TERRIBLE ACCIDENTS.

MAN KILLED IN WASHINGTON BORO, Explosion of a Blast in a Well.

Mr. Jacob Fisher, a repairman on the Port Deposit railroad, division No. 8, was instantly killed this morning at 8:10. He had been helping to load a car with ties that was standing on a siding in Washington borough. After it was finished he stood on the main track watching engine No. 1121 shifting. After the cars all had been put in their right places the engine backed down the main track. Fisher did not hear or see its approach, although the men waved their hands and yelled for him to get off the track. The bumper of the tank struck him, throwing him on track, the entire set of wheels passing over him. As one of the driving wheels was passing over his body, the engineer, who did not know what had happened, stopped the engine, the heavy wheel rest ing on the body. After finding out what costs. had occurred the engineer slightly moved the engine and the mutilated body of Mr. Fisher was drawn out. His appearance was sickening. Both arms and legs were off; his chest crushed in, so that his internals could be plainly seen, and his face was mashed out of all human shap?. Death was instantaneous. After wrapping his remains together they were placed on a car and passenger engine No. 14 brought them to Columbia, where they were placed in the warehouse of the P. R. R. Crowds of people went there to see the awful sight. Shortly afterward A. J. Musser, undertaker, took charge of the

Mr. Fisher is a man about 40 years old a widower and father of a large family. He went on the road on the 2d inst. and while working at the raising of the engine on the P. D. R. R., last Sunday a week, had two of his fingers slightly hurt. He has not yet drawn a month's pay, so short has been his time on the road. He formerly lived on Front street, Columbia, and kept the "Seven Stars" hotel. From there he moved to Washington borough and again came back, and his family now lives in Kitchentown. Heartfelt sympathy is ex pressed for his little ones. Blasting in a Well.

Frederick Myers and Martin Bitner, of Washington borough, while engaged in working at a blast, by the explosion of the same were scriously injured. They had been digging a well at the time and were some 30 feet below the surface. It is feared that Myers will lose his sight, as he was cut considerably about the upper part of the face. One of his tingers was also blown off. Bitner did not receive as serious injuries, as he climbed up a rope to the top of the well and called for assistance which soon came.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS. Before Judge Livingston.

The first case attached was that of Joseph Vanleer and Caroline Vanleer, for- disorders of the world, with his Celery and merly Carman, his wife, for the use of said wife, vs. Sidwell T. Wilson and Needham Wilson, executors of Needham Wilson, deceased. This was an action to recover wages for services rendered the deceased. According to the plaintiffs' testimony Caroline Carman was employed as a domestic in the family of Needham Wilson (now deceased), of Little Britain township, when she was 17 years of age. As evidence that deceased acknowledged ndebtedness to and wanted make a provision for the plaintiff a paper was produced which he left at the house of Mrs. Madigau, a relative of the plaintiff. It contained the following words: "I give these few lines to Caroline Carman to show that I want ber to have the sum of $1,200 at my death. She lived with me a number of years and got very little for it. I thought right to leave this little sum to be paid out of my home property," signed Needham Wilson. After a long discussion by counsel the paper was admitted in evi-It was then shown that plaintiff had hved with Mr. Wilson for 13 years, where she did housework, &c., for which she never received anything but her board.

The defense asked for a non suit, which was refused. They then proceeded to show that Caroline Carman had not done as much work as she claimed, as Mr. Wilson had other help; she came and went when she pleased to the great in-convenience of Mr. Wilson and family; in June, 1864, she had a settlement with Wilson and gave him a receipt in full to date; from that time she did not do any work. The receipt was objected to but was admitted.

Before Judge Livingston. Jacob K. Goodman vs. the Pennsylvania railroad company. This is an action to recover damages for injuries received by plaintiff on defendant's railroad. The evidence showed that on the 5th of November, 1864, the plaintiff, who was a farmer then and resided near Salunga, started from the city to drive home. He had one horse hitched to a spring wagon; he drove out the Harrisburg pike to the Colebrook road, which crosses the Pennsylvania railroad track at an angle; as he approached the track, and when 20or 30 yards away from it, he looked for a train; he neither saw nor heard anything and he drove on; when on but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying the track he was struck by a passenger engine; his wagon was wrecked, he was Coughs, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles thrown out, and besides having his collar bone and two ribs broken he was terribly cut about the head and body and was laid up for some time, and since has not been able to carry on his old business of farming. It is claimed by the plnintiff that no whistle was blown by the engine and there was no customary signal up at this point. On trial.

Alice Garber, the young girl con-victed last week of larceny, was brought in before Judge Livingston this morning and she was sentenced to undergo an imprisonment of three months. This was the lowest sentence which could be passed upon her under the law, which does not allow prisoners to come out of jail before February 15.

BURGLARY.

