

SPECIAL NOTICES

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, give an early dose of WILSON'S SMOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it! There is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you on occasion that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, opening little mouths. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to take. It is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere; 25 cents a bottle.

"Rough on Hairs." The thing desired found at last. Ask druggists for "Rough on Hairs." It is a hair cream, not a hair oil, and it is the only one that does not clog the pores, roughen the face, and irritate the hair. It is the only one that does not clog the pores, roughen the face, and irritate the hair. It is the only one that does not clog the pores, roughen the face, and irritate the hair.

"What we all desire, and how to secure it." A fine head of hair is a woman's greatest asset. It is the crown of her beauty, and it is the only one that does not fade. It is the only one that does not fade. It is the only one that does not fade. It is the only one that does not fade. It is the only one that does not fade.

"Skin Diseases." Cured by Dr. Swaine's. What is more distressing than a skin disease, and why persons should suffer a single hour when they have a cure in "Swaine's Ointment." It is a cure for all skin diseases, and it is the only one that does not fade. It is the only one that does not fade. It is the only one that does not fade.

RESCUED FROM DEATH. The following statement of William F. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is remarkable that we look to for the consolation of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1870 I was taken with violent biliousness, which was followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was weak at one time, that I could not move my bed. In the summer of 1871 I was advised to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I took them for a few days, and I felt better. I took them for a few days, and I felt better. I took them for a few days, and I felt better.

A Good Angel's Visit—A Tale of "Road-dahs." Blanche called on Kate, one pleasant day, and found her sad and sighing, dearest friend, once bright and gay, now scarcely could keep from crying for "God," she said, "It is a disgrace to see with scrofula, my face so badly marred." Then said her friend, "Road-dahs will cure you." The relative and her friend, the ladies, another day and found her once more bright and gay, her face as radiant, skin as fair, as any maiden's anywhere. For skin diseases and impure blood, there's nothing in the world so good as Road-dahs. It cures away all skin disorders, humor, it cures the system, cures your face and banishes all doctor's bills: sold in Lancaster at Cochran's Drug Store, 127 and 129 North Queen street.

Many miserable people drag themselves along in pain, and in a state of suffering, they are sinking into their graves where Parker's Ginger Tonic would begin with the first dose, to bring vitality and strength back to them. It is the only one that does not fade. It is the only one that does not fade. It is the only one that does not fade.

THIRD EDITION. MONDAY EVENING, JAN. 9, 1892. SCOVILLE SPEAKS. PLEADING FOR GUILTEAU'S LIFE. THE END OF THE TRIAL NEAR AT HAND.

Some sharp passages between Counsel that caused for Rebuke from the Court. WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The usual throng was present at the opening of the trial of Guiteau, and the ladies being still decidedly in the majority, Guiteau looked nervous and anxious. In his customary opening harangue he announced that he had received over eight hundred letters, the greater part of them from ladies. Public opinion he said is changing, and Saturday he had received a thousand dollars from the Stalwarts of Brooklyn and five hundred from the Stalwarts of New York. A ballot had been tried to stop him, but the prisoner turned upon him in a most violent manner and snarled out a rebuff. Mr. Scoville then resumed his argument.

Mr. Scoville was listened to with marked attention for an hour and a half. He and Porter, during a heated discussion, were warned by the judge not to indulge in personalities. A recess was then taken.

GOVERNOR'S FIGHT. The struggle for the Reading Presidency—To-day's Meeting of the Stockholders—A Lively Time. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 9.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Reading Railroad was called to order at noon, F. B. Gowen moved that Geo. M. Dallas act as chairman, which resolution was unanimously adopted. The reading of the annual report was then proceeded with.

WILMINGTON, Jan. 9.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Philadelphia & Baltimore was held here today. The old board of directors was re-elected by the substitution of Benj. P. Newcomer for Samuel Harlan. Isaac Hineley was re-elected president, A. J. Cassatt vice president, and Robert Craven treasurer.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 9.—The annual meeting of the Baltimore, Pittsburgh & Western Railroad was also held today. The annual report shows that the past year has been one of reorganization, consolidation and extension, and is very favorable in its showing of the company's business and prospects.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 9.—It has been discovered that the elevator rope in Schofield's mill at Manayunk, which was said to have been broken on Saturday, causing the death of Thomas Proctor and seriously injuring Benjamin Vard, was probably cut by a previous person. A reward of $100 has been offered for the detection of the miscreant.
