale in our city, and by offering in every department of the house

SOME NOTABLE BARGAINS

That cannot fail to enlist the eager attention of buyers.

We invite all our out-of-town friends, when in Philadelphia, to pay a visit of inspection to our enlarged establishment. They will find that in extending our premises to accommodate increasing business we have arranged many things with a view to their special comfort and convenience, notably among which are the bureau of information, the system of checking parcels, the Ladies' Parlor, etc.

STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER

N. W. Cor. Eighth & Market Sts., S. W. Cor. Eighth & Filbert Sts.,

PHILADELPHIA.

GIVLER, BOWERS & HURST.

The intended change in our business necessitates a great reduction in stock. During the past week we have gone over the different departments, and we have made GREAT REDUCTIONS IN PRICE.

We have many special things to offer and therefore invite examination. We offer

A GREAT BARGAIN IN

Black Cashmeres and Black Silks, —ALSO—

FLANNELS AND BLANKETS,

LOWER THAN THEY HAVE EVER BEEN SOLD.

Extra Bargains in Brussels and Ingrain Carpets, Oil Cloths, &c.

We open this morning an Elegant Line of

LADIES' IMPORTED COATS,

Which cannot be duplicated this season. We offer them very low.

Let us extend an invitation to all to call and look through our stock.

GIVLER, BOWERS & HURST,

25 EAST KING STREET.

IRON BITTERS.

IRON BITTERS.

IRON BITTERS.

IRON BITTERS!

A TRUE TONIC. SURE APPETISER.

IRON BITTERS are highly recommended for all diseases requiring a certain and efficient tonic; especially INDIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, WANT OF APETITE, LOSS OF STRENGTH, LACK OF ENERGY, &c.

It enriches the blood, strengthens the muscles, and gives new life to the nerves. It acts like a charm on the digestive organs, removing all dyspeptic symptoms, such as Tasting the Food, Belching, Heat in the Stomach, Heartburn, &c. The only Iron Preparation that not blacken the teeth or give headache. Sold by all druggists. Write for the A. B. C. Book, 22 pp. of useful and amusing reading—sent free.

BROWN CHEMICAL COMPANY,

123-124 W. BALTIMORE, MD.
For Sale at COCHRAN'S DRUG STORE, 137 and 139 North Queen Street, Lancaster.

MEDICAL.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM.

PARKER'S GINGER TONIC.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM.—The Best, Cheapest and Most Economical Hair Dressing Never fails to restore youthful color to gray hair. 50c and 41 sizes.
PARKER'S GINGER TONIC.—Ginger, Bile, Mandrake, and many of the best medicines known are here combined into a medicine of such varied powers, as to make it the greatest Blood Purifier and Tonic. It cures all the complaints of the Stomach, Bowels, Lungs, Liver and Kidneys, and is entirely different from Bitters, Ginger Essences, and other Tonics, as it never intoxicates, and is of a pleasant taste. H. S. COX & CO., Chemists, N. Y. Large saving buying #1 size. sep21-lyeodew.kw

HOTELS.

LIQUORS, &c.

NOW OPEN—SPEECHER HOUSE.—On European plan. Dining Rooms for Ladies and Gentlemen. Entrance at No. 31 North Duke Street. Clean and Tasty Soup, Lobster Salad, Oysters in Every Style and all the Delicacies of the Season. We solicit the patronage of the public. may7-td

RINGWALT'S

WINE, LIQUOR, ALCOHOL AND GROCERY STORE.

1616-17 17th St. NO. 26 WEST KING STREET.

Lancaster Intelligencer.

FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 18, 1881.

WAY OF THE WORLD.

FLASHES OF WIT AND HUMOR.

WHAT THE PARAGRAPHERS HAVE LATELY INVENTED.

Queer Things, Queer People and Queer Stories.

We should believe only in work; words are sold for nothing everywhere.

Speaking of oleomargarine—they told me it was false butter, still believe it true.

It is a little singular that a man will buy a ticket that he cannot swallow.

"Pay as you go" is good advice and does very well for the man who doesn't go very much.

When it comes to gathering in chickens the turkey's hour is just before the dawn.

It is altogether a mistaken impression to suppose that dyed eggs are laid by sick chickens.

The past tense of bee hive is bee hoove. If you don't believe it on one and see if it don't behoove you to get up.

A man who buys Confederate bonds will make a permanent investment. They will be as good in the year 2000 as they are to-day.

A man was made in an instant bald-headed forever in Mobile by the explosion of a firecracker in his hat. It was the work of his playful son.

They asked him if he was the best man at the wedding. "No," he said; "I know I was as good as any of 'em."

