Sold to James M. Burke for $1,400.

This afternoon George Byrner, residing on Church street, near the American engine house, was assaulted and severely injured by two men named Adolph Fisher and Anton Ream. It appears that the parties were occupying a part of the house in which Byrner lived. They were drunk and disorderly, and made a great noise. Byrner's daughter being sick her father remonstrated with the men against their misconduct, whereupon Fisher and Ream, together with another man with the whiskey bottle, from which he had been drinking. He then ran off, but was arrested by Officer Merringer at Ziegler's tavern. Ream was also taken into custody. Byrner's wounds were sewed up by Dr. Holland. He says he will prosecute his assailants for felonious assault and battery.

Mr. Peiper's Funeral. The funeral of Mr. Peiper took place from his late residence on the corner of turnpike at 2 p. m., to day, and a little before 3 o'clock the procession reached Centric square on its way to Woodward Hill cemetery. The cortege was one of the largest ever seen on our streets, and many of our most prominent citizens and the friends of deceased from the country rode in coaches, carriages and other vehicles, comprising in all 86 conveyances. The bank directors attended in a body, and they and the pall bearers of the hearse bore flowers and banners, and other tributes of affection from the friends of the deceased.

Infant Abandoned.—Mother Discovered. Some gentleman in the water closet at the P.R.R. depot in York on Monday, hearing cries of an infant under the floor, were horrified upon investigation to find in the cess pool a living and new-born babe. It has since been found that one Lucinda Pauline, of Windsor township, was the mother of the child, and she was taken to the depot and returned to her home in Lancaster. She says she was on her way from Lancaster to Red Lion, York county, where her parents reside; the child was born at five minutes before the Red Lion train left the depot, and she thought it was dead.

In Town. Among the gentlemen from abroad in Lancaster today attending the funeral of the late W. L. Peiper, was Mr. Joseph Patterson, president of the Western national bank of Philadelphia and one of the foremost financiers in the city; and Cashier Gosler of the Lebanon Valley national bank, both of which institutions were correspondents of Col. Peiper's bank.

Committed. Samuel Proctor, the colored boy who entered the residence of Samuel Huber, of Providence township, and was caught while ransacking it, had a hearing before a Magistrate yesterday and was committed to answer at court.

The Popular Demand. So great has been the popular demand for the celebrated remedy Kidney-Wort, that it is having an immense sale from Maine to California. Some have been deceived by cheap imitations, and from the dry compound. For such the proprietors now prepare it in liquid form. This can be procured at the drug stores. It has precisely the same effect as the dry compound, and is much more palatable. —Lancett Mail. d12-17d&w

