COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE Miss Dollie Burns, of Harrisburg, is visting Columbia friends.

Rev. F. P. Mayser will conduct the services at the laying of St. John's Lutheran church cornerstone at 2 p. m. to-morrow. Rev. C. S. Gerhard, Reformed, will preach to morrow evening on "The opers' house and public entertainments." Rev. F. J. Prettyman, the evangelist, who was lately here, is now conducting a similar revival in Reading.

Two colored men gambling on Tow Hill this morning disputed over the game. Oze reached for the money that had been staked, and the other cut him in the head with a knife, inflicting an ugly gash about three inches in length. That settled it. Two first-class machinists from Phila delphia arrived in town yesterday and will give the Shawnee rolling mill a thorough overhauling. Major Yocum is working up "Patience" for all it is worth. He is energetic in behalf of the G. A. R. Post, and is their guiding star. On account of the lateness of the Penn sylvania passenger train, since the Lew soon make its appearance. To night promises to be a lively night, as a number of drunken men are already making considerable noise. Squire Grier sent Tom Jones to Castle Weise this morning for drunken and disorderly conduct.

Mrs. Hamilton's mother, Mrs. Lydia Myers, aged 86, has died of throat cancer at her home on North Walnut street. George Redsecker's new horse-clipping machine is worked by a ball and wheel. The "Vigies" will have a holiday ball. They expect their new steamer next week. but no arrangements for its reception have yet been made. A number of our young men have formed themselves into a serenading clab, and will furnish some of our citizens with fine music on Christmas and New Year's The P. R. R. is going to have nev smoke stacks, they will be modeled like the straight stacks on the passenger engines. One will be made and sent here for trial, and if it proves successful more will follow. Americus Vespucci Christopher Columbus Rogers, who has recently come home from a Western tour, was given a surprise party last night, at the residence of his aunt Mrs. David Coleman. The chairs in the barber shop were removed and dancing was enjoyed by all. A delightful evening Vas spent.

Off the Track.

This morning at 10:30 as the Paoli train No. 32 east was crossing the switches opposite Wynnewood station, ten miles west of Philadelphia, the last car of the train was thrown from the track by the misplacement of a switch. It appears that the conductor of a preceding train had forgotten or neglected to place the staple in the switch-lever. The engine and the three first cars of the train passed safely but the last car turned the switch and ran off the track, being upset and turned end for end. There were a number of passengers in the can but none of them his late residence, No. 24 West Vine street, on were hurt except one lady, and she not Monday morning, at 9% o'clock. High Mass very serously. Had the staple been in at St. Mary's church, interment at St. Mary's place the accident could not have happe-

On Court House Row.

The county officers elect are filing their •honds and getting ready to take their places; and the politicians are exercised to know what clerks go in, stay in, or get out. The slate in the commission ers' office is still Griest for clerk and Sholl for janitor, with a vigorous and not hopeless effort being made to smash it; Geo. W. Eaby, having run the clerk of quarter sessions office for his predeces sor, expects to be able to run it himself, but will keep it open during quarter sessions week Deputy Sheriffs Hippey and Chas. S. Strine will stay on, and Deputy Prothonotaries Kreider and Slaymaker; and Deputy Register Stoner. Shake, boys. Rumor has it that you are going to give a farewell benefit lunch to those who have to walk the plank.

Patent Granted. Stuart A. Standiford, of No. 20 Plum street, this city, roll-turner at the Penn iron works, has obtained a patent for a machine for forming spikes, track bolts, etc., from a continuous bar or rod. This machine will do the work that heretofore required two machines, and will no doubt in a very short time, come into general use where this class of goods is manufactured. The patent was obtained through the agency of Munn & Co., New York. Mr. Standiford intends to have one of the machines built in this city at an early day for a Philadelphia firm.

Committed.

A tramp calling himself by the some-what lofty name of Coleman Grubb, was arrested for drunken and disorderly conduct. He was taken this morning before Alderman Spurrier, who committed him to the common jail for ten days.

An Alleged Pun. "Hallo, Jones, where have you been? "I was at Snyder's." " Did you get a beer?"

"I Guiteau."

Stay Prolonged. Dr. Wilbur came to our city last Tuesday and opened his office in the Stevens House parlors, intending to remain twenty days, to introduce his improved system for the treat ment of chronic diseases, preparatory to open-ing his permanent office in Philadelphia in the spring. His success has been unprecedented in our city; during his first week from morning until night, and sometimes far into the night, there has been a constant incoming and outgoing, not of irresponsible and novelt hunting individuals, but comprising the bes people of Lancaster and surrounding coun

The large number of surgical operations the doctor has already contracted to perform will carry him far beyond his advertis ed time, and for the benefit of all those intending consulting him he wishes it distinctly understood that he will remain until February 10th, but no surgical operations will be taken after January 20th. Th doctor now has under treatment 162 patients and 87 have been turned away pronounce ed incarable. Any one who wish may call and inspect his anatomical cabinet, which con-sists of a great variety of costly, curious, wonderful and intensely interesting manikins; nd models, representing every organ in the human models of the eye, ear, heart, lungs, brains, etc., which Dr. Greenleaf (Dr. Wilbur's assistant) will open and exhibit all that is curlous and wonderful about your disease, and ELEGANT PARLOR SUITS sistant) will open and exhibit all that is curimakes it perfectly plain to the peo, le who are the most ignorant of those hidden mysteries. Also, more than one hundred oil paintings, six teet in length, exhibiting with wonderful accuracy the minute structure of every organ of the human body, in health and disease, which renders Dr. Wilbur's anatomical cabi net far superior to anything over exhibited in any office in the world.

d9 1wdeod&w RESCUED FROM DEATH The following statement of William J Cough lin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half collar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicine. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. WM. HALL'S BALSAN FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was meurable, but I got a modoes made, and instead of the bell like bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that consumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold in Lancaster at Cochran's Drug Store, 137 and 139 North Queen street. 1v28-1vdeodTh&w2

Twenty Railroad Laborers Burned to Death by the Destruction of a Small Sharty in which They Were Sleeping—Partial List of the Victims.

Piттsвurgu, Pa., Dec. 10.—About three o'clock this morning a shanty, used as a boarding house for railroad laborers, at Rock Cut, on the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, and about seven miles from this city, was burned, with about twenty of the inmates. It was a frame structure. one-story high, except that a loft was used by the boarder as a dormitory. This loft was approached by rude stairs little better than a ladder, and in place of windows had two openings cut in the boards. In this place forty-three men retired to rest last night. About 3 o'clock this morning the boarding house keeper, Mr. Kown, got up to make the fire, and soon afterwards a kerosene lamp which he was using exploded and set fire to the place. Mr. Kown raised the alarm, and he and his wife and servant girls escaped, but of those sleeping in the loft only the ones nearest the small openings used as windows could escape. Twenty-three of them struggled out in that way, but even among those many are seriously hurt. The remainder rushed about frantically until they were suffocated by the smoke. The scene this morning is sickening. In a heap in one corner of the ruins are the charred remains of six men, among them
