The Doctor's Disagree.

As to the best methods and remedies for the cure of constipation and disordered liver and kidneys, but those that have used Kidney-Wort, agree that it is by far the best medicine known.

Thomas Howard, Bradford, Pa., writes:

I enclose money for Spring Blossom, as I said I would if it cured my dyspepsia, has vanished with all its symptoms. Many thanks. I shall never be without it in the house.

Physical Suffering.

No one can realize, except by personal experience, the anguish of mind and body endured by sufferers from dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, and other diseases of the stomach.

Incredible.

F. A. Strach, druggist, Rutherford, Ont., writes: "I have the greatest confidence in your Barlock Blood Purifier. In one case with which I am personally acquainted, the success was almost incredible. LIVER COMPLAINTS, Piles, Constipation, Urinary Diseases, Female Weakness and Nervous Disorders.

It is put up in Dry Vegetable Form, in tin cans, one package of which makes six quart of medicine.

Also in Liquid Form, very Concentrated for the convenience of those who cannot readily prepare it. It acts with equal efficiency in either form.

H. GERHART'S

NEW STORE, No. 6 East King Street,

"OCCASION EXTRAORDINAIRE."

So the French people put it, and the great stores, "The Louvre" and "Bon Marche" every few weeks have a rousing sale or "occasion." We don't like the system, but try to make every day equally good for buyers to come to us. Yet now and again there are special reasons that warrant stepping out from our usual course.

Such a time has come to Oak Hall, and we have to announce

A GRAND "OCCASION."

1881, so far, has been the largest year's business OAK HALL HAS EVER DONE.

Mr. John Wanamaker has this season watched over personally and supervised the old house in a measure like in old times desires to say he has determined to put the annual sales far beyond anything ever reached before in the annals of the Retail Clothing business in the United States.

There is not a day to lose, as the season is passing. We have therefore prepared all the inducements we can offer and they

GO INTO EFFECT IMMEDIATELY.

Years ago we were overloaded with goods, and we frankly said so. We have no secrets about our business. We take the people into our confidence and ask for a return of confidence, AND GET IT, because the people find out exactly what can be depended on.

We sold out long ago all our surplus stock. Five furniture cars would carry all the old stock now in our double six-story building, and while we do so large a business and sizes break up so rapidly as they do, we always expect to have just as much as we have to-day.

NOW THEN, THIS IS TO SAY

That this "Occasion" is based on the cleanest, newest, best stock we can possibly get together.

NEW GOODS OF SPLENDID CHARACTER,

And made for the purpose of driving up and along the sales to far outdo the best endeavors of former years.

SUMMING UP THE INDUCEMENTS, THEY ARE

1. A stock of goods, most of it "just born," clean and beautiful, arriving daily from our workrooms.

2. A "right smart" deduction from usual prices, "something that can be seen."

3. Opportunity given to take a purchase away, compare it, bring it back and get money returned.

4. Wanamaker & Brown's stamp on the quality and make of the goods as the guarantee of value. Of course

THERE ARE SOME BETTER BARGAINS THAN OTHERS,

Nor is all our stock marked down, but

THIS IS EXACTLY HOW IT IS.

Cut out the lists and walk into OAK HALL and have a look.
