Tobacco Market.

Seed Leaf and Havana for the Week Ending Saturday, Feb. 4.

The week's transactions aggregate about 1,000 cases. No sale of any magnitude is reported. In cigar manufacturing circles it has suddenly become quieter than any one anticipated. In consequence, no purchase of leaf are being made by any of the large manufacturers. Besides this, the serviceable balance of the '80 Pennsylvania on hand, which is held at very high figures, is yielding so little in wrappers, that but actual and pressing necessity will induce manufacturers to buy it. The cessation of work in factories certainly is depressing on the market, but there exists no reason why the past years' great activity should not be repeated this year.

The sales for the week were confined to about 450 cases of '80 Pennsylvania at from 14 to 18 cents; 225 cases of '80 Connecticut wrappers, at 37½ to 40 cents; and some 400 cases of '80 Ohio at 6½ to 11 cents.

Havana—An exceedingly active business was done. The depressing influence of the auction sales is rapidly wearing away, and straight, fine goods are greatly in demand. Sales number 1,300 bales.

Gans's Report.

Sales of seed leaf tobacco reported by J. S. Gans's Son & Co., tobacco brokers, No. 131 Water street, New York, for the week ending Feb. 6, 1882:

150 cases 1880 New England, wrappers, 15 to 45. 400 cases 1880 Pennsylvania, 11 to 31. 354 cases 1880 Ohio, 4 to 6½. 150 cases 1880 state, p. t. 200 cases Wisconsin—seed leaf and Havana—3½ to 11. Total, 1,254 cases.

Skill in the Workshop.

To do good work the mechanic must have good health. If long hours of confinement in close rooms have enfeebled his hand or dimmed his sight, let him at once, and before some organic trouble appears, take plenty of Hop Bitters. His system will be rejuvenated, his nerves strengthened, his sight become clear, and the whole constitution be built up to a higher working condition.

An Entire Success.

It has been proved by the most reliable testimony that Thomas' Eclectric Oil is an entire success in curing the most inveterate cases of rheumatism, neuralgia, lame back, and wounds of every description. For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Incredible.

F. A. Scratch, druggist, Ruthven, Ont. writes: "I have the greatest confidence in your Burdock Blood Bitters. In one case with which I am personally acquainted their success was almost incredible. One lady told me that half a bottle did her more good than hundreds of dollars' worth of medicine she had previously taken." Price $1. For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen St., Lancaster.

Second Edition of Job.

Mrs. Ogden, N. Division street, Buffalo, says: "I cannot be too thankful that I was induced to try your Spring Blossom. I was at one time afraid I should never be able to get out again. I seemed to be a second edition of Job without his patience: my face and body were one vast collection of boils and pimples: since taking one bottle of your Spring Blossom I am quite cured, all eruptions have disappeared, and I feel better than I have in a long time." Price 50 cents. For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.

WEAK AND NERVOUS CONSTITUTIONS.

In saying that we know a Positive Cure for Sick Headache, Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Paralysis, Sleeplessness and Dyspepsia, we refer, of course, to Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills, which are all they are recommended to be, and will cure the above named diseases without any doubt, as they have permanently cured thousands.

The greatest discovery and the best remedy now extant is found in these pills. The properties of Celery and Chamomile are peculiarly adapted to cure headache, and it remained for Dr. Benson to formulate and compound the properties so as to make them available. The Herald says: Dr. Benson is recognized as one of the most eminent and successful physicians in Baltimore, and his reputation is of itself a sufficient guarantee of the value of his medicines.

These Pills are prepared expressly to cure headaches, neuralgia, nervousness and dyspepsia, and will cure any case, no matter how obstinate it may be, of either sick, nervous or dyspeptic headache, neuralgia, nervousness or sleeplessness.

IMPAIRMENT OF HEARING IN YOUNG Persons and Children.—Again and again does DR. LONGAKER find that he is obliged to correct the false ideas of parents and teachers, who believe that children do not always prefer to hear, if they can. Malingering as to deafness is a deception, which children rarely understand. Ear, Eye and Throat Diseases treated by H. D. LONGAKER, M. D.

REIGART'S OLD WINE STORE.

Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has exclusively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those afflicted with Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims.

With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than Brandy.

The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A Sovereign Remedy

for all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is

REIGART'S OLD BRANDY,

Sold by our enterprising young friend, H. E. SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies, no matter with how many brag-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case of ases. In proof of the curative powers of

Reigart's Old Brandy,

In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we cite:—

A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—no appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try in his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A PRACTISING PHYSICIAN.
