A House of Refuge Case.

Henry Border, aged about sixteen years, was arrested by Officer Harman and taken ticket agent of the Pennsylvania railroad before Judges Livingston and Patterson company was fishing in the Conestoga, yesterday afternoon on complaint of his when he made a misstep and fell, breaking mother, Mary Howert, and his step father his left wrist. Dr. George R. Welchans Henry Howert, with a view of having him attended him. sent to the house of refuge. The parents testified that he was incorrigible, and utterly beyond their control; that he could not be kept either at work or at school; that he was dishonest and asso- from pink-eye. ciated with disreputable characters. E. E. Snyder, foreman in No. 2 cotton mill, where the boy worked for some time at intervals, corroborated the parents' testi- 10 o'clock for the transaction of current mony as to his general bad character and unreliability, and Officer Harman testified that he had on two or three former occasions arrested him on complaint of his mother, but that he was discharged on promising better behavior. The boy's consignment to the house of refuge was resisted by some of his dead father's relatives, who claimed that much of the misconduct of the boy was attributable to cruel treatment inflicted by his step-father. The boy was put upon the stand and testified that his stepfather punished him brutally for the most trivial offenses, whipped him till he was black and blue all over and kept him in "the stocks" until he was almost dead. J. B. Amwake, esq., counsel for the boy, asked that the court appoint a guardian for him and have him indentured to some useful trade. The court remanded the boy to prison until Saturday to give his friends an opportunity of securing him suitable employment if any proper person consents to take him as an indentured apprentice.

Councilman Barr Caned.

After the routine business of last night's meeting of the street committee had been transacted Chairman McMullen requested Select Councilman Philip Zecher, of the Ninth ward, to take the chair. Mr. Mc-Mullen then addressed his colleagues, di recting his remarks chiefly to Select Councilman Adam R. Barr, of the Third warl, who, he said, had been indefatigable in his attention to his duty as a councilman and as a member of the street committee, of the lamp committee and in other arduous services. Mr. Barr, he said, would accompany his contemporaries of the committee to the shades of private life on the imaggiration of the new administration, Mr. Zecher, alone of the the committee, surviving the changes soon to be effected; and therefore, as the hour of dissolution drew nigh, he desired to signify by some token the high appreciation in which Mr. Barr's valuable services are held. Thereupon Mr. McMullen drew from its concealment a handsome and substantial cane, which he handed to the astonished member from the Third, who, as he himself put it, was too full for utterance at the unexpected compliment, but just the same he retained sufficient presence of mind to invite the committee up to Lotz's, where he entertained them in fine style.

A SUCCESSFUL FACE.

Names of the Winners of Prizes. On Wednesday evening the General Reynolds cornet band, of Conestoga Centre, closed a very successful fair, held by them, during the week and a half preat auction on the last evening. The net proceeds were about $325, which will put the band out of debt and leave a handsome mortising machine.

Benjamin Wissler and Jacob B. Rinier. were contesting for the gun; Christian Hess and Martin Warfel for the watch ; F. H. Flinchbaugh and Martin Cramer for the lounge; Anna Good and Kate Agen for the bedroom set; and John Hiller and Columbus Stevenson for the mortising machine. The first named persons in each contest as above name! were the lucky ones.

Railroad Accident. Littiz Record

As Mr. David Hollinger and wife, residing at Pine Hill, Warwick township, were crossing the railroad track at the depot of this place on Saturday worning on their way to the Loneaster market in Hollinger out, cutting a large gash in her forehead above the eye and injuring her otherwise. It is evident from what those who witnessed the accident say, that it was due more to the negligence of the em ployees of the road, as cars standing on the siding rendered Mr. and Mrs. Hollinger unable to see the approaching train, and neither the bell nor whistle gave notice of the approach of the train. Mr. Hollinger will demand an equivalent for the damages he sustained from the conpany, but desires to enter into no litiga-

"Une Handrea Wives." The second production of this play at

Fulton opera house was witnessed by an audience of fair numbers last evening. The perfermance was in every way equal to the former excellent rendi tion, and gave very general satisfaction judging from the applause it received. Mr. DeWolfe Hopper and Miss Helen Gardner were the central figures and prime favorites from the start. "One Hundred Wives" is a pure play, strong in dramatic quality, with of course some crudities that time and judicious pruning will eradicate, and there is more truth than poetry in its graphic portrayal of the giaring hypocrisy and shameless abominations that are such leading characteristis of the Mormon Slight Fire. This morning a fire, which might have been a great deal more serious, occurred in the room of Mr. A. A. Reilly, manager of the Rapid telegraph company at 'Mrs. Kauffman's boarding house, No. 135 North Queen street. It appears that the chambermaid had just started a fresh fire, and a clothes horse full of clothing was placed near the stove. When the fire came up the clothing caught, and all were burned together with about six feet square of carpet. The woodwork of the room was also badly scorched. The fire was extinguished by Mrs. Reilly assisted by the people of the house.

A Pleasant Surprise. Last evening about fifteen pupils of the first class of Miss Lizzie Carpenter's school, called at her residence, North Duke street, to pay her their respects. The girls took with them many delicacies and during the evening an elegant collation was set out. Vocal and instrumental music and spicy conversation on school girl topics formed a delightful programme for the evening entertainment. Miss Carpenter was taken completely by surprise, and was highly gratified with the visit paid her by the class.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

J. B. MARTIN & CO., Gent's Furnishing Goods Department.

Sole Agents for the Celebrated PEARL SHIRT. Some points of merit claimed for the PEARL SHIRTS. 1. The Material. They are made of the best Wamsutta muslin. 2. The Bosoms, The bosoms are three-ply, all linen, and not simply linen sewed on the muslin front of the snirt, as in the case of some other makes, making them of less service and cheaper. We claim for the PEARL SHIRT that it has the best constructed besom, is easily laundried and will not break. 3. The Fit, They are guaranteed to fit and give perfect satisfaction in every way, and can be returned if not satisfactory. For odd sizes we take special measures. 4. The Lining, The shirt is lined across the front, making them still more durable. 9. The Workmanship, They are carefully made by skillful workmen, and each one is fully inspected before leaving the factory. The Price, The PEARL SHIRT is sold at $1 for the gent's sizes and $5c. for boys', which taking the material, workmanship, &c., into account, makes it the best shirt for the price account, makes it the best shirt for the price in the market.

Remember, we have the sole agency for them, and they are patented. Beware of imi-tations. We have always in stock WHITE SHIRTS of cheaper grades, and Calico, Per-cales and Colored Shirts.

The bullet was found in the ground in the station yard this morning. It bears marks of having first struck some other substance. It was right in line of the queen's carriage and appears to have assed over the herses' heads. Before the carriage started MacLean was noticed fumbling in his pocket, but the throng was so great he was unable to draw his weapon until the vehicle got under way. The same reason made his aim unsteady. After shooting and before being seized, MacLean had brought another loaded chamber before the hammer of his revolver. He had attempted previously to force his way through the crowd to a better position where he might have shot with more disastrous effect. His antecedents show that he is eccentric and