Brakenham: "The train is now about to enter the state Missouri. Gentlemen who have not provided themselves with carriages will pass toward the locomotive and crawl into the coaches."

A Chinaman who describes a trial in one court, "one man is silent, another talks all the time, and twelve wise men condemn the man who has not said a word."

"I know a victim to tobacco," said a lecturer, "who hasn't tasted food for over thirty years." "How do you know he hasn't tasted an auditor?" "Because he has killed him in 1870."

Reflection by a man profoundly indifferent to water families. "Just because I can't walk when I drink too much they say I oughtn't to drink. Stupidities! I oughtn't to try to walk!"

"Parting is such a sweet sorrow," remarked a hotel headwaiter to a pretty girl as she told her good night. "I should smile," she replied glancing upwards at his hairiness and wondering how he ever did it.

Miss Darden, probably the largest man on record, born in North Carolina in 1728, died in Henderson county, Tenn., January 23, 1857. He was 7 feet 6 inches high, and in 1845 weighed 871 pounds. At his death his weight was over 1,000 pounds.

Tradition has it that Edward I., of England, created the first time of war by presenting to his Welsh subjects his infant son in response to their demand that he should give them a prince born in Wales, who could speak no English and had done no wrong to man, woman or child. "Eich Dyn?" (here is your man) replied the king. "The present prince will have to content himself with the usual motto, 'Ich Dien'—(I serve)."

The Political Outlook, as Seen by Different Observers.

S. Y. Sun, Ind.

Leading Republicans, who would be pleased to enter a regularly organized cabinet, do not care to be mixed up, even temporarily, with the levings of the late administration.

Quay's Benediction.

York Dispatch, Saturday.

Why, then, dissent? Why distraction? Why faction in Pennsylvania? Why should the Republican party destroy its well managed organization by destroying the power and influence of its great leaders, its most useful men and most successful managers? It should defend its infant son in response to their demand that he should give them a prince born in Wales, who could speak no English and had done no wrong to man, woman or child. "Eich Dyn?" (here is your man) replied the king. "The present prince will have to content himself with the usual motto, 'Ich Dien'—(I serve)."

Under the Ave.

Philadelphia Evening Telegraph.

The Garfield Republican placemen of Ohio are feeling their heads every morning to make sure something has not happened, and Senator Sherman has, apparently, kindly undertaken to act as protector in chief for his imperiled friends. Unceasingly the head of any outspoken Garfield man under this administration, and it will be interesting to watch the flash of the axe up and down the Ohio wilderness. And who will dare say that Mr. Sherman will not be one of the first men to applaud the coming work of destruction? He is now only kicking up the dust to hide his retreat.

The Explosion of the Steamer Solway.

The steamer on which the explosion occurred while on her way from Bristol to Glasgow was the Solway, not Severn, as before reported. Further details of the explosion show that eleven persons are supposed to have lost their lives, including five who took refuge in a boat and endeavored to escape, but were probably drowned, as the sea was heavy. There were only thirty-three persons in all on board. The barrel of naphtha burst on the fore part of the main deck and the fluid came in contact with fire in the main stowage. Six passengers were covered with the burning liquid and perished immediately. Their shrieks were awful, but assistance was impossible, the deck being well on fire. The fire was got under control by means of the donkey engine.

THE HURBURT LETTER.

It Causes Great Excitement in Chili.

Great excitement was produced in Chili by the publication of Mr. Hurbut's letter to General Lynch. The papers generally denied the genuineness of the document. The excitement extended to official circles, and Mr. J. M. Palma, the minister of foreign affairs in Santiago, addressed a note on the subject to General Kilpatrick. In reply General Kilpatrick categorically contradicted his Lima colleague. He assures him in the most emphatic manner that the Chilean government has nothing to fear, either from the intentions or the attitude which his government will assume with respect to the war in the Pacific. He says the instructions sent to Mr. Hurbut and himself by Secretary Blaine cannot bear a doubt, and to dispel all doubts as to the character of these instructions he copies a portion in which he is directed in all his conversation with members of the Chilean government in regard to the attitude of the United States toward Chili and Peru to conform to the known rulings of international laws and under no circumstances to officially offer any advice to the government of Chili which shall not previously have been solicited by it.

The publication of these letters in Lima followed in due course and was the first intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and for the Chileans. He is much disturbed at the course affairs have taken and is understood to be preparing an answer to General Kilpatrick, which shall include quotations from his own intimation received by General Harbut of his opinions and utterances were so openly discredited and disavowed, and that, too, by his own colleague, General Harbut insists that he is right, and Kilpatrick wrong, and that the latter has been led away by his well known friendship for Chili and