Circle No. 108 will assemble at the Odd Fellows' hall, South Queen street, the meeting place of Circle No. 110, where the line will be formed under the direction of the marshal of No. 110. The route taken will be up South Queen street to Centre square, up North Queen street to Orange to Prince. Should the weather be favorable there will no doubt be a good turn Stabbing Affair.

At the corner of Prince and German streets, last evening, during a quarrel between two boys-Frank Hagens and John Barry-each of whom are about 15 years of age-Hagens drew a knife and stabbed Barry in the side and then ran off. 11 so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. Barry's wound is not considered danger-that for some evenings preceding there had been more or less quarreling among a party of boys, some of whom attend the night school at the mill, and some others who gather there to annoy them, and last night's meeting was for the purpose of "having it out" among the several factions.

"The Twelve Jolly Bachelors."

This comic musical conceit was produced before a good audience in Fulton opera house last night, and was received with every manifestation of favor and hilarious mirth. The overcrowded state of our columne forbids any attempt at just criticism but it is only fair to say the audience were delighted and testified their approval by repeated applause.

Baptised in Water.

Philip Smith, the gentlemanly bartender at Court Avenue hotel, while carrying Ta tub of water from the bar-room this morning, slipped on the ice and dropped the tub. Philip "went down into the water " head-foremost. He came up smil ing, but " all wet," and had the tub been a little deeper he might have almost claimed membership in the "Ol ivet " church.
