LANCASTER, PA., TUESDAY JANUARY 10, 1882.

Price Two Cents.

CLOTHING.
A HAPPY NEW YEAR!
The season of 1881 closed one of the most brilliant and successful campaigns in the history of our trade. We congratulate our patrons and ourselves in anticipation of a lively and increased Spring Trade.
In order to meet the demand we have made extensive improvements in our room and otherwise extended our facilities to present our spring offering of select and choice FINEST QUALITY CLOTHING to arrive about the First of February. We will be able to please the most exacting as well as the general class of trade. A great desideratum among our people seems to be a cheap article in clothing. There is no good in it. We have tried it and found it does not pay. We will suggest one of our Overcoats will last three seasons' hard wear and look genteel, while a $20 Overcoat will hardly be recognized after one season's wear. Where is the economy in buying trash? Few persons are competent judges of fine articles of clothing done up in first-class style; therefore, we invite special attention to our establishment, where can be found at all times the very best in the market, at prices as reasonable as can be expected. We are selling a new HEAVY-WEIGHT
OVERCOATINGS
—AND—
SUITINGS,
at very low prices in order to close them out to make room for our new Spring Stock.
Thankful for the very liberal patronage we hope to continue our motto of Square Dealing in all our transactions, and show a practical and happy result during our Spring Campaign.
All are cordially invited to call at

J. K. SMALING,
ARTIST TAILOR.

THE TIME FOR MAKING
WHITE SHIRTS
is again close at hand, but there is little use in doing it when they can be bought so cheap and if you get the right shirt the it is better than it made at home.
WE KEEP
Seven Different Kinds,
And they are sold for Different Prices,
From 50c. to $1.25 each.
With these we have one make that is Open Front; and among so many kinds there is one that takes the lead for three reasons:
1st. For its Perfect Fitting.
2d. For Quality of Material.
3d. For Long Wearing.
IT IS CALLED THE
EIGHTMIE,
And if you have never tried one it will pay you to do so before you go to the trouble of making. There are thousands of them in use in and around LANCASTER, and the shirt proves itself wherever it is tried.

WANAMAKER & BROWNS, OAK HALL.
BARGAINS DE FACTO.
Rough and Tumble Data.
The mill that makes these goods runs exclusively for Oak Hall.
They are all-wool, strong as cow hide, thoroughly honest and not handsome.
One point with them is to give the greatest amount of strength and durability for the least possible price.
We have said little about them, because they have sold too fast to advertise.
We now have small lines as follows:

|                           |         |           |
|---------------------------|---------|-----------|

| Large Boys' Blouse Suits, | $4.50  | de facto. |
| Large Boys' Overcoats,    | $7.00  |           |
| Small Boys' Overcoats,    | $6.00  |           |

We cannot speak too strongly of the solidity and goodness of these goods.

