COURT. Proceedings in the Common Pleas. BEFORE JUDGE PATTERSON. In the case of Henry Frank vs. the city and county of Lancaster, the defense called witnesses to prove that the damages sustained were not as large as alleged by the plaintiff. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $905, divided as follows: $181 against the city and $724 against the city.

Frank A. Ricker, vs. the city and county of Lancaster. This is an issue to ascertain the amount of damages sustained by the plaintiffs by reason of extending North Pine street from West Orange in this city. The defense called the property witnesses were called by the plaintiff, who testified to the amount of damages which he is alleged to have sustained. On trial.

In the case of John Harnish, for the use of Michael Harnish, vs. the city and county of Lancaster. This is an issue to ascertain the amount of damages sustained by the plaintiffs by reason of extending North Pine street from West Orange in this city. The defense called the property witnesses were called by the plaintiff, who testified to the amount of damages which he is alleged to have sustained. On trial.

James Bryson vs. John W. Mentzer. This was an action to recover on a promissory note of $600, signed by Thomas J. Davis and endorsed by John W. Mentzer, dated March 30, 1878, for 60 days. The full value of the note was advanced to Davis by plaintiff. The note and protest were offered in evidence. The defense claimed that at this time Davis was counsel for Bryson, who was executor of the estate of John B. Atzger, deceased. Davis claimed that by arrangement he was given $1,000 on a note of $650, endorsed by J. W. Mentzer, and a note for $450, endorsed by Wm. S. Shirk. It was understood that these notes were to be paid from bills coming to Davis from the Atzger estate. When the first account was presented Davis's fees were $950, but were cut down to $600 by the auditor. After the note had gone to protest Mentzer met Bryson who told him that his note or a portion of it would be paid out of the fees. About a year later he again met him when he said that none of the fees would go toward the payment of the note, as he had loaned Davis the money since then. Davis admitted his signature to the bill given to Bryson. Mentzer said that he endorsed the note believing that Davis had money coming to him from the estate. When the $600 had been paid out of the estate. The $600 was given to Davis as a loan on a note endorsed by Mentzer; he denied having told Mentzer that the note would be paid out of the estate, as besides the $600 he had lent Davis $720. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1,734.00.

Accident. This morning one of the by-rials connected with a spring rail from the Pennsylvania railroad near Dillsville, was accidentally broken, compelling trains to be run over for another track and detaining several of them for half an hour.

Horse Hunt. A horse belonging to Abraham Hoover, of Manheim township, ran off on North Pine street this morning, and falling in front of Russel's warehouse, near Frederick street, cut and bruised itself very badly.

Financial, Commercial and Manufacturers. Two hundred thousand dollars of capital stock has already been subscribed for the new bank in this city. No persons being given over ten shares, and $80,000 offered had to be declined. A charter will be applied for on Monday. The bank will be located on North Queen street. The stockholders will hold a meeting on Monday next, Feb. 6th, at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing and making necessary arrangements.

Business Notices. Mr. Frank Sener has returned from his trip to his home at Hagerstown, Md. He looks well and expresses his delight at the good time he had. This hall has recently been improved and is now one of the handsomest in the city. The walls have been covered with a very pretty paper and the wood work repainted, and it presents a fine appearance. The room is one of the largest in town.
