A Good Man Gone.

The late Lemuel F. Dellet started in life as a newsboy, was very successful as a collector, was clerk for several years in the drug store of the late Dr. McCorkley, and has assisted in several of the other drug stores in Columbia. He was the nace, and from there went on the railroad. leader in charitable movements for the relief of the sick, the unfortunate, the poor and the orphan. His own means were limited, but he has purchased hundreds of tons of coal and many wagon loads of groceries and provisions for the poor, by loaded cars until they reached Dillerville, dime and quarter subscriptions. He where, owing to the stiff grade and heavy has spent days, weeks, months and years | track, they were compelled to stop.
