PORTER PLEADS.

HE IS TELLING SPEECH FOR THE PROSECUTION.

GUITEAU VISIBLY AFFECTED.

Judge Cox Rules on Some Law Points.—Decisions Against the Prayers of the Defense—A Bad Day for Guiteau.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The court room was densely crowded this morning. Judge Porter at once began to speak and Guiteau listened with wrapt attention. It is believed Porter will occupy the time until noon.

During Porter's argument the prisoner winced, and as counsel pictured Guiteau beneath the shadow of the gallows the latter seemed to lose all his powers of interruption, and the court room was hushed in awe.

Upon the conclusion of Porter's speech Judge Cox read the decisions on the prayers of counsel. In regard to the question of jurisdiction he decided against the prayer of defense. Regarding the question of legal insanity he decided that knowledge of the difference between right and wrong must be accepted as the correct test.

Judge Cox concluded his decision at 1:25 p. m., having consumed an hour and forty minutes with rapid speaking. Upon every material point his rulings were directly against the prayers of the defense.

The only grain of comfort for the prisoner was offered when Judge Cox reached the question of reasonable doubt. Upon this subject he said: "I shall not charge the jury to acquit if they find a reasonable doubt as to any one element, but I shall take into consideration and charge them, relative to all the elements and that if from all the circumstances and all the evidence they have a reasonable doubt of the commission of the crime as charged then they shall acquit."

As Judge Cox finished speaking Guiteau called out, "I am perfectly satisfied with the opinion of the law, and I am perfectly satisfied with the opinion of the fact."

After consultation between counsel court adjourned until Thursday morning, when Mr. Davidge will make the opening argument to the jury in the prosecution.
