

LANCASTER INTELLIGENCER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JAN. 25, 1892.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

GAP NEWS.

The Latest Tidings from Salisbury. Miss Sallie Linville resigned her position as teacher of the primary school of this place on Monday last, on account of her health. The vacancy has not been filled as yet.

There is a great deal of sickness in the Gap just now. Miss Katie Nixon has been severely ill, but is slowly recovering. Master Henry Lantz, the well-known clerk in J. Marsh & Son's store, has taken his bed with a heavy cold, and other complaints; and Bridget Griffin is seriously ill.

On Friday night last, Joseph Francis, a five year old son of the Rev. Haver Hamilton, departed this life after a short illness; the ailment being croup. He was a very bright and intelligent boy and will be greatly missed as he was a general favorite. This is the second and last child Mr. Hamilton has buried within the last two months. The afflicted family have the heartfelt sympathy of the whole community. In token of sympathy, the Rev. Haver Hamilton yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Adam H. Hoar and wife, of Philadelphia, have been visiting friends here during the past few days. Last week John Kurtz's fine sorrel stallion died; the week before Mr. Kurtz had been offered $400 for him but refused it. During the last week Harry Samsel and his wife, of Philadelphia, were in town, and Frederick London sold his crop of 19, 7, 3.

A citizen of Simmonstown (oh! we almost forgot, Lynchburg) says that the Lancaster paper edited by Steman & Hessel is the best thing that comes into that ancient village; and we are of the opinion that it is best thing that comes to this place.

DOWNMANVILLE.

The News From the Northeast. D. E. Shiffer has sold his house and lot to John Samsel, for $800. The property is a two-story frame building with a lot containing one fourth of an acre. Mr. Shiffer will erect a house on the lot adjoining the one he sold, and work will be started shortly, so as to have it ready for occupation by spring.

John Samsel is going extensively into the cigar manufacturing business. This will make quite an addition to the industries of the village, as he intends to give employment to at least fifteen persons.

C. S. Burkhardt of the Fairville hotel has rented the Downmanville hotel and will take possession of it on April 1. N. B. Davidson, the present landlord of the Downmanville hotel, will move to Jerome Haller's farm, at Terre Hill.

The betrothal of Henry Samsel, of Downmanville, and Miss Elizabeth Gool, of Downmanville, was announced from the pulpit of the Memorial church at Downmanville last Sunday. Their coming marriage will be one of the grand social events of the neighborhood.

No religious services were held at Pine Grove meeting house on Sunday. Rev. Solomon Ott, the pastor, being confined to his room with inflammatory rheumatism.

At two o'clock on Thursday morning an alarm of fire was sounded and a bright blaze was seen issuing from the bake house of Henry Samsel. It was attacked by the main dwelling house and had any wind blowing at the time of the fire all efforts to save the main dwelling house would have been fruitless. A large crowd of people had soon assembled and after a few hours of hard labor the fire was extinguished.

J. B. Musselman has received a steamer from Lancaster city for the purpose of sweating his tobacco so as to give it a darker color.

Stanley & Sons, butchers, have a fine steer, weighing 1,700 pounds, in their stock yard. The animal will be slaughtered this week and taken to the Reading market.

DRUMORE.

Items of Interest Down the Country. The Fairchild lycium covered itself with glory last Friday evening—that is, if it was not covered before. It was the lycium's nonsensical evening, as they called it, and the house was crowded beyond standing room, not a few of the would-be spectators were to be counted by merely looking at the outside of the hall. The lycium has been a marvel of success in the lycium line, and merits the enviable reputation it has won.

The exercises last Friday evening were opened by a humorous reading by the glee club of "Row Your Boat," arranged for the occasion by the leader, Mr. David Weidley. Will McSparran read an essay entitled "Tails;" Clara Towson recited an Irish selection entitled "Diffidence;" Allie Gregg read an essay on "Our Cat;" T. W. Brown read "A Hard Shell Sermon;" Willie Dremmer read "Setting a Hen;" and Ida McSparran gave a chapter from "George Hackett's Diary;" Hattie Hess recited "The Counting;" (our girls knew all about that sort of thing); G. Ida Murphy read "The Hoss;" and in an excellent essay J. W. Van Arsdale told all about "The Nose;" David Weidley with his banjo took the house by singing; "Angels Meet Me at the Cross Roads."

Then followed debate on the resolution, "That the mule is a more musical bird than the long-tailed monkey," with Willis Grist and McSparran on the affirmative, and David Weidley and J. W. Van Arsdale on the negative. After a spicy debate the glee club sang "Three Blind Mice," followed by "Timothy Harnless," by Messrs. Weidley and Steinfeld.

A few tobacco sales were made last week to DeHaven.

John Brown received 21, 7, 3; Mrs. McVey, 20, 10, 5; Howard Smith and Abram Dabree, both 15, 7, 3.

Tobacco. A number of our farmers are finishing stripping and those who have not sold are ready for buyers, but are not ready to be scared into low prices.

Minor Topics. None of us are vaccinated yet. Our roads are awful.

Denmore has received the INTELLIGENCER's beautiful calendar for the present year, and has seen this year. Time marked by it must speed brightly.

A Fanny Bill From an Artist. "C. G." in Land and Water.

I came across a copy of a fanny old bill from a painter sent to a noble lord, a professed connoisseur and large collector of pictures. It is the items written for the amusement of your readers from the copy, which reads more like a comic effusion than a poor man's claim for artistic work.

To filling up the chink in the Red Sea, and repairing the damage of Pharaoh's host.

To cleansing six of the Apostles and adding an entirely new Judas Iscariot.

To a pair of new hands for Daniel in the lions' den, and a set of teeth for the honest.

To an alteration in the Belief, mending the Commandments, and making a new Lord's Prayer.

To new varnishing Moses's rod.

To repairing Solomon's beard.
