AN ORDINANCE TO REORGANIZE the Fire Department and Regulating the same:

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Select and Common Councils of the city of Lancaster, that from and after the first day of February, 1882, the Fire Department shall consist of one Chief Engineer, four steam fire engines, four hose-carts and one hook and ladder truck, which shall be located in such part or parts of the city hereafter designated.

SEC. 2. Each company shall consist of one engineer, one driver of engine, one driver of hose-cart, one foreman and four hosemen, who shall hold their positions as long as they conduct themselves properly and obey the laws and ordinances of the city, and their superiors in the department.

SEC. 3. The property of each company shall consist of one steam fire engine, one hose-cart the requisite quantity of hose, three horses, with all minor accessories for effective service.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the Chief Engineer to attend at all fires, superintend and direct the operations of all the companies; he shall have full control of all the men and apparatus, issue and enforce such orders as in his judgment may be best calculated for the protection of property and extinishment of such fires; to enforce all laws of Councils governing the Fire Department; he shall report annually to Councils all fires occurring in the city, the origin thereof if possible, together with the amount of property destroyed, and the amount of insurance if any; also a full statement of the condition of the department at the end of each year. He shall also report promptly to the committee on Fire Department any member of the department who may have disobeyed his orders or violated any of the laws or rules governing the department; he shall have control and supervision of the Fire Alarm Telegraph, and shall devote his whole time in the interest of the department.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the foreman, whenever his company shall be in active service, to take charge of all apparatus belonging thereto, direct the operations of the same, subject to the orders of his superiors; preserve order and decorum among the members of his company; he shall attend to having the apparatus housed on returning from fires; he shall have the hose washed, dried and aired, and again placed in readiness for immediate use; he shall also keep a record of, and report to the Chief Engineer the absence of any member of his company from fires, together with any dereliction of duty or violation of any of the rules and regulations of the department.

SEC. 6. The engineer of each steam fire engine shall accompany his engine to all fires and alarms, and discharge the duties appertaining to his position as may be directed by the foreman of his company or his superior officer; he shall keep his engine in complete order and repair, ready for service at all times; he shall have it tested at least once in each month, and shall have charge of his company in the absence of the foreman.

SEC. 7. The drivers shall have the care and management of and properly groom their horses, keep their respective engine houses, stables, harness, etc., in a neat and clean condition, have charge and care of the apparatus when not in actual service and report to the Chief Engineer any injury it may have sustained. He shall keep the engine house heated during the proper season, and shall lodge in the engine house at night time.

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of all hosemen to attend promptly each and every call or alarm of fire, assist in taking the apparatus to and locating the same at fires, and returning and housing the same, assist in washing and reeling hose, and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the foreman or other superior officer.

SEC. 9. Each and every officer and member of the department shall respond promptly to every call or alarm of fire, and any neglect or refusal shall subject the member or members to dismissal fine or other penalty, as may be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the department.

SEC. 10. The salaries to be paid the several officers and employes of the department shall be as follows:

Chief Engineer	$900	per annum.
Foremen, each	100	"
Engineers, each	150	"
Drivers	350	"
Hosemen and Laddermen	50	"

SEC. 11. The property of the hook and ladder company shall consist of one good truck, the requisite number of ladders and hooks, and shall be located in one of the engine houses. The employees of this company shall consist of one driver of truck, one foreman and four laddermen.

SEC. 12. No intoxicating liquors of any kind shall be allowed in any engine house or other building belonging to the department, or at any fires or alarms, and any member who shall become intoxicated shall be subject to dismissal.

SEC. 13. The several officers and members of the Fire Department shall be ex-officio members of the police force at fires and alarms, and shall each take and subscribe before the Mayor a similar oath of office prescribed for regular policemen.

SEC. 14. The Committee on Fire Department shall fill all vacancies occurring in the department, and in case of absence, sickness, removal or death of the Chief Engineer, the foreman of engine No. 1 shall temporarily fill the position until Councils shall fill the place permanently, and he shall be obeyed and respected the same as if he were the permanent head of the department.

