His Poem on the Charge of the Heavy Brigade-Balaklava, Oct. 25, 1854. [The three hundred of the Heavy Brigade who made this famous charge at Balaklava, October 25, 1864, were the Scotts Greys and the second squadron of the Inniskillings, the remainder of the Heavy Brigade subsequently dashing up to their support. The three were Elliott, Scarlett's aid-de-camp, who had been riding by his side, and the trumpeter, and Shegog, the orderly, who had been close behind him.]

The charge of the gallant three hundred, The Heavy Brigade.

Russians Thousands of horsemen drew to the valley-And stayed

For Scarlett and Scarlett's three hundred were riding by, When the points of the Russian lauces

Broke in on the sky: And he called "Left wheel into line," and They wheeled and obeyed.

Then he looked at the host that had halted. He knew not why.

"To the charge!" And he rode on ahead, as he waved his blade To the gallant three hundred, whose glory will never die. "Follow, and up the hill." Up the hill, up the hill, tollowed the Heavy height. With a wing pushed out to the left, and wing to the right:

up alone Through the great gray slope of men : And he whirled his sabre, he held his own. Like an Englishman there and then

Four amid thousands; and up the hill, up the Galloped the gallant three hundred the Heavy

Burst like a thunder-bolt. Crushod like a hurricane, Broke through the mass, from below Drove through the midst of the foc. Plunged up and down to and fro. Rode flashing blow upon blow. Brave Inniskillings and Greys, Whirling the sabres in circles of light And some of us all in a maze, Who were held for awhite from the fight And were only standing at gaze. When the dark muffled Lussian crowd Folded its wings from the left and the right And rolled them around like a cloud-

When our own good red coats sank from s ght

Like drops of blood in a dark-gray sea : And we turned to each other muttering all dismayed

" Lost all the gallant three hundred, the heavy But they rode like victors and lords,

Through the forests of lances and swords In the heart of the Russian hordes They rade or they stood at bay; Struck with the sword-hand and slew Down with the bridle-hand drew The for from the saddle, and threw Under foot there in the fray : Ranged like a storm or stood like a rock In the wave of a stormy day : Tili suddenly, shock upon shock, Staggered the mass from without For our men galloped up with a cheer and a shout. And the Russians surged and wavered and reclu 1. Up the bill, up the hill, up the hill, out of the ot 50 cents. Examinations and consultation

Over the brow and away. Glory to each and to all, and the charge that they made : Glory to all the three hundred, the Heavy Brigade.

CHARGE OF THE LIGHT BRIGADE.

Half a lengue, half a lengue Half a league, onward, All in the valley of Death Rode the six hundred, " FORWARD, THE LIGHT BEIGADE CHARGE FOR THE GUNS!" he sald into the valley of Death Rode the six hundred.

" FORWARD, THE LIGHT BRIGADE Was there a man dismayed! Not though the soldier knew Some one had blundered Theirs not to make reply Theirs not to reason why Theirs but to do and die .into the valley of Death

Cannon to right of them. Cannon to left of them. Cannon in front of them Voileyed and thundered; Stormed at with shot and shell. Boldly they rode and well; Into the jaws of Death.

Flashed all their sabers bare. Flashed as they turned in air. Sabering the gunners there. Charging an army, while All the world wondered: Plunged in the battery-smoke. Cossack and Russian Reeled from the saber-stoke, Shattered and sundered :-Then they rode back-but not,

Cannon to right of them, Cannon to left of them, Cannon behind them Volleyed and thundered Stormed at with shot and shell, While horse and hero fell, That they had fought so well Came through the jaws of Death. Back from the mouth of Hell

Not the six hundred.

When can their glory fade? Oh, the wild charge they made ! All the world wondered, Honor the charge they made! Honor the Light Brigade,

Polycovica Old Brandy

Reigart's Old Brandy, In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon num bers of witnesses—one case in particular we A hard-working farmer had been afficted with an exhaustive byspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—no appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed carnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try Reigart's Old Brandy, In his case, he looked up with astonishment but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to cat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician.
