WANAMAKER & BROWNS, OAK HALL.

BARGAINS DE FACTO.

Rough and Tumble Data.

The mill that makes these goods runs exclusively for Oak Hall.

They are all-wool, strong as cow hide, thoroughly honest and not handsome.

One point with them is to give the greatest amount of strength and durability for the least possible price.

We have said little about them, because they have sold too fast to advertise.

We now have small lines as follows:

Men's Sack Suits,	$10.00
Large Boys' Sack Suits,	$7.50
Large Boys' Blouse Suits,	$4.50
Large Boys' Overcoats,	$7.00
Small Boys' Overcoats,	$6.00

They are BARGAINS de facto.

We cannot speak too strongly of the solidity and goodness of these goods.

NEWS AND NOTES.

CRIME AND CALAMITY.

LOSSES BY FIRE AND ACCIDENT.

STIRRING EVENTS OF LATE OCCURRENCE.

Current Comments on Timely Topics.

The Atlanta exposition was closed Saturday.

Judge P. C. Dooley and Casper Attkisson, prominent attorneys of Little Rock, Arkansas, have been arrested on a charge of the fraudulent collection of pensions.

Employees of the Lochiel iron works, at Harrisburg, are on strike.

The Deacons at Lancaster are active in their efforts to organize the Legislature.

Daniel Cash, a convict imprisoned at Sing Sing, was murdered by a fellow-convict.

In Gillespie, Illinois, a new brick school house has been destroyed by fire.

Loss of $100,000.—In Salem, N. J., fire at William Morris's oilcloth works caused a loss of about two thousand dollars.

Gaynor's glass works adjacent were at one time on fire, but were saved by the efforts of the firemen.

In New Orleans, La., Thomas Frichage, 64, a native of Russia, committed suicide by taking morphia, belladonna and tannin.

He leaves a wife and child.—Charles Williams, of Weston's Mills, N. J., while handling a revolver, accidentally discharged it.

The bullet entered his brain and killed him.—In Philadelphia, Ellen Deekwell was burned to death at her home in Gossiner street, and Kate Morris was at the same time seriously burned by her clothing taking fire from the stove.

An old colored man who carried the mail between Jackson, La., and Baton Rouge, was found shot through the heart and the mail bag was missing.

Efforts are being made to arrest the murderer and robber.

John Robinson, a white man, aged about sixty years, janitor of the Grand Army hall, corner Ninth and D streets, Washington, D. C., was found hanging by the neck in the hall. The appearance of the body indicated that he had been dead some time.

Charles W. Paulson, alias Watkins, claiming to be assistant to President Charles N. German, of the New Haven & Northampton railroad company, has been held to answer for forging passes over the Bound Brook road from New York to Philadelphia.

William Devine, of Glens Falls (N. Y.) engaged in an altercation with Bryce Wilbur, the proprietor of a hotel at Indian Lake. Both men were intoxicated, and angry words led to blows.

Wilbur finally drew a revolver and shot Devine, who is in a critical condition.

The total earnings at Sing Sing prison for the month of December are $30,883, and for the same month were $17,789.27.

The dramatic season of the Chestnut Street theatre, Philadelphia, came to a sudden, and to most people an unexpected end on Saturday night, and nearly one hundred actors, actresses, ballet girls, stage hands, flymen, property workers, gasmen, washers and others found themselves out of employment when the new year was born.

In San Francisco George S. Reed, a widower, shot and killed his mother-in-law, Sarah A. Smith, wounded his eight-year-old daughter Ella, probably fatally, and then killed himself.

Reed was undoubtedly laboring under temporary insanity, as his family relations had been of a pleasant nature.

A Repentant Thief.

On the Thursday before Christmas a bag containing presents purchased by Mrs. S. Bradford, of Plymouth, Mass., was stolen in the Old Colony depot in Boston, Mass., where she had laid it down for a moment.

The next day Mrs. Bradford, on her way to receiving her bag by express with the following letter inclosed: "Dear Madam: I return your shopping bag and contents unharmed. For the first time in my life I was tempted to take that which did not belong to me. I took it to my miserable home and opened it, on seeing a little girl's bracelet it took me back to my happy childhood when I looked longingly for Christmas to come, and my conscience reproved me. Although I am too poor to make Christmas presents, I thought I am not degraded enough to steal them. I learned your name, it matters not how. I pray God that your future life may be blessed, and that you may spend a happy Christmas, and that my future may be happier than my past. Repentant Sinner."

Births, Deaths and Marriages.

The number of deaths recorded in 1881 at the Bureau of Vital Statistics in New York, was 38,610, against 31,927 in 1880, an increase of 6,682. On the other hand, the births that were registered decreased in number from 27,536 in 1880 to 26,139 in 1881—a falling off of 1,406. The birth and marriage record can not, unlike the registry of deaths, be kept correctly, but this fact, it is thought, hardly accounts for the decrease in the birth rate as compared with the previous year. Among the children that were born in New York last year were 248 pairs of twins.

The record of marriages shows 19,075 in 1881, against 19,022 in 1880, an increase of 53. Of the 28,009 persons who died last year, 2,242 were over seventy years of age; 17,730 were children under five years of age; in 1880 this class had only 14,659 deaths.

The greatest mortality was in July, when the deaths numbered 4,291; and the lowest in November, when the total number was 2,790. In January these were 3,148 and in December 3,240.

As to the causes of death, zymotic diseases killed 13,484; phthisis had 5,225 victims; diarrhoeal diseases 4,395; pneumonia, 4,232. Diphtheria killed 2,229 and scarlet fever 1,861 persons. There were 451 deaths from smallpox out of 1,231 cases. In 1880 there were only 31 deaths from smallpox in New York. Smallpox caused the death of 191 last year, and of the fatal cases occurred in October. The number of persons who died from "violence" (the term embracing murders, drowning and accidents of all kinds) was 1,384. The suicides numbered 161.

Two Women Shot in Ireland.

Two sisters named Croghan have been shot near Mullingar, county Westmeath, by an unknown assassin who entered their mother's farmhouse early in the morning and after greeting the family, drew a revolver and fired, killing one sister and fatally wounding the other.

Coinage at the Philadelphia Mint.

The coinage executed at the United States mint at Philadelphia in the year 1881 aggregated $9,174,035, valued at $76,970,165.50. Of this amount, 2,260 were double eagles, 3,877,260 eagles, 5,708,800 half eagles, 350 three dollar gold pieces, 680 quarter eagles, 7,960 gold dollars, 916,376 silver dollars, 10,973 half dollars, 75,12,975 quarter dollars, 21,975 dimes, 975 five cent pieces, 1,089,275 three cent pieces and 39,211,575 cents.
