THE TOBACCO MARKET.

SEED LEAF AND HAVANA.

For the Week Ending Saturday, January 21, 10 A. M.

The market remains flat and uninteresting. The few sales made are in small parcels to manufacturers or for export. There is no life, no push or energy displayed in any quarter. Cigar manufacturers complain of lack of orders, and therefore are loath to invest in leaf. Nevertheless there is no lowering of prices of any of the goods held in the market, a fact owing to the anticipations of an early revival of activity.

The sales of the week are as follows:

Pennsylvania—Crop '80: 400 cases; mostly low and medium goods, at 12½ to 17½ cents.

Ohio—Crop '80: 500 cases; partly for export and tobacco manufacturing purposes, partly for home cigar manufacturers, at 4 cents for fillers and 6½ to 10 cents for running.

Wisconsin—Crop '80; for same purposes as the Ohio, at 3½ to 4 cents for fillers and 6 to 10 cents for running.

Connecticut — Crop '80: 125 cases; wrappers, 20 to 40 cents.

New York State—Crop '80: 70 cases; flats, 15 cents

Havana—The market continues inactive the sales of the damaged tobacco still acting as a damper upon the trade. The quiet trade in cigar manufacturing circles also prevents active operations. Prices for sound and reliable goods, especially of fine quality, remain firm, importers knowing their inability to secure choice stock in Havana.

Gans' Report.

Sales of seed leaf tobacco reported by J. S. Gans' Son & Co., tobacco brokers, No. 131 Water street, New York, for the week ending Jan. 23, 1882:

400 cases 1880, Pennsylvania, fillers, 6 to 7c; assorted, 12 to 18c; wrappers, 18 to 32½c. 150 cases 1880, New England, wrappers, 16 to 35c. 70 cases 1880, state flats, 15c. 500 cases 1880, Ohio, fillers, 4c; assorted, 6¼ to 10c. 350 cases 1880, Wisconsin, fillers, 3½ to 3½c; assorted, 6 to 8c; Havana seed, 10 to 15c. Total, 1,070 cases.

Across the River.

Condensed From Our York Exchanges.

"Patience" is being rehearsed by a number of York ladies.

The public schools of York attended the funeral of Mr. Daniel Kraber in a body on Saturday. He was a member of the school board of that town over twelve years.

York is to have a "temperance revival," Rev. Dr. Babcock, secretary of state Temperance union, manager.

York papers announce the death of Mrs. Elenore Miller, aged 60 years, a sister of Mrs. George Murry, residing at Maytown, Lancaster county, and a brother of Mr. Christ Filby, who lives in this county.

The lad in York who had the smallpox died on Saturday. Dr. McClure, health officer of that borough, says there is not another case in the town.

Lewis, aged about 27 years, son of Mr. Lewis Strayer, of Washington township, York county, committed suicide by hanging himself in the parlor of his father's residence. He was a contracting carpenter, and "overwork had affected his brain" was the cause ascribed by the coroner.

Our genial young friend Dr. James A. Dale, of York, has been elected managing director of the York opera house company. His success as an excursion manager in addition to his acknowledged business tact gives a fitness to his new appointment, which speaks much for the wisdom of the board of directors.

FAREWELL NOTICE.

DR. GREENE takes this opportunity to let his numerous friends and patrons know that in a few months he will establish offices in Washington, D. C., and hence would suggest to the afflicted, the chronic cases of disease, to test OMNIPATHY before it is too late. Dr. Greene has treated over 3,000 patients since January 1st, 1880, made up largely from those turned away as incurable by other M. D.s. Over 1,500 deaths have occurred under others' practice, and not a half-dozen using his remedies. Most of the 1,500 have died prematurely. Physicians have lost their wives, brothers and sons, and druggists their wives and children during this time. Over 1,000 persons have been cured, and all benefited, by his methods, with a few exceptions. His claim is simply to cure all the various ills of mankind by external applications of remedials, and that he does not make a drug shop of the stomach, and he will before leaving publish a large pamphlet containing hundreds of names of persons cured in this city and county, many of them very extraordinary. A banker's wife cured of sick headache of over thirty-five years, and her glasses removed, reading and sewing with natural vision. Mr. Sutter, of 329 Middle street, cured of 5 years terrible annoyance of dyspepsia, in one day. Epileptic Fits of twenty years cured in one week. Tumors, Cancers and Cataracts removed without any pain or use of the knife. SMALLPOX: this frightful disease is all around us, and having had a deal of experience in properly vaccinating with animal virus, which is a sure preventive of this loathesome afflic tion, Dr. Greene will vaccinate anyone who calls upon him in the most scientific (and hence surej manner. Consultations FREE. Catarrh cured for 50 cents. The remedy sent to anyone on receipt of 50 cents in stamps.

THE KIDNEYCURA M'F'G COMPANY.

Gents—It gives me much pleasure to say that after using one pack of KIDNEYCURA I have been entirely cured of a severe pain in my back and side, of long standing, and that, too, after trying various known remedies. I have every confidence in your medicine, cheerfully recommend it, and know that many of my friends who have used it have been benefited. PETER BAKER,

REIGART'S OLD WINE STORE.

Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those afflicted with Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims.

With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than Brandy.

The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A Sovereign Remedy

or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is

REIGART'S OLD BRANDY,

Sold by our enterprising young friend, H. E. SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies, no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case of ases. In proof of the curative powers of

Reigart's Old Brandy,

In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we cite:—

A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—no appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try

Reigart's Old Brandy,

In his case, he looked up with astonishment but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A PRACTISING PHYSICIAN.
