Fact and Fancy.

The Romance of Everyday Reality. Spoon and Spencer, two young men from Bradford who blew out the gas in their bed room at a hotel in Toronto and nearly suffered death in consequence. when questioned about their foolish act. stoutly asserted that they would do it again, for they "weren't going to turn the light down into the gas-pipe and cause an Russell McCoy, chief magistrate of Pitcairn Island, is in San Francisco. He asserts that his dot of a country is inhabited by ninety six of the happiest persons in the world. The climate is delightful, the growth of fruits abundant, and the conditions of life generally comfortable. His own office is a sinecure, for there are no disputes of consequence, and lawlessness is unknown. The people are communistic to a degree, sharing their goods freely with the needy, and dividing the land equitably. He declares that none of them would leave the island.

In Greenwich, Conn., fifty men, with horses and carts, are at work making for Mr. William Rockafeller a private trotting track at his farm. It is claimed that it will be the finest trotting course in this country. The course is being made entirely of earth. A dressing of loamy soil six inches deep is being placed on top. The track will be of the usual width. There are many rocks and stones on the land. These are being blasted and dug out, and will be used in building an enormous stone wall, which will be in some places fifteen feet high and six feet across, and will shut the track in from the outside world.

An interesting will suit is on trial in Westminster, Md., turning upon a postscript to a letter said to have been written by the late John Henry Hoppe to an adopted daughter. He left no will, and his estate has been settled. Suit is now brought upon the postscript written on the back of a letter from him admitted to be genuine, while the heirs claim the postscript and his signature to it to be forgeries. It reads in part: "Don't worry yourself, but take things easy and do the best you can for the present. I have pros pered and have accumulated a great deal of money together, and I intend to do what I please with it. And, Ann, after my death, you are to have $40,000. This you are to have, will or no will. Take care of this letter until my death. Ann, keep this to yourself."

Christmas is Coming.

The signs that Christmas is near at hand begin to multiply. The shop windows blossom with goods for holiday presents, and the streets take on a festal look There is every prospect that the coming Christmas season will equal any of its predecessors in gayety and splendor. Even were it only for the reaction after the long national strain of midsummer, we might look for a winter of jollity. But besides, the incoming tide of business prosperity which succeeded a long ebb has now reached, probably, or is fast reaching, the high water mark. In the many fields of speculation, at any rate, and perhaps in some of the productive employments, fortunes have been accumlated within the past four years. The Christmas holidays in one way or another exhibit the influence of a fortune-making epoch.

"My Tormented Back," is the exclamation of more than one poor hard-working man and woman. Do you know why it aches? It is because your kidneys are why it achies? It is because your kidneys are over-tasked and need strengthening, and your system needs to be cleansed of bad humors, Kidney-Wort is the medicine you need. "It acts like a charm," says a well known physician, "I never knew it to fail." Liquid or dry sold by druggists.—Boston Post. n28-lwd&w Gents—It gives me much pleasure to say that after using one pack of KIDNEYCURA I have been entirely cured of a severe pain in my back and side, of long standing, and that, too, after trying various known remedies. I have every confidence in your medicine, cheerfully recompsend it, and know that many of my triends who have used it have been benefited.

QTRANGE-YET TRUE! STRANGE, YET TRUE, that after the hundreds of extraordinary cures wrought by DR. GKEENE in this city and county, of Consumption, Diabetes, Palsy, Fits, Dyspepsia and other diseases, after the patients had (without success) tested Allo, and Homospathic physicians. Tis very strange that hundreds of other persons, more or less afflicted with disease, will not read Dr. Greene's pamphlets, or call upon him and be cured of their ailments. Strange that they could be influenced by jealous physicians, or druggists, to keep away from him. They ought to know that the major portion of his patients are from the ranks of other M. D.'s, and that it they did not lie, or throw out some kind of innendoes, they would lose the balance of their patrons. Mrs. McCaskey, of Philadelphia, came under Dr. G.'s charge through Mr. Powell, of No. 6 East Walnut street, almost blind; been for years testing the Philadelphia oculists. Oct. 27, went home with good vision and health. Oct. 27, Wm. Ensminger, a blacksmith of Strasburg, came in almost a new man, having suffered for years with Dyspepsia in its worst forms. He had been under 13 M. D's, before he tested Omnipathy. STRANGE, YET TRUE, that after the hunconstitutes a great part of our work. We make it in all grades from the very homeliest of honest cloth and work.

Our best business suits are of higher grade than any made by any other house, whether in this city or in New York or Boston. - The cloths are not always better; the trimmings are; the work is.

The best difference is in the work. The whole job is on a higher plane, though there are points of equality. We study our work all the time. We are not content with mastering it once. Every season new developments furnish occasion for new study and new mastery. We keep our workmen from year to year. We educate them; we train them to higher work as fast as we find out that higher work can be done. We pay them well. We keep them employed all the time. They
