Special Observance of Christendom's Holiday.

Christmas was celebrated at Quarryville by the inhabitants in a very suitable manner. In the evening a special Christmas service by the congregation and Sunday-school was held at the reformed church. The room was decorated with evergreens, etc., and prominent among them were two very pretty wreaths of white flowers made by John Suter. In one corner stood a Christmas tree about 20 feet high. It was covered with nice things, including 127 stockings full of candy. The services consisted of the reading of scripture lessons, repeating of the Creed, singing and an address by Rev. D. B. Shuey, the pastor. After the services were concluded L. P. Raub stepped forward, and in a few well chosen remarks, presented G. J. P. Raub, the leader of the choir, with an elegant baton, which is made of ebony and tipped on the ends with gold, the head bearing the inscription, "G. J. P. Raub, from his friends, Christmas, 1881." Miss Eliza A. Kendig, a prominent teacher in the Sunday-school, was presented with a year's subscription to the Messenger, the paper of the church, and G. W. Hensel made the presentation speech. Mr. Shuey replied for both Miss Kendig and Mr. Raub, who were completely surprised. The church was crowded and the services were very interesting; a special collection was taken up and a large sum realized for the orphans at Womelsdorf.

MOUNT JOY NEWS.

Madrigal of Borough Items.

Christmas passed off with the usual festivities at this place. The Sunday schools had their Christmas exercises and the children were remembered in the shape of presents. The streets were lively on Saturday night, and the shop-keepers were busy disposing of their wares. What was impossible for Sunday took place on the following days.

On Christmas morning Mrs. Susanna Lankin, widow of one townman A. B. Lankin, died at his residence, East Main street, in her 85th year. Her funeral will take place at her son's residence on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock; burial at Lantins Valley.

A fair for the benefit of the Catholic church, which was commenced on Saturday evening is now holding in their chapel, New Haven street. The band will be present on different occasions.

On Friday night or early on Saturday morning, thieves entered the residence of Mr. Martin S. Bowman, Marietta street. They secured a dressed turkey, a fine overcoat, a ladies' cloak and numerous other articles.

A shooting match at glass balls, announced to come off on Monday afternoon, was postponed on account of the inclement weather.

H. K. Nissley, of Lewisburg University, C. E. Geyer, of the Lebanon Valley college, Henry Barnhart, of Lancaster, A. Lott, of Philadelphia, all Mount Joy boys, spent Christmas in the borough.

GAFF ITEMS.

On the side of the Mine Ridge.

The protracted meeting held by the M. E. association, came to a close on Sunday evening last. It was a comparative failure as but few were converted.

The Gilbert family (colored) will give one of their concerts in the M. E. church on Friday evening. The proceeds are for the church.

On Monday evening last a dance was held in the hall by a company of young folks from the Nickel Mines. Everything passed off quietly, much to the credit of the participants.

The Pennsylvania railroad company made a good move when they gave orders to their agent at this place, Mr. Geo. W. Orendorf, to prohibit all loading and unloading in and around the station. Mr. Orendorf is carrying the company's rules out to the letter and has hung a large green placard prohibiting loading in front of the station, which is very obnoxious to the eyes of the old loaders, who used to continually lounge around the passenger room.

Christmas passed off quietly as usual. In the latter part of last week there was a general influx of students from the different normal schools here, who were coming home to spend a "merry Christmas and a happy New Year." Among them were Messrs. W. Walker, Anna Walker, Messrs. Wm. and John Henderson, James V. Maxwell, Isaac B. Sweigert, L. Lewis Walker, Thos. G. Wise and Howard Lee. The friends of Miss Sue Walker gave her a pleasant surprise on Friday evening, and on Saturday evening the young friends of Isaac B. Sweigert gave him a pleasant surprise at his father's residence.

On Friday morning J. C. Walker & Son, the well-known grain and lumber merchants, presented each of their employees with a fine large turkey for Christmas.

The Christmas festival held at Christiana closed on Monday evening, being a success. Jas. Whiteside got the fine wolf robe that was chanced off.

MARKET ITEMS.

In and Around Georgetown.

The most noted incident of this section for some time past was the marriage of R. S. McClure to Miss Lillie Martin, both of this township, on Thursday the 22d inst. Mr. McClure is the only son of Joseph McClure, president of the First national bank of Strasburg. Miss Martin is the oldest daughter of Dr. John Martin. The ceremony was performed by the Revs. Cairns and Anderson, the former pastor of the Middle Octoraro Presbyterian and the latter of the Octoraro U. P. congregation. About 80 invitations were issued by Dr. Martin and responded to by nearly all. The presents were a liberal display of silver ware, linens and other articles of use and beauty. In spite of the gloomy and disagreeable day all present were in fine spirits and enjoyed themselves, as is becoming on such occasions. The table was an array of sweetmeats, tropical fruits, and the indispensable roast turkey. The bride and groom in their attire showed their good tastes by both being plainly but richly attired, the bride being arrayed in a rich plum colored silk and parure train, and but little ornament. The bridal party immediately after partaking of refreshments started for the railroad, where the bride and bridegroom took the train for Washington, D. C. The party consisted of Mr. McClure and Miss Martin, both of them, both of Bart; Dr. Black, of Strasburg, and Miss Alma Lock, of New Jersey; Mr. E. Townsend, of Smyrna, and Miss Saling, of Lancaster; Mr. W. Sneed and Miss Maggie Hughes, both of Bart. Old boots and shoes were thrown away from without stint and heartfelt wishes for their safe return and long and happy wedded bliss.

