

The Lancaster Intelligencer.

Vol. XVIII—No. 109.

LANCASTER, PA., MONDAY JANUARY 9, 1882.

Price Two Cents.

Lancaster Intelligencer.

MONDAY EVENING, JAN. 9, 1882.

LEAF TOBACCO.

LAST YEAR'S OPERATIONS.

THIS YEAR'S PROSPECTS.

A Review of the Trade—An Estimate of the Stock.

WANAMAKER & BROWNS, OAK HALL.

BARGAINS DE FACTO.

Rough and Tumble Data.

The mill that makes these goods runs exclusively for Oak Hall.

They are all-wool, strong as cow hide, thoroughly honest and not handsome.

One point with them is to give the greatest amount of strength and durability for the least possible price.

We have said little about them, because they have sold too fast to advertise.

We now have small lines as follows:

Men's Sack Suits,	$10.00
Large Boys' Sack Suits,	$7.50
Large Boys' Blouse Suits,	$4.50
Large Boys' Overcoats,	$7.00
Small Boys' Overcoats,	$6.00

They are all-wool, strong as cow hide, thoroughly honest and not handsome.

One point with them is to give the greatest amount of strength and durability for the least possible price.

We have said little about them, because they have sold too fast to advertise.

We now have small lines as follows:

Men's Sack Suits, $10.00

Large Boys' Sack Suits, $7.50

Large Boys' Blouse Suits, $4.50

Large Boys' Overcoats, $7.00

Small Boys' Overcoats, $6.00

We cannot speak too strongly of the solidity and goodness of these goods.

WANAMAKER & BROWN,

OAK HALL,

Sixth and Market streets,

PHILADELPHIA.

The Largest Clothing House in America.

JOHN L. ARNOLD,

PATENT GOLD-CASE HEATERS.

Slate Roofer and Roofs Repaired.

JOHN L. ARNOLD,

Nos. 11, 13 & 15 EAST ORANGE STREET, LANCASTER, PA.

FLINN & WILLSON,

HOUSE-STIRE GOODS

COOK STOVES, RANGES AND HEATERS,

FLINN & WILLSON,

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM.

EDGERLEY & Co.,

S. CLAY MILLER,

Wines, Brandies, Gins, Old Rye Whiskies, &c.,

GIBSON'S WHISKY BOTTLED A SPECIALTY.

some grades in August, when only a half crop was anticipated, no change is perceptible in the year's table of quotations. The market commenced and closed strong. Ohio shipping sorts are a trifle lower than they were, but all other kinds rule at the long prevailing rates.

New England—Crop 1880, wrappers, common, 15¢; medium, 18¢; fine, 22¢; 25¢; Selections, 40¢; Seconds, 11¢; Havana seed, 20¢.

Pennsylvania—Crop 1880, assorted lots, low, 10¢; fair, 13¢; fine, 18¢; 22¢; wrappers, 18¢; 20¢; fillers, 6¢.

Wisconsin—Crop 1880, assorted lots, common, 8¢; medium, 12¢; fine, 15¢; 18¢.

Ohio—Crop 1880, assorted lots 6¢; 12¢; 15¢; wrappers, 11¢.

Gans's Report.

Sales of seed leaf tobacco reported by J. S. Gans's Son & Co., tobacco brokers, No. 131 Water street, New York, for the week ending Jan. 9, 1882: 300 cases 1880 Pennsylvania, fillers 6¢; 7¢; assorted, 12¢; 15¢; wrappers, 15¢; 20¢; 25¢; 30¢; 35¢; 40¢; 45¢; 50¢; 55¢; 60¢; 65¢; 70¢; 75¢; 80¢; 85¢; 90¢; 95¢; 100¢.

Seed Leaf and Havana for the Week.

The first week of the year opened listless and dull. Neither manufacturers nor jobbers manifested the least desire to invest in leaf tobacco, and the few transactions made were insignificant in volume.

Outside of about 250 cases of '80 Pennsylvania, mostly wrappers, at figures ranging between 30 and 42 cents, about 125 cases of '80 Connecticut wrappers at 27¢ to 40 cents, and 180 cases of Wisconsin, 31 cents for fillers to 111 cents for good running found buyers. A small sale of about 100 cases '80 Ohio at 81 cents is also reported.

It certainly will take a week or two yet before manufacturers and jobbers will make their appearance in this market again. The past year has been, as a whole, a very prosperous one to them; their stocks are low, and the market itself has but a limited amount of serviceable goods; all of which are features which permit the prediction of a speedy revival of business in the market.

The effect of the fire, so destructive to large amounts of Havana tobacco, on the market is one of depression and temporary disarrangement of business. It is safe to say that this will soon give way to great activity and consequent considerable rise in prices.

The auction sale of Thursday last clearly goes to show that the few thousand bales saved from the fire and which are at best not in a wholly unserviceable state, are seeking channels which do not come into direct competition with the regular output. The respectable manufacturers will not take any of the spoiled and soiled tobacco; and those who will manipulate it can only hope to make a cigar out of it that may form a competitor to a clear seed cigar.

The thoroughly damaged stock will go for purposes wholly independent of the regular manufacturer of cigars. It is therefore clear that prices for sound and fine Havana tobacco will have to go up considerably, the stock of such here as well as in Cuba being quite limited.

Two Notable Deaths.

