nation, $135. Third circle, southeast from centre.

Ladies' coats of every grade are in a good light in the new corner; and it there isn't enough room it is because many buyers are there.

New to-day. Coats of light cloths trimmed with plush, for young ladies only; the sizes and styles are yoang. $13 and $14. 1:01 Chestnut street.

Lengthening and re-dying seal coats: and the sooner it is done the better. American dye, of course; but for second dyeing it isn't worth while to send to London. By the way, would you like to look into our busy fur workroom on the third floor? You shall see all sorts of for skins and every process of making and ask as many questions as you like. 1303 Chest nut street

Striped moleskin plush, 22-inch, $2.75. Very 11cn solid silk plush stripes on ottoman silk with fine stripes of satin merveilleux between, $6.50. A distinguished novelty from Paris. Ivory-white satin de Lyon with bold brocade of cream plush picked out with uncut plush of the same color, $10, Next-oater circle, Chestnut-St. entrance.

Large small-cheeks or small-figured plaids; not at all like small-checks and not at all like plaids; a new effect altogether; stronger than small-checks and less gray than many colored plaids, $1.50. Considered decidedly stylish. The cloths are rather heavy.

Second circle, southeast from centre.

Muslin underwear of a grade found nowhere else in the stores of Philadelphia and New York, with the exception of a single house; i. e., well made and of fine enough maferial without any extravagance whatever, and at very moderate prices; so low indeed that families cannot afford to do the same work at home.

West from Chestnut street entrance.

We have had made a variety of very rich ties of embroidery surah, and much finer surab than we have seen in ready made ties. 65 cents to $2. The quality is the same in them all. The Bastiste ties embroidered with silk and cotton, a very unique and effective combination.

Onite handsome embroidered muli ties at 15 cents.
