COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE

The sixth anniversary of the Cookman chapel Sunday school was celebrated in an excellent manner yesterday afternoon. Long before "school time" had arrived the room was filled to overflowing with the friends and scholars of the school, to listen to the exercises that were to follow, which consisted mainly of music, addresses and reading of the reports of the officers—secretary, treasurer and librarian. By their report the school was found to be in a flourishing condition, both in a financial state and a great increase in numbers. In one of the addresses, a remark was made that "if the school increased in numbers as it has done the past year, there will be no place to accommodate them." After the programme had been carried out the following officers were elected:

Superintendent, S. C. May; assistants, 1st, J. W. F. Nowlen, 2d, G. W. Paulus; Secretary, H. B. Dean: assistant, J. R. Henry; treasurer, W. K. Nowlen; librarian T. J. Wright; assistants, J. E. Graybill, G. W. Stevenson, Harry Bonson, Frank McCauley and Chas. Sourbeer; chorister, C. W. Stevenson; organist, Mrs. T. J. Wright.

A Saturday Night "Party."

The party at Klugh's hotel on Saturday evening was a success, so far as drunken rowdies and fights were concerned. Columbia was represented by only four persons; it had been expected that some thirty odd would be present. The dance ended in a fight. The young men from this place, who are respectable, thought it would be a fine affair, but were greatly disappointed. About 11 o'clock some of the Rohrerstown boys, who were pretty full of liquor, got to meddling with other people's business. They tried it on one of our boys, who politely told him to attend to his own affairs. This seemed to settle the matter, until the sitting room was reached, when it was again started. Two Columbia boys with backs to the wall kept a crowd of fifteen or twenty men from them until their strength was gone, and then the customary word "enough" was sung out. This ended the matter, but our town boys were made heroes afterwards by their bravery and daring. The fight was caused by a waltz quadrille being danced by four Columbia boys.

Night Made Hideous.

From three o'clock until eleven o'clock Union street, from Third to Fifth, was made hideous by the number of drunken rows that were fought. It is a shame that no arrests were made, but if they had been tramps what a haul our brave officers would have made. The scene was simply disgusting and dangerous in the extreme, neighbors living in the vicinity being afraid to go out on account of the flying stones.

The Borough Budget.

The weather all day yesterday threatening, but happily very little rain fell

Saturday was one of the dullest days our merchants have experienced for over a year.

A large number of citizens will change their residence between this and the first of next month.

A slight fire occurred on Front street yesterday morning and caused considerable excitement, but before a general alarm could be spread it was put out with buckets of water.

Considerable fun was raised at the P. R. R. depot yesterday morning by a race between a man and the passenger train. The man had placed a baby in the car and got off the train to get a forgotten bundle. The train in the meantime started, but the man ran after it, calling for "my baby! my baby!" The train stopped and everything was made lovely.

The members of the African Baptist church, on South Fifth street, appeal to the public for aid. They have remodeled their church and owe $100 on that account They ask contributions of 10, 15 or 25 cents, and state that they will be very thankful for small favors. The congregation are in prosperity, but they require a little of the needful to pay off their church debt. Help them. Rev. Geo. Jones is the pastor.

Yesterday Officer Keech arrested a man who was supposed to be insane, but most likely was just getting over a spell of the delirium tremens, on complaint of Isaac Welsh, for using indecent language to his family. He was taken before 'Squire Young this morning, who sent him to jail for ten days, also sending order to have him examined. During the hearing the man got off some very funny things: If he had two revolvers and could shoot in a straight line he could clear Columbia, also that when he was three years old some persons had taken his soul from him and now he was persecuted everywhere he went. Keech also took two drunks down this morning.

A Large Funeral.

The funeral of Isaac S. Grabill, of West Earl township, who died on Thursday last from injuries received by falling through a hatchway a week or two previous, took place yesterday and was more largely attended than any other funeral that has taken place in the neighborhood for years. Revs. Eaby and Weaver, of the Mennonite church, conducted the religious services. The interment was made at Groff's Valley burying ground.

