COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE Our citizens are becoming alarmed at the frequent and daring robberies committed in this borough. And well they may be, as the robbery of Mr. Bletz's store in broad day light testifies. That they are perpetrated by a regularly of ganized gang does not admit of a doubt. Their workings are all done in the same manner; they know as much about a house they intend entering as the occupant; all their plans are perfected before they make the attempt. Compare the robberies of several months ago to those of late and see with what excellence they were worked, in the same manner, plainly showing they were done by the same crowd. Tramps have not the time to loaf around town to perfect arrangements. Our police officers are too watchful for that. If one is seen he is either made to "skip" the town, or railroaded to Castle Weise. What we want is a firstclass detective-one who thoroughly understands the business. Our merchants should ciub together, raise enough money to pay, one and have him ferret out the gang. By saying this we do not want to reflect discredit upon our town officials. They are all good policemen, but very poor detectives. Why? Because they have not the experience. They are brave and fearless, but to be a good detective it takes time and money, and the, have neither. Let us by all means have a first class de-Little Locals.

INCENDIARISM.

Foreign Insurance Agents Atraid to Take

Following is an extract from a letter recrived by the agent of one of the leading insurance companies doing foreign business in Lancaster. It shows how our interest are affected by the frequency of incendiary fires in our sity: "Your report is to hand. As stated n my letter to you yesterday, with the frequent incendiary fires in your town, I lo not think your present rates are sufficient. Without the moral hazard of your town, I think rate would be low anywhere. In Lancaster, under your present police and fire department demoralization, I do not know what rate to charge, and therefore prefer to decline."

SCOVILLE'S SCATHING SPEECH.

HE BOLDLY ARRIGNS THE STALWARTS Arthur, Grant and Conkling Responeible for Garfield's Death.

SHIELDING THEIR OWN SHAME BE HIND GUITEAU'S AUT

The Clamor for a Poor Crazy Mau's Blood not in the Interest of Justice—A Pear-iess Deliverance and Terrible Ac-cusation—Scoville Warmly Congratulated -- Encouraging Dispatch from New

Washington, Jan. 18.-Mr. Scoville, in reply to an inquiry this morning, stated that he hardly expected to conclude his speech to-day. At ten minutes past ten o'clock Mr. Scoville resumed his speech, taking up and discussing the statistics of the insane criminals which had been in troduced in evidence in the prosecution. NEW YORK, January 18.—Flour-State and Western dull and prices without quotable change: Superfine state, $3.9064.50; Superfine This evidence, Mr. Scoville says, was of change: Superfine state, $5 350; 130; Superfine Western, $3 3804 50. Southern dull and weak; common to fair extra, $5 2506 50: good to choice do, $6 3506 70%.

Wheat 1/0% better, fairly active speculative business: No. 2, Red, Feb. $1 44/201 45: do March, $1 47/2001 47/4; do May, $1 47/4 001 48. the greatest benefit to the defense, and afforded instances of delusion and chronic mania precisely as he claimed had affected the prisoner. An exactly similar case in all its phases, he thought, had never ex @1 48.
Corn about 1/4c better; moderately active; mixed Western spot, 62@701/4c; do tuture, 99@751/4c.
Oats 1/4@1/4c better, including No. 2 March at 481/4c; State, 49@35c; Western, 481/4@53c. isted. He did not think the world had ever seen or ever would see a second Guiteau. Insane people were as peculiar and as erratic as the meteors, each having an orbit peculiar to itself.

Mr. Scoville went on to argue that there are politicians shielding themselves and their own shame behind the disgrace of this poor prisoner. He asserted that such men as Arthur and Grant and Conkling are morally and intellectually responsible for this crime. They shall not escape the coademnation of the American people for their share in that disgraceful scramble for office that led this poor in saue man to do that which, if it could have been accomplished without assassination, they would have hailed with satisfaction. He did not believe this clamor for an insane man's blood was solely to satisfy justice.

CHICAGO.—Hogs—Receipts, 25,000 head; ship-ments, 4,300 head; general demand fair; qual-ity poor; market only steady; common to good mixed, $5 95@6 30; heavy packing and shipping. 46 40@6 85; light, $6 95@6 35; skips and culls, $4 50@5 75. Cattle—Receipts, 3,500 head; shipments, 1.200 Scoville's denunciation of Conkling and Arthur created a profound sensation in the court room. As soon as recess was anhead; market was generally fairly active and strong; no export, and values nominal at $6 206 40; good to choice shipping, $5 5066; common to fair, $4 6065 20; mixed butchers steady; common to fair, $2 7565 55; good to choice $3 7564 25; stockers and feeders at $2 90 nounced Mr. Scoville was surrounded by ladies and gentlemen, who congratulated him upon his fearless exposition. One gentleman exclaimed "That's the correct sentiment, and four-fifths of the American people are backing you on that." The recess hour was enlivened by several heated discussions in the corridors and upon the outside on the general question of moral and intellectual responsibility as set forth by Mr. Scoville. During recess Mr. Scoville received the following tele gram :

gram:
"New York, Jan. 18.—To Mr. Scoville, Atty for Guiteau: 'The New York court of appeals have just decided that the court of appeals have just decided that the prosecution, where some evidence of insanity is produced for the defense, must make out a case of sanity beyond a reasonable doubt." Counsel for the defense will call attention to this latest decision, and ask

Judge Cox to charge the jury to that

Two Trains Try to Pass Each Other on the Same Track, with the Usual Result. Спіслоо, Jan. 18.—The limited express on the Pennsylvania railroad, which left here last evening ran into a freight train at Englewood, just outside the city limits. Engineer Joseph Graham and Fireman George Wentz both jumped and were badly hurt. The former had one eye completely cut out and otherwise cut and bruised, and the latter had a gash in head five inches long and his tongue completely severed in the middle. Six or eight passengers were slightly braised. The engineer of the express train was disabled and two freight cars were wrecked. Over an Embankment. MILWAUKEE, Jan. 18 .- A special dispatch from Glen Beulah, Wis., states that the west-bound freight train on the She boygan & Western railroad yesterday, when near Glen Beulah, twenty miles west of Sheboygan, struck a broken rail which caused the ditching of the caboose down a twenty-foot embankmant, with the con ductor, two brakemen and twenty six passengers aboard. Charles Richley, of Cleve land, O, was cut on the head but not seriously hurt. No one was badly injured.

A RUNAWAY LOCOMOTIVE.

Deserted by its Engineer it is Chasei Six Miles Before Captured—Brakeman GALVESTON, Tex., Jan. 18 .- A special from Fort Worth says: "About 12 o'clock Monday night the engineer and fireman on a switch engine saw a train ahead and fearing a collision jumped from their engine, after reversing it. The engines struck and there being no one aboard the reversed engine to stop it, it was chased six miles before it could be captured. A brakeman named M. A. Stevens was thrown to the track by the collision and completely beheaded."

WORKIED TO DEATH.

The Rass and Fatal Deed of a Philadelphia PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 18.-Mrs. Julia Faulane cut her throat at her home early this morning. Her injuries are serious. She has been ill for several weeks. Her husband, who held a lucrative position at the League island navy yard died three months ago, and it is believed the trouble and the responsibility of providing for their five children have im_ paired her reason. She attempted suicide last Monday, but was prevented. It is believed, however, that her attempt of this morning will prove fatal.