Richard H. Dana, Jr., and Edward W. Stoughton, at Nearly the Same Age.

Richard Henry Dana, Jr., the lawyer and author, is dead, at the age of 66 years. He passed away at his home during the last three years in Europe, and his death, which was caused by pneumonia, occurred in Rome. Last summer a report of his serious illness was published, but he sent a note to a home paper denying the rumor.

Mr. Dana's father, who bore the same name, was widely known as a poet, the author of "The Buccaneer" and other verse highly commended by the critics of his day. As was the father so the son was born in the Dana mansion, at Cambridge, Mass. The deceased left Harvard college in 1837, and returning in 1840 from a voyage to California, he published his noted book, "Two Years Before the Mast." At the Boston bar he devoted much time to admiralty cases, which led to the preparation of his manual, "The Seaman's Friend." Later in life he published "To Cuba and Back," as well as biographical sketches of Washington Allston and Professor Edward Channing. His edition of Wheaton's "Elements of International Law" was given to the press a few years ago.

In 1848 Mr. Dana, as a Free Soiler, was a delegate from Boston to the Buffalo convention. He took an active part in the organization of the Republican party and was a prominent speaker in the campaigns of 1856 and for Lincoln in 1860 and 1864.

In 1859 he made a tour around the world, revisiting California and visiting the Hawaiian Islands, China, Japan, India and returning through Europe. In 1861 he was appointed United States attorney for Massachusetts, holding the office until 1866, arguing every prize case that came up in the district. In conjunction with Mr. Evans he argued the prize cases for the government before the United States supreme court. At that time he was a member of the Massachusetts Legislature. In 1868 he was defeated for Congress by Gen. B. F. Butler.

Toward the last of General Grant's administration in 1870, Dana was nominated as minister to England in place of Mr. Schenck. He was opposed by a clique led by the late William Deane Lawrence, with whom Mr. Dana had had a controversy concerning the copyright of Wheaton's Commentary, and by General Butler and Senator Cameron. President Grant refused to withdraw the nomination and the Senate rejected it on the 5th of April, 1870, by a vote of 31 to 17.

Ex-Minister Stoughton's Career at the Bar and in Politics.

Edwin W. Stoughton, who died at his residence in New York city on Friday afternoon, was born in Springfield, Vt., May 1, 1818, and was consequently in his sixty-fourth year. He went to New York when he was nineteen years of age and began the study of law. During the earlier years of his profession he made several noteworthy contributions to the journalism of that period, a series of articles in Dana's Merchants' Magazine in particular attracting marked attention. In his legal capacity Mr. Stoughton was concerned in many important cases, including the famous patent suits, such as the Woolworth patenting machine case, the Goodyear patent and the suit of Ross Winans against the Erie road in the receiver cases in 1868, and was retained by Tweed at the beginning of his troubles, although he took no active part in the defense. He also conducted the suit of the stockholders in the Emma Mine litigation.

Mr. Stoughton's political career began at a later date. He was a decided Democrat for a long time, but during President Grant's administration, when complaints arose touching the president's use of the army in Louisiana, he published an elaborate defense, on constitutional grounds, of the president's course, and from that time on was an ardent Republican. He was one of the visiting statesmen who went to New Orleans after the election in 1876, to defend Mr. Hayes' title before the electoral commission. In October, 1877, he was appointed minister to Prussia, succeeding Mr. Boker, and remained until June, 1879, when he returned to this country, owing to the severity of the Russian climate. He was an earnest champion of a third presidential term for Gen. Grant in 1880.

Bolts the Brewster Dinner.

Lawyer Northrop Objects to Wayne MacVeagh as a Post-Prandial Speaker.

At a meeting yesterday of the committee of attorneys having in charge the arrangements for the public dinner to be given in honor of Attorney General Brewster, the letter of George Northrop declining to participate in the event was read.

In his note Mr. Northrop said: "I most cordially unite with you in inviting the Hon. Benjamin Harris Brewster to dine with the bar, to express my gratification at his appointment and my appreciation of his abilities. The proceedings, however, seem to have another purpose, which I do not approve. I therefore resign my position on your committee and decline to be present at the dinner." When the letter was first received, Attorneys Rawle, Archer, West, Diehl and other members of the committee consulted together and resolved to accept Mr. Northrop's resignation and decided that something more need be said about the matter before the dinner would be given in the presence of the committee of arrangements expressed some indignation at the action of the committee on "toasts" in assigning Wayne MacVeagh to the duty of responding to the sentiment, "The office of Attorney General." Mr. Northrop stated at the time that the selection of Mr. MacVeagh was unwise, and that he would take advantage of the occasion to glorify himself and detract from that prominence which by right belonged to Mr. Brewster as the honored guest. After the meeting yesterday Chairman Thomas J. Diehl, in speaking of the letter, said it "would not prevent any subscriber from attending, nor would it interfere with the success of the dinner. Mr. Northrop had no right to conclude that Wayne MacVeagh, in responding to the toast, would indulge in self-glorification. We were not aware that there was an ill-feeling between Mr. Northrop and Wayne MacVeagh." "I do not care to talk about the matter," said Mr. Northrop when approached on the subject. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with the committee of arrangements." John C. Ballitt, who will attend the dinner, said Mr. Northrop's resignation would have no effect on the dinner. "I was not satisfied with the way the men in charge of the dinner were managing it, and I told them so and resigned my connection with