The Murderer.

Shaw has lived at the house where this crime was committed about ten years. Previous to that he had lived at other places in the neighborhood; he at one time lived near Christiana and also was with his family in Virginia. According to the testimony of his neighbors, and children he has been a great source of trouble to his family, and treated his children, as well as wife at times in a shameful manner. He was in the habit of drinking and often got drunk and would at a time. For years he has done scarcely anything for the support of his family; his wife maintained them by hard work on their little farm, and her children, the eldest of whom have been hired out, assisted her to support the family. The man has been in frequent trouble and had some scrapes in court As we mentioned yesterday it has not been a year since he was in jail for drunken and disorderly conduct. He has for years been cross at his wife about the property. This place was purchased by the wife who inherited money; the deed was made in their names jointly, but five years ago he transferred his interest to her, and of late has wanted to get it back. He has frequently abused his children, at one

Yesterday morning Cyrus Harmon, aged about 45, died suddenly at the residence of Elias Aument, in Drumore township. The man is a tailor by trade, and formerly lived at Rawlinsville. For some time past he has been making his home with Mr. Aument. He has been addicted to the use of laudanum and opium for considerable time. Yesterday morning he came down stairs and complaining of feeling cold, he took a seat by the stove. He soon fell from the chair, and was carried up stairs to bed, where he died in a few minutes. Drs. Clark and Robrer made an examination of the body, and found that he came to his death from an overdose of opium. Henry M. Stauffer, of Chestnut Level, held an inguest and a verdict in accordance with the doctors' statements was rendered.

Yesterday evening after school was out and the children were coming down Locust street, a cow, driven by a young boy, began acting in a queer manner, and made remain away from home for days a rush for the pavement. Down the pavement she dashed, from Fifth to Fourth street, knocking the children right and left and tramping on some of them. At Front street she stopped and became as gentle as a lamb. Several of the children received bruises and scratches, and all were badly scared.

he Movement for an Alcoholic Commi WASHINGTON, March 8.-In the Senate the bill for a commission on the alcoholic liquor traffic came up to day, the question being on Bayard's motion to commit it to the finance committee. This motion was supported by Bayard, who said some pro-visions must be made to supply the place of the $50,000,000 which the treasury annually derives from the alcoholic traffic as well as the moral reformation supposed to be derived from the bill. Mr. Conger next addressed the Senate on the subject.

After discussion Bayard's motion was rejected—ayes 19, noes 26. The bill was then read, and pending a motion to amend so as to prevent the commission from being exclusively partisan the morning hour expired and the bill was laid aside.

The Chinese bill was then proceeded with and Mr. Platt spoke in opposition to Proceedings in the House.

By a vote of 111 to 86 the House agreed to take up the business on the speaker's table, the object being to reach the Senate anti-polygamy bill quickly.

Sole Agents for the Celebrated PEARL SHIRT. Some points of merit claimed for the PEARL SHIRTS. 1. The Material. They are made of the best Wamsutta muslin. 2. The Bosoms. The bosoms are three-ply, all lineu, and not simply linen sawed on the muslin front of the shirt, as in the case of some other makes, making them of less service and cheaper. We claim for the PEARL SHIRT that it has the best constructed besom, is easily laundried and will not break. 3. The Fil. They are guaranteed to fit and give perfect satisfaction in every way, and can be returned if not satisfactory. For odd sizes we take special measures. 4. The Lining. The shirt is lined across the front, making them still more durable. 2. The Workmanship. They are carefully made by skillful workmen, and each one is fully inspected before leaving the factory. The PFARL SHIRT is sold at $1 for the gents' sizes and $5c. for boys', which taking the material, workmanship, &c., into account, makes it the best shirt for the price in the market.
