

YORK ITEMS.

Our Regular Correspondence. One of the most fashionable weddings we have had for a long time occurred last week. Mr. Harry Myers and Miss Lydia Rupp being the chief participants.

On Tuesday evening of last week burglars entered the house of Dr. McKinnon and took from two valuable ladies' coats. The hall door of Mr. McKinnon's house being unlocked.

The mayor will be present at this morning thirteen citizens' court of whom being apparently more unfortunate than vicious, were discharged with a caution and a cap of color.

Mrs. Magdalen Fox, of Upper Ben township, Berks county, died recently in the 56th year of her age.

The Pennsylvania railroad company will issue excursion tickets for the holidays, on the main line of the road and all the branches.

That prince of dead beats Mr. L. M. DeMott, who was noticed by us last week, is still in town, but no one has given us any information that he has paid up any of his old debts.

A good sized dog was cut to pieces by the cars at the Walnut street crossing over the Pennsylvania railroad, this morning.

At the residence of Mr. E. R. Mahan's excellent company tonight, and it is safe to predict that no more satisfactory rendition of this sprightly opera will be heard in this city.

It is a foolish mistake to confound a remedy of merit with quack medicines. We have used Parker's Ginger Tonic with the happiest results for Dyspepsia and Debility, and know it to be a sterling health restorer.

What is more distressing than an obstinate skin disease, and why persons should suffer a single hour when they have a sure cure in Swayne's Ointment?

HALL'S VEGETABLE SCALP HAIR RESTORER is a scientific combination of some of the most powerful restorative agents in the vegetable kingdom.
