Lancaster Entelligencer.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEB. 8, 1882.

Affairs Down at Intercourse.

Although last Saturday was a very disagreeable day a large concourse of people turned out to pay their respects to all that was earthly to Mr. Noah Campbell. He was in his 23d years, and leaves a young wife and child to mourn for a kind husband and father, stricken down in the prime of life. The new firm of Hess & Diller, merchants, are obliging young men, and are doing a large business that is still increas-

Messrs. Diller & Rutter are packing tobacco with a full force of men giving employment to quite a number of hands. They pack the best goods that can be

John Kilburn, one of our tobacco packers, (whose authority is undoubted) tells of a large bullfrog that has made his home at a deep spring, near Paradise, for the past ten years. When sitting out he covers a space of ground larger than a half bushel measure. The noise made by the critter in the summer evenings is deaf ening. We shall endeavor to capture him next summer for Geo. II. Miller, the celebrated caterer.

Gap News.

W. P. Linville sold a small lot in the western part of this place to the P. R. R. company for $500 last week. Mr. Alfred Santord has returned home from Virginia after a visit of three weeks. Typhoid fever is prevailing among the citizens of the White Horse. Last week another of Mrs. Elizabeth Wanner's children died and two others are now down with the same fever. Quite a deep snow fell od Saturday last and sieighing is splendid.

York Items.

Last week Dr. Shenck, of Brooklyn, lectured in the Collegiate Institute on the subject "Peaceful invasion of America." He is a good lecturer, as was evident by his discourse, and he brought forth rounds of applause by his witty yet wise sayings. He particularly dwelt on the "Invasion of idea."

The rumor has gone abroad that smallpox is raging in our little town, but there is no truth in it. There has been only one case and that died several weeks ago. Measles, however, are raging and appear to go hard with the unfortunate victims who happens to come across them.

The Leidig case, which has been pending in court for two weeks, was settled last Friday in favor of plaintiff. It appears Mrs. Leidig sued the New Era life nsurance company for the recovery of $3,000 due her at her husband's death. The company refusing to pay her because it was thought there was foul play it brought on the suit which ended with the above result.

A series of temperance meetings will begin here next week. Rev. Babcock, the representative of the National Temperance society, will conduct the service in person. Indeed something of this kind is very much needed.

ost a Disastrous Configeration

beautiful stone residence of Dr. Frank P Housekeeper, of Coatesville, Chester county, Pa., made a narrow escape from complete destruction by fire. The doctor returned home about 11 o'clock at night and going to the sitting room before retiring he smelt the odor of burnt wood. In this room was placed an open fire grate of the latest improved pattern. He went to the cellar and could discover nothing wrong with the massive heater which supplies the house. He ascended again to the sitting room only to find it tilled with smoke and the flames issuing from be-neath the grate. But for the bath tub being on the same floor and his quickly arousing the neighbors with the electric bells of his house, it would have been impossible to have controlled it and all worked vigorously for three hours. The cause of the fire was due to the carpenters running the wood work too close to the grate. Philadelphia parties are now engaged in making the repairs and the house is fully insured in the Chester County Mutual.

Skill in the Workshop.

To do good work the mechanic must have good health. If long hours of confinement in close rooms have enfeebled his hand or dim med his sight, let him at once, and before some organic trouble appears, take plenty of Hop litters. His system will be rejuvenated, his nerves strengthened, his sight become clear, and the whole constitution be built up to a higher working condition.

Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those atflicted with Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims, With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than Brandy.

A Sovereign Remedy or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is REIGART'S OLD BRANDY, Sold by our enterprising young friend, if E. SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspensia specifics would suffice to

Reigart's Old Brandy,
In his case, he looked up with astonishment but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which helchose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little coestionally, and store he has this media. mills of total assessed valuation.
