MYERS & RATHFON,

THE TOBACCO MARKET.

SEED LEAF AND HAVANA.

For the Week Ending Saturday, February 11

C. S. Tobacco Journal. An improvement was noticeable in our market this week. Large manufacturers, however, still complain of the absence of orders of magnitude, and consequently they are not inclined to make investments in leaf. They all complain bitterly of the yield of the '80 Pennsylvania. While this tobacco is of most excellent quality, the tenderness and indifferent colors have made it a most expensive article to the done by them last year was thought to have been accompanied by corresponding profit, but the poor yield of the wrappers of the crop in question increased so greatly the cost of cigars, that in many cases the boasted profits proved unreal. It is one of the mysteries of the cigar manufacturing business that the manufacturer hardly ever knows the cost of his goods till the end of the year, when he figures up his profits and losses, and takes an accounting of his stock of leaf. Holders of the balance of the '80 Pennsylvania can be but indifferent to the feeling against this stock entertained by manufacturers. The time when the 'SI Pennsylvania can be of service is too far off to make the crop a competitor with the old one, and with the revival of activity among manufacturers the remnants of the '80 Pennsylvania will find buyers, reluctant though they may be to take it. Of the '80 Connecticut no large stock is left in our market, and gradually it is moving This stock, magnificent in looks and in quality, is and, it seems, always will be, the favorite of the the medium and small class of manufacturers. The cause of this is found in the un reliability of the '80 Connecticut in baraing. One case may be faultless in burn class of manufacturers, who select case by case, invest in the '80 Connecticut. The '80 New York Big Flats is as urpopular as ever. With the exception of ternal treatment. one packing of several hundred cases, held by the Lachenbruebs, of Water street, and which is an exception to the rule, this stock is a first-class fraud. By clumsy trickery and the aid of tlunkey brokers, one house in the city holding very large quantities have tried time and again to make it appear as if they were selling this stock in large lots to jobbing houses and manufacturers, and that the balance was something the manufacturers should rush for at once, or lose a fine chance forever The facts are that those who bought of returned it, or as much of it as they possibly could. Owing to its unreliability of burning and nastiness of color and flavor. it is what is commonly called "a sticker. The people who, under the guise of as sumed respectability, resort to low commercial jugglery to foist a valueless, not to say dangerous, article upon ansuspecting manufacturers and jobbers, and there by probably cause their rain, are no better proves quite unreliable as regards burning.

This is the main reason why that a certain

The sales of the week ran as follows: Pennsylvania—Crop '80; 1,500 cases tow, 121 to 15 cents; medium, 17 to 15 cents. Connecticut—Crop '80: 264 cases mostly wrappers, 32 to 45 cents.

Market very active. Choice goods, of which there is but a limited quantity in the market, find eager buyers, especially among Western jobbers and manufacturers. In the city the late auction sales have somewhat filled up a certain class of manufacturers and jobbers, but the great reduction in the stock of time goods the market has experienced by the destructive fire counterbalances this, and importer holding serviceable stock are very tirm in prices, expecting a not inconsiderable risc in values before long.

REIGART'S OLD WINE STORE.

Brandy as a Medicine. The following article was voluntarily sent to

Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reight's Obi-Wine Store, by a prominent practising physi-cian of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those at-

Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE. This now much alosed Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the care of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of viction.

With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable dis-ease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than

Brandy. The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A Sovereign Remedy or all their flis and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and but one article, and that is REIGART'S OLD BRANDY.

Sold by our enterprising young friend, if it SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never falled, as has as our experience extends, and we therefore as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preterence over all other Branch in no matter with how many jaw-breaking Franch titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifies would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such cast of ares. In proof of the curative powers of Reigart's Old Brandy, in cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon unto bers of witnesses—one case in particular we A hard-working farmer had been attited with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour cructations constantly—no appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Ecer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed carrestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try Reigart's Old Brandy, In his case, he looked up with astonishment but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily: the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything wide! netchose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a like the occasionally; and since he has this medi-cine he has been of very little pecuniary bene-fit to the doctor.—A Practists of Physician.
