TUESDAY EVENING, DEC. 6, 1881. THE SAILOR'S WIFE. By Charles Mackay.

I've a letter from thy sire, Beby mine, Baby mine I can read and never tire,

Baby mine! He is sailing o'er the sea-He is coming back to thee, He is coming home to me, Baby mine!

He's been parted from us long Baby mine, baby mine! But it hearts be true and strong, Baby mine! They shall brave Mistortune's blasts, And be overpaid at last For all pain and sorrow passed

Oh, I long to see his tace, Baby mine, Baby mine! In his old accustomed place, Baby mine! Like the rose of May in bloom, Like a star amid the gloom, Like the sunshine in the room,

Thou wilt see him and rejoice, Baby mine, Baby mine! Thou wilt know him by his voice, Baby mine! By his love-looks that endear, By his laughter ringing clear,

Baby mine!

By his eyes that know not fear Baby mine I'm so glad-I cannot sleep, Baby mine, Baby mine! I'm so happy-I could weep,

Baby mine He is sailing o'er the sea, He is coming home to me, He is coming back to thee, Baby mine

PART II. O'er the blue ocean gleaming She sees a distant ship. As small to view As the white sea-mew.

Whose wings in the billows dip. " Blow favoring gales, in her answering sails! Blow steadily and free! Rejoicing, strong, Singing a song. Her rigging and her spars among,

And waft the vessel in pride along,

That bears my love to me." Nearer-still nearer driving, The white sails grow and swell; Clear to her eyes

The pennant flies, And the flag she knows so well. . "Blow favoring gales, in her answering sails! Watt him, oh gentle sea! Thy flutter start!

Why throb and beat as thou wouldst part, When all so happy and blessed thou art? He comes again to thee!" The swift ship drops her anchor-

Against its prow The ripples flow, To the music of the oar. And art thou here, mine own, my dear, Sate from the perilous sea?-Sate, sate at home,

A boat puts off for shore-

No more to roam ! Blow, tempests blow-my love has come foam

He shall part no more from me!"

Its Action is Sure and Safe. The celebrated remedy Kidney-Wort can now be obtained in the usual dry vegetable form, or in liquid form. It is put in the latter way for the especial convenience of those who cannot readily prepare it. It will be found very concentrated and will act with equal efficiency in either case. Be sure and read the new advertisement for particulars.—South and West.

Ordinary Custom Work.

We found out long ago, by actual experience, that garments bought up from the wholesale stocks are by no means so reliable as those made up under our own personal supervision-neither will the cut and general style (after wearing) bear a comparison to our own careful make.

By making our own goods the

Producer and Consumer

are brought in direct contact, and in consequence the latter reaps no small advantage.
