QUARTER SESSIONS.

The Adjourned Term of Criminal Court This morning the adjourned term of quarter sessions court began. The list is short, but a number of the cases down for evening. trial are of high grade of crime, Judge Patterson being engaged down stairs try-ing the case of the Brickerville church, Judge Livingston presided upstairs.

The case of Emanuel Gundaker, charged with felonious assault and battery on Ed ward Cole, was continued on account of the absence of John Sales, a material witness for the defense, who is now in the West and has not been subpornaed.

The first case attached was that of Com'th vs Henry Newcomer, charged with larceny as bailee of a lot of household goods, the property of Stephen Younger, of Columbia. After hearing the evidence for the commonwealth the court stated that there was no crime in the case which should have been brought in common pleas court, and ordered a verdiet of not guilty to be rendered.

Com'th vs. John II. Shroad, of this city, Church street, on the 17th day of September last. It was proven by several witnesses that Shroad took the beer and walked off with it.

The defense admitted that they took the beer but without any felonious intent. On this day Shroad was so drunk that he did not know anything, and met some companions on Church street, near where the beer wagon was. One of the men asked him where he was going and told him that they would soon have a keg of beer as the wagon was there with it on, and it was taking it up to a house where they could drink it. One of the men told Shroad to go and take the keg of beer, as he had ordered it and it was all right; He thought the beer had been paid for and took it home; he did not drink any. Jury out. Bond Presented.

This morning Joseph Umble, the newly-elected register, presented his state bond in the sum of $25,000, with W. L. Peiper and H. C. Leaman, of this city, and II. II. Kurtz, of Conestoga township, as surctics.

A Church Dispute.

For some time past there has been trouble among the colored brethren who the proprietors now prepare it in liquid form. worship at the church in Feagleysville, This can be procured at the druggists. Recently Edward Hunter purchased the property but has not paid for it. The Diggs faction, having about $120 in it, claimed the right to worship therein until they got their money out, and it was announced that Rev. M. M. Diggs would preach there yesterday. The Hunter party determined to prevent it, and appeared at the church armed with clubs. There was some excitement, but Hunter held the fort, the Diggsites not venturing to attack and dispossess them.

The Cold Weather was Too Much for Them. Will Grover's pantomime troupe exhibited here last Monday night and gave a very fair show. They appeared in Norris town on Thursday night and gave a show which satisfied a small audience. In the morning following the company found that their funds would not reach. They ondeavored to sell one of the large dogs which they had for $75, but found no purchaser. They were billed for Pottstown on Friday night and in some way they managed to get out of Norristow without disposing of any of the canines. They were to have been in Harrisburg on Satur day night, but did not put in an appearance, and it is supposed that the troupe has gone to pieces.

Cooper Shop Destroyed by Fire. On Saturday afternoon the cooper shop of Henry Peniman, situated in the village of Warwick, Warwick township was destroyed by fire, together with a lot of tools, lumber &c. The loss on the whole will amount to about $200 and there was an insurance of $100. The building is supposed to have caught from a stove, as there was no one in the shop when it

Bishop Herr at Springville.

Rev. Amos Herr, of Strasburg, bishop of the Old Mennonite church, preached in the United Brethren church at Springville, vesterday, to a very large congregation, basing his sermon on the words of St Paul, found in the first epistle of the Coriuthiaus, chapter 9, and 24th to 27th verses inclusive.

Locked up Again.

William and Mary Multz who were discharged from the county prison this morning after having served a term for drunl. en and disorderly conduct, went on anothcr spree as soon as they were dischared raised a row in the vincinity of the Stevens house, and were picked up by officers Shay and Gill. They were locked up in the station house.

Before the Mayor.

This morning the mayor had a large court, thirteen persons being before him. One drunk paid his costs, two were sent to jail for 10 days each, and one boy was sent to the workhouse for 30 days. The remainder of the gang were lodgers and they were discharged.
