The l'atton-Ryan Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Aunie Patton to Mr. J. W. Ryan, of Toledo, O., yesterday evening was a grand affair, but very unpretensions. No decoration or anything like that which made her sister's wedding pompous, were visible, but, neverthcless, the fair bride looked very happy and beautiful. The couple left on the 6:10 train for Philadelphia, thence to Eric, the home of the groom, where a reception will be held. They will make their future home in Toledo, where the bride's sister and her husband lives.

Opening of a New Warehouse.

The firm of Rosenbaum & Co. recently completed a new warehouse which is situated on the Harrisburg pike and Pennsylvania railroad, a short distance above the Mulberry street bridge. They moved into it a short time ago, and yester day Harry C. Rosenbaum, the gentlemanly representative of the firm here, dedicated the warehouse by giving an excellent set out in the building to his friends and em ployces. The building is a large three story-brick, with all the medern improvements. On the second floor front there are two connecting rooms used as offices. These rooms are very pretty, being tinished in hard wood. It is handsomely furnished and makes one of the finest offices in the city. Mr. Rosenbaum has now employed about 60 men assorting and packing one of the finest lots of tobacco in the city.

A Good Augel's Visit-A Tale of "Resa dalis." Blanche called on Kate, one pleasant day and found her sail and sighing, dearest friend once bright and gay, now scarce could keep trom crying ; tor, "oh," she said, "'tis a dis grace to see with scroiula, my face so badly marred !" then said her friend, " Rosadalis will your troubles end." Blanche called on Kate nother day and found her once more blithe and gay, her face as radiant, skin as fair, as any maiden's anywhere. For skin diseas and impure blood, there's nothing in the world so good as Rosadalis, it drives away all skin disorders, humor,-nay, it tones the sysbills! Sold in Lancaster at Cochran's Drug Store, 137 and 139 North Queen street. iy30-lydcod&w3 RESCUED FROM DEATH The following statement of William J Cough

lin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says : " In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer my left lung as big as a half collar. 1 expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicine. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was mourable, but 1 got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surpris and gratification, 1 commenced to feel better My hope, once dead, began to revive, and today I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.