THIRD EDITION. SATURDAY EVENING, DEC. 17, 1881. WEATHER INDICATOR. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 17.—For the Middle Atlantic states, warmer and fair weather, with light variable winds, mostly southwesterly, stationary or lower pressure. THE VIENNA FIRE. AN OFFICIAL INVESTIGATION. A Blunder Worse Than a Crime. VIENNA, Dec. 17.—The official report of the board of works on the Ring theatre disaster, says: "The chief engineer asked two policemen at the main entrance of the Ring theatre whether there was anybody within, and received the reply that the whole audience had left safely. This statement was apparently confirmed by the fact that no persons were seen at the entrance of the building. The men of the fire brigade subsequently made their way to the galleries, but the air was suffocating; it was impossible to penetrate the passages, as the torches went out for want of oxygen, and the firemen were unable to breathe." The report expresses the conviction that the audience died speedily from suffocation. GUTEAU'S GHAZLY DEED. Complimented with a Halter.—Reported Conspirator Against the Assassin and Victim. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 17.—A package received by Scoville for Guitau, and consigned to his back yard under suspicion of containing some explosive, was cautiously opened and found to contain a coil of rope, with a noose on its end. It also contained a note saying, "With the compliments of the Garfield and Arthur club, of Mevendale, Pa. Mr. Scoville has received a postal card, dated March 21, 1881, signed 'Dale, ex-Molly,' containing a warning of an intended attempt on Guitau's life by members of the Molly Maguire party. The police here have received a communication from O'Neill City, Nebraska, stating that a 'crank' named Utley, had started for Washington for the purpose of killing Scoville. A photograph of Utley accompanied this communication. FIRES IN A HOTEL. The Guests Keeping with Their Trunks on Their Shoulders. MEMPHIS, Dec. 17.—The Peabody hotel caught fire this morning. The fire originated in the kitchen, and in about half an hour, the flames communicating through a defective flue with the roof. In a very short time the entire western portion of the building was on fire. After an hour's hard fight the fire was brought under control. The principal damage to the hotel will be from water, although the kitchen, pantry and servants' quarters are badly wrecked. The hotel was filled with guests and the alarm of fire was followed by a general rush from the building, many persons carrying their trunks on their shoulders. DEFEAT OF AN INSURANCE COMPANY. The Megargee Case Terminates in a Verdict for the Plaintiff. PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 17.—In the case of Megargee vs. the Mutual life insurance company of New York, the jury to-day returned a verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $16,375.18. In this case it was claimed by the company that Megargee failed to pay premium upon his day it was due, but two days later offered it to the company, which refused to accept it. Megargee then began suit to compel the company to restore his policy for $10,000 and pending the action he died. The widow continued the suit, and the jury has now awarded her the full amount claimed, with interest. THREE MARRIAGE FATALITIES. NEW BRUNSWICK, Dec. 17.—Charles O'Brien, 25 years of age, James Ware, a German 55 years of age, and Sanford Edwards, aged 40 and living in Bucks county, Pa., were killed on the railroad track at this place. Ware and Edwards were on their way to Philadelphia, and Edwards was a brakeman on extra freight No. 8 and was killed on the railroad bridge. Ware was on freight train No. 10 and had his head severed from his body; O'Brien's skull was crushed by a local freight train while he was crossing the Pennsylvania railroad. THE SUITS AGAINST THE BALTIMORS. NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 17.—Notice has been served on Cashier Baldwin, and his brother Theodore, the Mechanics' bank, to appear at court in Trenton, January 3d, and answer the bill filed yesterday by the district attorney, praying for an injunction against their transferring their property, and that it be placed in the hands of a receiver. To Succeed Hillhouse. WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—The name of Thomas C. Acton, of New York, as president superintendent of the assay office, will be sent to the Senate by the president on Monday as assistant treasurer of the United States at New York, vice Hillhouse, resigned. Two Men Killed. READING, Pa., Dec. 17.—James Ennis and William Williamson, were struck by a train on the Reading railroad near Pottsville, this morning and instantly killed. Benjamin Gust was also struck, but was not seriously hurt. A Slave Captured. LONDON, Dec. 17.—A despatch from Zanzibar received at the admiralty announces the capture of the owner of the slave Dhor, in the encounter with which Capt. Brown Rigby, of the British man of war, was killed on the 3d inst. Had News for the Ladies. CINCINNATI, Dec. 17.—A fire in B. Roth's kid glove store on Fourth street, inflicted damages on the stock, fixtures and building to an amount estimated at $30,000; insurance on stock $14,000. That Fatal Fog. MADRID, Dec. 17.—A customs officer, near Santander, reports that he saw last night a balloon proceeding in the direction of Bilbao. Fatal Floods. GIBBS, Dec. 17.—The dams near Algiers, on the Oram railway, have burst and the line is flooded. Many lives have been lost by the inundation. Several vessels in the coasting trade foundered. General Sherman Goes West. WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—Gen. Sherman has gone to St. Louis to attend the funeral of the late General Turner. He expects to be in Philadelphia on the 23d inst. Out too Long. ST. JOHN, N. B., Dec. 17.—The bark Fannie M. of this port is now out 71 days from Liverpool for Baltimore. Fears are entertained for her safety. MARKETS. NEW YORK MARKET.
