

THE RAILROAD WRECK.

SOME ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS.

Return of the Firemen—Their Valuable Services. As stated in last evening's INTELLIGENCER, the wreck at North Bend near Christiana station on the Pennsylvania railroad was cleared away sufficiently to allow trains to pass on the north track, at 4 o'clock p. m. The south track was cleared by 9 o'clock in the evening, and the immense trains by which the road was blocked were put in motion, and to-day both passenger and freight trains are running on schedule time.

The work of clearing the track was done by the Parkersburg and Columbia wrecking trains, assisted by all the repairmen that could be gathered between those points. They did their work well and with great rapidity.

Work of the Washington Fire Company. The Washington fire company which left this city between 6 and 7 o'clock yesterday morning, returned about 10 o'clock last night. The steamer was in charge of Engineer J. C. Baker, and had with it several members of the Washington company. Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, Arnold was also along with them.

On leaving the city they were told the train on which the steamer was loaded would have a flank track, and the train ran down the track at a high rate of speed. Just below Witmer's station a train was seen on the track a short distance to the front. The engine was reversed, and the train hands made ready to jump from the train, and in doing so, the engine, which the train was stopped within a few yards of the one in front of it. The Washy boys lay at Witmer's for some time, and then ran on to Kinzer's, where they were again detained, and did not leave the wreck until half-past eight. Their steamer was on the bank, and the car and hauled to the Octotero creek, about 600 yards from the wreck. A line of 12 sections of hose was laid, and water was at once thrown upon the burning mass of cars and merchandise, from nine o'clock till eleven by which time some parts of the mass were sufficiently cooled off to be handled, and the work of removing it was vigorously pushed forward. During the afternoon the "Washy" did good service in filling the tanks of a number of locomotives, and in this way some parts of the mass were sufficiently cooled off to be handled, and the work of removing it was vigorously pushed forward.

The railroad men cut all the wood necessary to supply the firemen and hauled their steamer from the creek to the railroad with a yoke of oxen—the first working "cat" engine ever formed. Mr. Robinson, Saturday, Second Evangelical church, Rev. J. B. Shumaker, D. D. Hymn books used to correspond with the church of the meeting.

Cleaned Out. The large sewer draining the property of Fred Kinzler and the houses in Kinzler's Court, North Queen street, was clogged up, but with the aid of the Friendship street was cleaned out this morning.

Amusements. The comedy events of the coming week comprise two sparkling attractions in "All the Rage" on Monday evening, and "The Millionaire" on Tuesday dramatic companion to "Patience," on Thursday.

Special Notices. A most remarkable cure for dyspepsia, a "Well's Health Renewer," the greatest tonic, best blood and liver remedy known. $1. Druggists. Depot, John F. Long & Sons.

Little Locals. Here and There Everywhere. Outgoing court house officials are busy with their "last day's" business. The new deputies and clerks are slated as already announced in these columns.

M. E. WEST MISSION.

A Fine Holiday Entertainment.

The holiday entertainment of the Sunday school of the M. E. Church, took place in the chapel North Charlotte street near Lemon last evening. The chapel was handsomely decorated. The side walls and rear wall were hung in festoons of evergreen. On the right hand side was placed a large Christmas tree trimmed with pretty ornaments, and on the left hand side was a smaller tree with a Santa Claus fire place and chimney attached. Back of the pulpit was an arch of evergreen, beneath which was an angel with outspread wings bearing the message of peace on earth.

The exercises consisted of addresses, recitations, songs and choruses by the children. Mrs. Gill wife of the organist of the Duke Street M. E. church, read "The Christmas Man," and read it well.

Dr. G. L. Withrow, superintendent of the School was presented with an elegant gold watch, and Mr. Robert McMillan, the pastor, with a pair of fine slippers and an envelope containing two $5 gold pieces. The affair was a pleasant one to all concerned.

OBITUARY.

Death of Anton Heupel.

Anton Heupel, a well known and very able machinist formerly of this city, died in Philadelphia on December 20, 1881. He was 65 years of age. He worked in Lemann's mill works and afterwards went into business with Joseph H. Huber in Grant street, in rear of the Presbyterian church. After being in partnership for some years Mr. H. Huber, he went into business for himself. He carried it on for some time and then accepted a position at the Penn iron works. A couple of years ago he went to Pittsburgh, where he resided up to the time of his death. In his young days he was a prominent member of the Lancaster Men's choir and was a fine singer.

Week of Prayer.

The week of prayer will begin with services in the Presbyterian church on Monday at 7 p. m., led by Rev. J. Max Hark, and at the same hour Tuesday, St. John's Lutheran church, Rev. J. A. Peters; Wednesday, Moravian church, Rev. S. Stahl; Thursday, Duke Street M. E. church, Rev. J. Y. Mitchell, D. D.; Friday, at 7 o'clock in the evening, by Rev. J. B. Shumaker, D. D. Hymn books used to correspond with the church of the meeting.