Our village is never a very lively one on Christmas, but this Christmas Day was not celebrated in any of the four churches, except the Episcopal church at Gap Nickel Mines, and, consequently, it passed off without any evidence of the fact that the 25th of December was more than any other day.

Another Wedding.

Mr. Martin Strump, of Eden township, to Miss Ada Girvin of Bart, at the parsonage of the Middle Octoraro church by the pastor, Rev. Cairns, on the evening of 22d inst. No cards.

No particular life is apparent in the tobacco trade in this vicinity as yet. The raisers are busily at work stripping out their crops, and they find it considerably more troublesome to get properly assorted on account of the damage done by hail. The tobacco is of an excellent quality but will not turn out as many wrappers as the same acreage heretofore. Martin & Fritz have received the following lots: Amalia Homphser, 16, 5, 3; Gabriel Russell, 15, 3, 3; William Hagans, 17, 7, 3. All small lots.

"AT HELLER'S."

Christmas Evening in Salem Reformed Church.

Salem (Heller's) church, in Upper Leacock township, was filled to the extent of its seating capacity on Christmas evening, to witness the anniversary exercises of the Sunday school in connection with the church. That part of the church about the pulpit was beautifully decorated with evergreen festoons, a white cross on the altar, on each side of the pulpit were calla lilies with buds, while in a panel back of it was a monogram of the letters "I. H. S." in gilt. In an arch over the pulpit was the inscription "Joy to the World! The Lord is Come," making altogether a pleasing effect. The exercises were opened by "Joy to the World, &c." by the choir, Misses Sallie Kennard and Emma Steffy singing the duet. After further singing by the school of the "Christmas Carol," "Christmas Hosanna," and Scripture reading, Rev. D. W. Gerhard, pastor, made some remarks at length very appropriate to the occasion, which were followed by "A Wake, Arise, &c." by the school.

The report then read by the superintendent showed the school to be in a flourishing condition. "Jesus Comes" was next sung by the school, followed by an address by Mr. Massataka Yamaoka, a Japanese student of Franklin and Marshall college.

Mr. Yamaoka, after giving the geographical position and extent of his native country, described very nicely the advantages, government, customs and religion of the land he loves so well, and hopes that his countrymen may soon all embrace the Christian religion; on a whole he proved himself to be an earnest and well informed young man. His remarks were listened to with marked attention and interest. "Missionary Hymn" was then sung, after which a collection amounting to about $17 was taken up in behalf of the orphan home at Womelsdorf, Pa. During the lifting of the collection the congregation sang very heartily, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Among the pleasant features of the evening was the presentation of a purse containing a good sum of money to the organist, Miss Lizzie Weidner. The Superintendent, R. M. Bushong, was also made the recipient of a handsome photograph album by the school. The exercises were closed by the doxology, "Praise God, etc.," and benediction by the pastor.

DRUMORE DOINGS.

Our Down Country Correspondence.

Mr. Joseph Mowery, of Philadelphia, recently married Miss Grace Morrison, formerly of this township, and were given a most pleasant dinner at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Thos. M. Morrison, near Fulton House.

Others who entered the rapidly filling marriage list last week, were Erastus Klehe and Annie Ewing, of Wm. Hart and Emma Trimble, and Edward Groat and Mary Hammond. The boys and girls are clean good mad.

At the entertainment by Chestnut Level church, given the children Christmas eve, the pastor, Rev. John Galbreath, was presented a very handsome gold watch by his congregation. It was a very suitable remembrance, and will no doubt always possess a value for the pastor far exceeding its intrinsic worth.

Thomas Hawk, who for seven years has been in the "west country," came home last Monday. Again the Tommy Hawk has returned to the paternal wigwam.

Our country is flooded with students and returned Wandering Jews home for Christmas, and the lycenas are brilliant in consequence.

Baltimore, Md.—I have used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup personally and in my family for two or three years, and am prepared to say that there is nothing to compare to it as a remedy for Coughs, Colds, etc. James Corrie, Dentist.

Nearly all the ill that aches us can be prevented and cured by keeping the stomach, liver and kidneys in working order. There is no medicine more reliable and as sure as Parkers' Ginger Tonic. See advertisement.

An Entire Success.

It has been proved by the most reliable testimony that Thomas' Electric Oil is an entire success in curing the most inveterate cases of rheumatism, neuralgia, lame back and wounds of every description. For sale at H. S. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.

The Law of Kindness is universal; it affects all the human family, all animals, and may be even found in patient minerals. Some are drawn, and the patient is obliged to suffer pain worse than the disease; but in cases of obstinate constipation, dyspepsia, there is no remedy so kind, so gentle in its effects, and yet so satisfactory as Burdock Bitters. For sale at H. S. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Nearly a Miracle.

E. Asenith Hall, Binghamton, N. Y., writes: "I suffered for several months with a dull pain through the left shoulder. I lost my spirits, appetite and color, and could with difficulty keep up all day. My mother procured some Burdock Blood Bitters; I took them as directed, and have felt no pain since first week after using them, and am now quite well. For sale at H. S. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.