Lancaster Intelligencer.
TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 10, 1882.
MORE "BIG BILLS."
COST OF REARRANGING PAPERS.
$3,800 SO FAR AS HEARD FROM.
$1,225 TO BARNES AND HUBER.
$500 TO SHERIFF STRINE FOR DESTROYING FISH POTS.
$300 for Indexing in Register's Office.
It will be remembered that in the bill of Register Edgerly for rearranging the papers in his office, "by order of court," reference was made to the 1,500 files used, and that 2,000 of the same were used by Prothonotary McMillen in the work for which he got $1,800; and that in their recommendation of "very liberal compensation" Judges Patterson and Livingston mentioned that they recommended the adoption of the "files" used.
It was surmised by some persons that a considerable portion of the expenses of the work done was for the purchase of these files and that probably the "very liberal compensation" allowed had covered the outlay for these files.
An examination of the county commissioners' account shows that these files were paid for separately by the county.
THE COMMISSIONERS LAST YEAR PAID TO JOHN H. BARNES $1,225 FOR FILES AND $100 RESIDES TO W. L. KREIDER FOR STRAPS FOR SOME OF THEM.
Inquiry in regard to this expenditure for new files has developed the following facts:
John H. Barnes, job printer, and Joseph H. Huber, brass founder, are making and selling an improved and very convenient file for use in public offices; which we have been informed by Mr. Barnes has not yet been patented, but of which the patent is applied for.
The county bought 3,500 of these for the rearrangement of the papers in the register's and prothonotary's office. When the first thousand were furnished they had no straps with them to take the place of the tape generally used in wrapping about files of papers. W. L. Kreider furnished straps for these. They were of kip, about two feet long, 3/4 inch wide, with buckle and holes, and for this thousand Mr. Kreider was paid $100. With the other 2,500 files Barnes furnished straps, somewhat inferior to those made by Kreider, narrower, of lighter leather and some of them too weak.
For his entire supply Barnes was paid $1,225, 25 cents apiece or $350 a thousand for the files; and we are told that he and Huber have sold 1,000 to Chester county at the same rate.
A sample of the files—secured by the INTELLIGENCER and to be seen at this office—shows no inscription "patent" or "patent applied for" on it.
A description of the file may show our mechanical readers what the device is, wherein the specialty consists, and what the actual cost and profit are and whether the county paid a fair price.
The patent is of course not on the strap as that seems to have been Mr. Kreider's suggestion, and the files were first made without it.
Besides the strap, the file consists of two pieces of stiff tar board with a piece of muslin pasted on the end of them, of the same width and folding over the end of the papers filed, slipping through a brass "hold-fast," somewhat like a suspender buckle, riveted on the lower piece of board. The strap is riveted on to the upper piece of board and about an inch and a-half from the end of this piece there is a joint in it and a small band of white gum tape makes a hinge, which enables it to be thrown back and a search to be made through the papers filed without taking them out. The patent is on this joint, and in the application of the hold-fast clamp to the file, as the two pieces of stiff card board, the muslin and tape have long been in use in the court-house offices. It is undoubtedly a useful and very convenient style of file.
The question is, whether the county was justified in purchasing 3,500 of them to supply its wants and paying $1,325 for them.
More Big Bills.
Among some other items in the county account of the past year which are likely to attract public attention are:
Five hundred dollars paid to Sheriff J. S. Strine for dismantling fish pots.
Five hundred dollars paid to C. F. Stoer for indexing in the register's office.
As to the latter item, Mr. Stoer tells us that the work was very necessary to be done; it was petitioned for by every member of the bar, including the editors of the INTELLIGENCER; that he did it under the instructions of the court, and submitted his bill to Judge Livingston, who fixed his compensation at $500, upon a basis of 4 cents a name for 12,000 names indexed and $20 for red lining and correcting.
The Law in the Case.
The following digest of the law will explain the right and duties of the court in ordering rearrangement, restoration and reindexing of the public records.
The law of June 17, 1839, makes it the duty of the judges, as often as the recorder of deeds, register of wills or clerk of orphan's court of any county, shall be superseded, and as such oftener as shall be requisite, to ascertain if the records, books, indexes and bills of their respective offices be kept and left as the law contemplates; and if neglect is apparent to direct the deficiency to be performed by the proper officers; and when the same arose from the neglect or misconduct of a preceding officer, they shall assess and order a just and reasonable compensation for said service to be said court certified to the commissioners and paid out of the treasury of the proper county; and substantially the same is provided in the case of prothonotaries and other court clerks as to their "books, files, indexes and papers," the judges to award for the work "such reasonable, fair and equitable compensation," as they "may deem just and proper."