He comes under the auspices of Harry L. Hartmyer and Thomas Daily, to whom the local theatre-going public owe the recent successful production of "East Lynne" by Charlotte Thompson. Mr. Stafford will be supported by Miss Rosa Rand, whose beauties and talents have been seen and admired here before, and from the complimentary press notices which he company has received, there is every reason to anticipate a fin performance.

Quinine and Arsenic

Form the basis of many of the Ague remedies in the market, and are the last resort of Physicians and people who know no better medicine to employ, for this distressing complaint. RESCUED FROM DEATH

The following statement of William J Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. Soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was committed to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half collar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicine. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and today I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that everyone afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that consumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold in Lancaster at Cochran's Drug Store, 137 and 139 North Queen stre lyd28 lydeodTh&w2

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 6.—For the Middle Atlantic states, rain, followed by clearing colder weather, winds shifting to southwest and northwest, falling barometer.

RAILROAD MATTERS.

The Supreme Court Declare Reading's Deferred Bonds Legal.

PHILADELPHIA, March 6.—The Reading deferred bond matter was decided in the supreme court this morning, four judges confirming the action of the lower court sustaining the validity of the bonds, and three judges dissenting. The judges sustaing the validity of the bonds were Paxson, Sharswood, Trunkey and Green. The dissenting were Mercur, Sterrett and Gordon.

Last spring when the election of Gowen as president of the road came before the court for its opinion the justices in his favor were Sharswood, Trunkey and Sterrett, and those giving adverse opinions were Paxson, Green, Gordon and Mercur.

The opinion in the action decided to-day was written by Judge Paxson. He took the position that there were two objections raised against the bonds:

First—That they are usurious, and

Second—That they are a substitute for stock.

He differs from both these views, and then discusses at length the meaning of the term borrow, and says the company has a right to borrrow in this particular way. The opinion closes with allusions to the welfare of the company being inseparable from the prosperity of the state, and intimates that the court should not seek too far to find technical objections to their issue when the president, directors and a large number of the stockholders have deemed their issue of benefit to the corporation.

The McCalmonts' counsel have not yet communicated with their clients, and it is not known what course they will take. The Reading officials have been ruled to make final answer to the suit on the same subject and in the United States court before the 20th inst.

The Claim for Taxes Against the Reading.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 6.—Franklin B. Gowen had an interview with Secretary Folger to-day in reference to the claim against the Reading railroad company for taxes on certificates issued by the company for wages to employees several years ago, and it is understood that he received assurance that no attempt will be made to collect the taxes claimed by the commissioner of internal revenue until the courts can pass upon the question whether these certificates come within the meaning of the law.

Differential Freight Rates.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The advisory commission, appointed to consider the question of differential freight rates, held its first session to-day for hearing of views of commercial bodies on adjustment of rates. A. E. Orr, on behalf of the produce exchange, presented the argument of that body for the abrogation of differential rates between the West and seaboard.

CONGRESS.

To-day's Proceedings in the National Legislature.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—In the House to-day consideration of the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill was concluded and the bill passed.

In the Senate Mr. Teller, from the committee, reported favorably the House bill to pension Mrs. Garfield, with an amendment including Mrs. Polk and Mrs. Tyler. The amounts specified are $5,000 a year from Sept. 19, 1881.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

A Government Officer Indicted for Levying Political Assessments on Employees.

NEW YORK, March 6.—It is reported that the United States grand jury have found an indictment against Gen. Nehemiah M. Curtis, special agent of the treasury, and that it will be presented in court to-morrow. It is said that the indictment contains 9 or 10 counts and charges Gen. Curtis with collecting assessments from government employees which were used for political purposes during the last presidential campaign.

Fined for Attending a Cock-Fight.

READING, Pa., March 6.—Considerable excitement prevails in sporting circles here to-day owing to the arrival of a special agent of the S. P. C. A. of Philadelphia, who has obtained the names of about one hundred and fifty citizens of Reading who recently attended a cock-fight near Reading. He proposes to lodge information against them all this afternoon. Several have already been arrested and fined $10 each and costs.