SEC. 15. Councils shall elect the Chief Engineer in joint convention, at the regular or special meeting in February, 1882, and he shall serve until the First Monday in April, 1885, when his successor shall be elected in the same manner every three years thereafter, and before assuming the duties of his office he shall take and subscribe, before the Mayor of the city, an oath of office prescribed for other city officers. Councils shall have power to remove him from office at any time for misdemeanor, negligence, inefficiency or any other offense; providing, both branches of Councils agree to do so by a majority of the elected members of each body, and the Committee on Fire Department shall have power to suspend him at any time for violation of the laws or ordinances, until the first meeting of Councils, when action shall be taken in his case.

SEC. 16. Persons to be eligible to membership in the department must be twenty-one years of age and upwards, citizens of the United States, and residents of the city for at least one year immediately preceding their application, and of good moral character; and no person shall be rejected or subject to removal on account of any political, religious, or other sentiment entertained by him, providing that no member of the department shall take any active part in politics, or that such sentiment does not interfere with the efficient discharge of his duties.

SEC. 17. The officers and employees shall be paid their salaries monthly, their bills to be certified as correct by the Chief Engineer and approved by the Finance Committee, and upon a warrant drawn by the Mayor on the City Treasurer.

SEC. 18. All ordinances in any manner inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Ordained and enacted into a law, in the city of Lancaster, this 21st day of December, A. D., 1881.

THIRD EDITION.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, DEC. 29, 1881.

IN THE DOCK.

A SCENE AT THE GUITEAU TRIAL.

The Prisoner Removed to the Place Provided for Ordinary Prisoners.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Guiteau came into court to-day looking paler than usual, and complained he had not slept well. It seems a maniac, suffering from excessive use of morphine, occupied a cell near Guiteau last night, and his shrieks kept the assassin awake. The latter was much annoyed, and asked, "Why don't you choke him and make him keep quiet, and not let respectable people be disturbed this way by a miserable lunatic?"

Dr. McDonald again took the stand and was cross-examined by Scoville, on the subject of temporary insanity. The doctor referred incidentally to a certain man whom he had known to be insane only for twenty-four hours when Scoville eagerly suggested, "And then he got well." "No; he died" said the doctor, which raised a laugh at Scoville's expense. Witness reiteratcd his statement of yesterday that he believed Guiteau was feigning in sanity.

Drs. Randolph Barksdale, of Richmond, and John H. Callender, of Nashville, both testified that they had visited the prisoner in jail and had observed his actions in court. Both believed him sane. The latter witness, referring to previous testimony that Guiteau was "a moral monstrosity," said he could not understand the term, except that it might be a person of average intellectual ability who gives rein to his evil tendencies.

A recess was then taken.

After recess Scoville brought in plaster paris cast of Guiteau's head and proposed to put Clark Mills, the sculptor, on the stand. This was objected to, when Scoville put a hypothetical question to the last witness, which embraced the clause, "Suppose the prisoner believed himself to be a partner with Jesus Christ."

Mr. Porter objected to the question as blasphemous and a disgrace to a Christian nation.

A scene ensued during which Porter, in his most impressive manner, demanded in the name of the American people that the prisoner be removed to the dock.

The prisoner meanwhile scowled and snarled at those about him, shouting: "You big-mouthed Porter," and threatening to slap someone in the mouth.

Argument followed and Guiteau was eventually removd to the dock.

THE WORK OF THE FLAMES.

A Village Devastated by an Incendiary Fire.

KEOKUK, Iowa, Dec. 28.—At 4 o'clock yesterday morning a fire broke out in the village of Moravia, Iowa, the flames being preceded by a loud report. Before the fire could be subdued over $20,000 damage had been done. The fire was undoubtedly of incendiary origin. Five stores were burned and a number of frame buildings destroyed. Nearly all were insured.

Saw-mill Destroyed.

OSHKOSH, Dec. 28.—A dispatch from Merrillon states that the saw mill of C. N. Paint & Co., of this city, was destroyed by fire on Saturday night. The loss is $25,000; insurance $15,000.

Fire in Baltimore.

SMALLPOX.

Its Fatal Prevalence in Dakota.

WAHPETON, Dakota, Dec. 28.—Seventy-seven cases of smallpox in the infected district below here, 25 of which have proved fatal. The disease is spreading considerably on this side of the river, and seems to be singularly fatal. Some of the victims are said to have died within 24 hours after being attacked. It is also said that before death, blood gushes from the eyes, ears and noses of the victims.

These symptoms suggest that the disease is not simple smallpox, but partakes rather of the nature of a plague.
