The property committee reported the purchase of a Schomaker piano, $10 rent obtained for it, Col. H. W. Gray's generous donations and the fixing of $5 per night rental; recommended the parchase of a gum cloth cover which was ordered; had examined the drains at the market house and find the trouble arising from the broken terra cotta drains, and ordered east iron ones to replace them, which will be placed in position as soon as the weather permits. The leases of the rooms expiring April 1st have all teen renewed and are herewith presented for approval. They were approved.

The road committee reported that the upervisor had mished repairing Fourth street, from Union to the Supplee engine works; have repaired Barber street several times during the month, but owing to the heavy hauling on it it is hard to keep in repair; have done some little repairing on the alleys in Kitchentown, and are at present repairing Front street, from above Strickler's lane towards Steacy's mill. As soon as Front street is finished we propose stopping repairs for the winter.

Without exception one of the most daring robberies ever known in the history of olambia was perpetrated yesterday afternoon between 1 and 6 o'clock, at the dry goods store of Mr. F. S. Bletz. It was done by two men who certainly must have been well acquainted in that neighborhood. They entered the back yard, tore two beards off of the warehouse, took a ladder out and placed it against the store house and attempted to enter by the second story window. They broke out a sash and a pane of glass, but could not enter that way. They descended to the ground and entered by the cellar; the cellar window was forced open by best female physician and nurses in the some sharp instrument. This part of United States. RESCUED FROM DEATH

The following statement of William J Coughlin, of Somerville, alass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken Patience" is the attraction underlined for with a violent bleeding of the lungs followed appetite and flesh, I was so weak at one time of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said 1 had a hole in my left lung as big as a half collar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicine. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was meurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchial and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and towhich Singers and Public Speakers are subject | day I feel in better spirits than I have the past

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that everyone afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that consumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my sickness. The Assassin in a Good Humor. WASHINGTON, Jan 16 .- At the opening of the tenth week of the Guiteau trial the prisoner came into court smiling and with more confidence in his walk and manner than he has lately evinced. He saluted his brother and his counsel pleasantly as he passed them, and then took up his papers. Scoville commenced his address to the jury.

Scoville went on to charge that Porter, Davidge, Corkhill and some of the experts had formed a conspiracy to hang his client. He was soon interrupted by Davidge, who broke in with : "Oh ! po, no, Mr. Scoville that is not so."

The new board of directors of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad company met for the first time at noon to day. The meeting was marked by no unusual procedure, the board, as Mr. Gowen said, merely taking up the work where they dropped it after their defeat a year ago. No allusion was made to Gowen's de ferred bond scheme, of which the president said that the stockholders having approved it, he supposed it would be put into execution at once. The board appointed Francis P. Knercher secretary of the coal and irou company, of which he has hitherto been the anditor, and made