In such cases, however, it shall be the duty of the commissioners, when they have paid such compensation, to proceed to collect the same, for the use of the county, of the defaulting officer.
By the act of May 3, 1878, the courts of common pleas were authorized, whenever it appeared to them advisable, to change the mode of keeping indexes of the public records and direct how they shall be kept; the new indexes rendered necessary by such changes to be prepared by competent persons appointed by the officers, with the approval of the court and the expense to be borne by the county; and by a supplement to this act it was provided that worn-out or faded records could be restored in like manner.
Following is the order of court under which the prothonotary proceeded to rearrange the papers in his office—for which he was paid $1,800.
"Now Dec. 29, 1880, the court order and direct the prothonotary to complete rearranging and indexing the papers in his office yet unarranged, in the same manner and on the same terms as Prothonotary Hartman was ordered and directed to arrange and fix them."
AN OLD STAND.
Important Business Change at Quarryville, New Era.
As announced in our advertising columns, the firm of Geo. W. Hensel & Son, of Quarryville, will be dissolved on the first of March, the senior partner retiring from a business with which he has been actively identified for a period of forty-five years. It was established by the late Lewis Haines in 1833, Mr. Hensel entering his store when he was fourteen years of age. Three years later he had an interest in the business, and in the spring of 1842 he bought out Mr. Haines, who retired from mercantile life. During the forty-five years Mr. Hensel has been in Quarryville he has been eminently successful, not only as a merchant, but also in that which men should prize still more highly, in uniformly commanding the respect and confidence of his neighbors and fellow citizens. He has been eminently successful in this, not only because of his integrity of character and urbanity of manner, but for the reason that he has always taken a lively interest in and given substantial encouragement to any enterprise calculated to develop the resources and promote the interests of the neighborhood with which he was identified. He was an early advocate and an active worker in the enterprise which gave Quarryville railroad communication with the outside world, and his final completion was largely due to his hopeful perseverance when others were discouraged. Mr. Hensel, although retiring from the active duties of mercantile life, is not the style of man to permit himself to "rust out" by spending the remainder of a yet vigorous life in inactivity. He has farming and other interests to look after, sufficient to keep him actively employed. He has our best wishes for his unimpeded future.
It will be seen that the business, with the exception of the hardware branch, will be continued in the old stand by the junior partner, Glenn J. P. Raub, and that a new hardware store will be opened in Mr. Hensel's "old" store house, by his son, Charles C. Hensel, who has been in the employ of the old firm for the last four years, and from whom he has purchased their entire hardware department.
BART ITEMS.
In and Around Georgetown.
The few days of cold weather during this past week have been appreciated in this section by the persons who store ice; most of the ice houses were filled with a good quality of ice of about 4 or 5 inches in thickness.
Surprise parties, usually numerous in our neighborhood at this season of the year, are beginning to loom up again, and the opening one of the series took place at the residence of Dr. J. Keely on Saturday evening last in honor of the seventeenth birthday of George Baney, a step-son of Dr. Keely; about 60 persons were present and partook of the abundant repast. Several presents were presented to George by the young ladies who conducted the affair, and the sham cake was cut by the doctor with a good display of surgical ability in handling the knife. The sham cake was a roll of cotton covered with stiff paper and nicely iced over.
No stir is yet apparent in the tobacco trade.
Martin & Fritz received two small lots a few days ago, but we did not hear the figures—one lot from Eden and the other from Salisbury township.
Facts are startling things, and so are coughs and colds, but the latter will invariably yield to Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, which costs but 25 cents.
It is the height of folly to wait until you are in bed with disease which may last months, when you can be cured by a timely use of Parker's Ginger Tonic. We have known sickly families made healthy by it.—Observer.
A Heavy Swell.
Jacob H. Bloomer, of Virelle, N. Y., writes: "Your Thomas' Swell Cure Oil cured a badly swollen neck and sore throat on my son in forty-eight hours; one application also removed the pain from a very sore toe; my wife's foot was also much inflamed—so much so that she could not walk about the house; she applied the oil, and in twenty-four hours was entirely cured." For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.
The Right Sort of General.
Jacob Smith, Clinton street, Buffalo, says he has used Spring Blossom in his family as a general medicine for cases of indigestion, biliousness, bowel and kidney complaints, and disorders arising from impurities of the blood; he speaks highly of its efficacy. Price 50 cents. For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.
Never too Late to Mend.
Thos. J. Arden, Willamstown, East Buffalo writes: "I used Spring Blossom in my family on an epidemic. I had no appetite; used to sleep badly; got up in the morning unrefreshed; my breath was very offensive and I suffered from severe headache; since using your Spring Blossom these symptoms have vanished and I feel quite well." Price 50 cents. For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.