John Hege'd Store Enteredfand Storod. The grocery store of John Hege, No. 640 South Queen street, was broken into some time during last night and robbed. The burglars first made an attempt to get into the store by boring a hole in the shut-ter of a window at the side of the house, but the bit struck the iron plate to which the bolt is fastened. They then began bor-ing another hole alongside of the first, but for some reason abandoned it. They then went to the rear of the house and bered a number of holes along the which was fastened by a cross piece of wood. This they turned around, went in through the cellar and up the cellar steps to the door leading into the store, which was also fastened; this they opened by removing the catch of the bolt. After getting into the store they broke open the money drawer, which contained about six dollars in small change and one silver dollar, together with a number of receipts.

They carried off the money, together with a box of large apples, a piece of cheese and several other articles. This morning the money drawer, with the receipts in it, was found near the middle of the lot in the rear of the house. Although Mr. Hege and wife sleep in the house they did respectfully invited to attend the funeral not hear any noise during the night. It is believed the alarm of fire between two and three o'clock scared off the burglars before they had completed their robbery. Suspicion rests upon two or three dis-reputable parties, but no arrests have been yet made.

Preserved Fruits Stolen Yesterday afternoon Dr. Jacob Long, druggist, corner of West King and Manor

st.eets, discovered that some one had entered his ceilar and stolen a large number of jars and cans of preserved and pickled fruits. An entrance was effected through an outside cellar door, which was opened probably by false keys. It is not known when the larceny was effected, as the family had no occasion to look after the fruits until yesterday.

The Doctors.

"Dr." Jacob Fritz, of Quarryville, has "settled" his prosecution by Kahler Snyder; the prosecutor has withdrawn his complaint against Dr. E. B. Herr, being convinced that he has not practiced for several years; the case of Mrs. Kuehlne, of this city, a midwife, was continued; Dr. Martin H. Diller, of Salisbury, his friend Mr. Worst, District Attorney Davis and Prosecutor Snyder had some secret side-room conferences, from which Snyder emerged and informed the alderman that the suit was withdrawu, the doctor for

When the letters were all read Guiteau was again put on the stand. He answered promptly, intelligently and with perfect coolness, apparently enjoying the freedom given him to talk all he liked. He got very much excited every time the Oneida community was spoken of and said "No, yes : munity was spoken of and said "No, yes; sole idea was to sleep with the young girls. Nobody else could though," he said, "and all the time I was there I was practically a Shaker." Guiteau said he didj not believe in any iteligion. Before his examination was concluded, a recess was taken.

After recess Guiteau resumed the stand. EAST LIEERTY—Cattle—Receipts since Friday were 2.205 head through, and 1.7% doc. He got thoroughly disgusted with the which time he had had nothing to do with them. The resson he abandoned his suit against the community was because Beecher and his friends in New York were beginning to respect him and he did not want to disgrace himself by having his connection with the community known.

THE TARIFF CONVENTION.

Philadelphia Cattle Market.

Monday, Nov. 28.—The arrivals of live stock at the various Philadelphia yards were for the week: Beeves, 3,500 head; sheep, 10,000 head; hogs, 5,800 head. Previous week—Beeves, 4,000 head; sheep, 10,000 head; hogs, 6,200 head.

Beef Cattle were active for good stock, and prices were firmer, while the common grades were weak and unchanged. A large fine Hinois steer, weighing 1810 hs., was sold by Michael Ulman for 8%c $\vec{x}$ pound.

We quote as follows:

Extra, 6%G7c; Good, 5%G6%c; Medium, 4%G5%c; Common, 3@4%c.

Milen cows were fairly active at $30@72.50.

Sheep were active during the early part of the week for good fat sheep and lambs, and prices were firm, while common stock was dull and hard to dispose of even at a decline of $\vec{x}$c. Milk calves were scarce and higher.

We quote as follows:

Extra, 100@115 hs., 5%@5%c; good, $0@50 hs.
$\vec{x}$5%c: medium, 4%65%c; common 2%@3%c lambs, 3%@7%c; calves, milch, 6@9c.

Hogs were in good demand. We quote good at $\vec{x}$0.29%c; medium at $\vec{x}$0.25 common at $ Speech From the Venerable Peter Cooper. NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—The national tariff convention was called to order at 10:30 a. m., to-day, in the hall of Cooper institute by Col. D. T. Houston, who briefly stated the objects of the convention. Hon. Geo. B. Loring, United States commissioner of agriculture, was made temporary chairman. Some 500 delegates were present. At the conclusion of Mr. Loring's remarks a motion was made that that a vote of thanks be passed, and Peter Cooper was asked to put the motion. He was received with applause and cheers. He put the motion, which was carried. He then read from manuscript a lengthy speech on the importance of protection to American industry, and said the government never should have allowed individual states or their banks to issue paper money
