OBITUARY.

Death of Thomas McGovern.

Thomas McGovern, a well known citizen of Lancaster, died at his residence No. 612 North Duke street, this morning at an early hour. Mr. McGovern was a native of Ireland, but came to this country years ago. He was a contractor and had worked on many railroads in this state. He has been living in retirement for years past. He was in the 76th year of his age at the time of his death. Besides a wife, he leaves a family of children, two of whom are Mrs. Michael Reilly and Mrs. John R. McGovern. The interment will be made at St. Mary's cemetery on Monday morning.

We Will "Make It Pleasant" for Them.

On January 11 we are to have a number of Reading citizens in our town, when the Ringgold band, one of the finest musical organizations in the state, will run an excursion from that city to Lancaster. In the evening the band will give a concert in the opera house.

Who's the Owner?

A bunch of twelve keys was found on the extreme end of South Duke street, yesterday, and were left at Alderman A. F. Donnelly's office. Six of them are for Scandinavian locks and the others look like light night keys.

The New Telegraph Company.

The Rapid Transit telegraph company are making arrangements to open business here. They will have an office in Centre square and another in the Stevens house.

The following correspondence will fully explain itself. The court house has been secured for Tuesday evening, January 24, for the delivery of the address and by arrangement with the mayor the proceeds will be devoted to the fund for the benefit of the city poor, out of which the soup house and other local agencies of charity are supported.

The Letter to Mr. Wallace.

LANCASTER, Pa., Dec. 29, 1881.

Hon. W. A. Wallace:

DEAR SIR: We have been informed that you have prepared an address on "Pennsylvania's Formative Influence on Federal Institutions," which deals with the colonial period of our state's history from the beginning, and the purpose of which is to show that in the great essentials that now make up our form of government Pennsylvania and her men led and did not follow.

It has also been brought to our notice that you have consented to deliver this address at different leading points in the commonwealth to an important part of the history of which it relates. Feeling assured that the subject is one of popular interest and that its treatment by you in the manner indicated cannot fail to instruct and entertain a public audience we respectfully request you to name a day at your earliest convenience, when we may arrange for the delivery of the address in this city.

Respectfully yours,

RESCUED FROM DEATH

The following statement of William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicine. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and today I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that everyone afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that consumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold in Lancaster at Cochran's Drug Store, 137 and 139 North Queen street. ly28-1ydeod Tu&w2

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. Brown's Bronchial Troches do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchial Coughs, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Troches have been recommended by physicians, and always give perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cents a box everywhere. m8-lyd,T,Th&S&lyw

An Invaluable Article.—The readers of the Argus have no doubt seen the advertisement of Ely's Cream Balm in another column. An article like "Cream Balm" has long been desired, and now that it is within the reach of sufferers from Catarrh, Hay Fever, etc., there is every reason to believe that they will make the most of it. Dr. W. E. Buckman, W. E. Hunman, Druggist, and other Eastonians have given it a trial, and all recommend it in the highest terms.—Easton, Pa. Daily Argus, Oct. 7, 1879.

Best on Record.—I believe Ely's Cream Balm the best preparation for Catarrh now on record. My patrons all speak well of it. I have sold one hundred and forty-four bottles in less than five months. I ordered another gross a week ago, and have sold twenty-one bottles from the second gross. It sells upon its merits. JOHN H. PHELPS, Druggist, Scranton, Pa. Jan. 28, 1880. Price 50 cents. j2-2wdeod&w

A Good Angel's Visit—A Tale of "Rosadalis."

Blanche called on Kate, one pleasant day, and found her sad and sighing, dearest friend, once bright and gay, now scarce could keep from crying; for, "oh," she said, "'tis a disgrace to see with scrotula, my face so badly marred!" then said her friend, "Rosadalis will your troubles end." Blanche called on Kate another day and found her once more blithe and gay, her face as radiant, skin as fair, as any maiden's anywhere. For skin diseases and impure blood, there's nothing in the world so good as Rosadalis, it drives away all skin disorders, humor,—nay, it tones the system, cures your ills and banishes all doctor's bills! Sold in Lancaster at Cochran's Drug Store, 137 and 139 North Queen street. ly30-lyeod&w3

The Power of the Press.

In no way is the power of the press more surely shown than in the universal knowledge that has in less than a year, been diffused throughout fifty millions of people of the wonderful curative properties of that splendid remedy Kidney-Wort. And the people from the Atlantic to the Pacific have shown their intelligence and their knowledge of what is in the papers, by already making Kidney-Wort their household remedy for all diseases of the kidneys, liver and bowels.—Herald. j2-lwd&w

Various Causes—

Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them inclines it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light or red air to a rich brown or deep black, as may be esired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action. It removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or the glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brashy, weak, or sickly hair, on which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous. For sale by all dealers. d3-lw-deod&w

"Life, Growth, Beauty."

"What we all admire" and how to secure it: A fine head of hair in its natural color is such an adjunct to beauty that no one who prizes good looks should neglect to use "London Hair Color Restorer," the most cleanly and delightful article ever introduced to the American people. It is totally different from all others—not sticky or greasy, and free from all impure ingredients that render many other preparations obnoxious. It thickens thin hair, restores gray hair, gives it new life, keeps the scalp clean and healthy, causing the hair to grow where it had fallen off or become thin, does not soil or stain anything, and is so perfectly and elegantly prepared as to make it a lasting hair dressing and toilet luxury. "London Hair Restorer" is sold by all druggists, at 75 cents a bottle, six bottles for $4. oct3-M,W,S&w Orth Goes for the Speaker.

When the House met there was less than a quorum present, but many arrived during and after prayer. Mr. Orth, rising to a question of privilege, said he would introduce at an early day a proposition to change the method of selecting committees. He spoke of the one man power now exercised in that respect. He said the speaker had done injustice to him (Orth) and his constituents in naming his committees, and protested against it.

The speaker said it was not necessary for the chair to vindicate himself.

At 1:40 the House adjourned until Monday.

MASQUERADING AS A DUKE.

How Columbus O'Donell, of Baltimore, Deceived the Philadelphians.

A sensation has been created in fashionable circles in Philadelphia by the discovery that a handsome young stranger, registering at the St. George hotel as Le Duc Dengein, of France, was not a foreigner at all, but a dashing young Baltimore swell over for a frolic, who thought it would be amusing to come the French nobleman over guileless Philadelphians. In some circles during his few days' stay he made considerable headway, but found it up-hill work with some of the clever Philadelphia club men who had traveled and had had their eye teeth cut. Splendidly built and with fine manners it was natural that he should make a somewhat favorable impression. He was at the Bellevue hotel a great deal and tried to get quarters there, but Mr. Boldt, the proprietor is so exacting that he would not even admit a duke without credentials. A young gentleman to whom he was described went to the hotel, having had his suspicions aroused, and recognized him as Columbus O'Donnell, of Baltimore, heir to a large fortune and a great beau in society. Friendly influ was brought to bear and he gave up at tempts to carry his escapade any further and has left for home.
