cardinals, it is said, at the approaching giers, and the Patriarch of Vienna. "What is truth?" was the question which the whole world, not Pilate alone, was asking on the day when Christ was crucified. Pilate seems to have been divinely guided to answer his own question, when he cried, "Beheld the man !"-R. S. Howland.

The National Unitaurian conference, to be held in Liverpool, in April, will consider the following subjects: (I) the development of the religious life within the churches; (2) the practical means by which they can enlarge and extend religious influence : and (3) the position of the By putting an "r" in the wrong place

The Court, austerely: "Prisoner, how did you have the audacity to break into this man's house at midnight and rob bim?" The man asked him if he would marry the woman for $500; he consented and they went to the nearest justice, who performed the ceremony. He shows the $500 as proof, and the justice bears him out in the strange story. The mysterious bride and her companion rode away immediately after the marriage, and no more is known of them.

The Rev. Arthur Annicesced, of Utica, is a disciple of Wilde, and is pronounced by his lady parishioners a very zephyr of poetic piety. His preaching is very delicate. Last Sunday he read a portion of sacred writ detailing a rehearsal of Jonah's submarine adventures. "We come now to Jonah," said Arthur, "who passed day school at 1½ p. m. three days and three nights in the whale's -ahem-society."

The Salvation Army recently held a "demonstration" of reclaimed drunkards in City hall, Glasgow. The chairman said the army had 30,000 men and women in the United Kingdom who neither tasted, touched nor handled the cursed drink. Several captains, male and female, delivered addresses, relating their personal experiences, "three volleys," or cheers being occasionally fired.

If we would make the pulpit in this land strong and true, the preacher must be a free man, as Paul was free, and Luther was free, and as the citizen is free, and the men who follow medicine and law. The preachers who consent to be of the pattern churches prefer are not men, but things; not flesh and blood with a soul to make all things sure, but wax to be moulded and adorned to the liking of those who hear them. The man who is not what God made him from the surface to the centre has no business in the pulpit.

ST. JAMES,—HOLY COMMUNION AT 3 and morning service at 10% a. in. Evening prayer at 7% p. m. -Robert Collyer.

A gorgeous bridal chamber has just been completed for a rich Brooklyn girl. The walls are covered with white satin, tufted with gold buttons, and mirrors are interjected here and there. The ceiling is painted in the most artistic manner and the curtains are of white silk embroidered in gold and rich colorings in floral designs. The curtains are mounted on gilt poles, and when drawn back disclose lace drop curtains that cost $600 a window. The portieres are of white silk plush, with dado embroidery matching the curtains. The furniture is treated with the same material as the curtains, and what little of the framework is seen is found to be rich-

Certainly our lady readers will be interested to know something of the two damsels who have heads of hair of unpar alleled length and beauty. The first is Miss Ida Terry, of Chicopee Falls, Massachusetts, whose hair is said to trail for half a yard along the floor. But the Rochester Express claims that Miss Hattie A. Miller, of No. 174 North street, in that city, surpasses Miss Terry. Miss Miller is five feet, four inches in height, and in all respects prepossessing. She kindly consented to take down her hair in the presence of the newspaper man. It seemed to fairly encompass her as she stood erect, and allowed it to flow gracefully over her shoulders and along the floor. It has grown surprisingly even in length, and from the scalp to the end of the hair measures exactly six feet and six inches, thus allowing of a trail fourteen inches in length. Although such an abundant growth would naturally be supposed to give its wearer more or less inconvenience, yet Miss Miller states that she suffers headache from it nor is obliged to bestow unnecessary time in tailroads, banks and capitalists are the great moving and controlling power of the world now, and there is a road, a rough road, through which all that attain to prominence must pass and many fall in the fight. Thought, study, mental and brain work is the highway to eminence; and work, thought, worrying, plan-ning, calculating, all feed upon the brain and nervous system, and the results are Nervous Prostration, Heart Disease, Apoplexy, Par alysis, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Siceples lights, Sick and Nervous Headache, and sudden dropping out of the business ranks from overwork and nervousness in some o its forms. This is the natural consequence but if the nervous system is fed and supported in proportion to the waste and demands made upon it, these fearful results would not be heard of or known. The remedy is a simple, sensible one, Simply to feed the overworked, irritable nervous sys tem. And that can be done, and that is being done successfully every day in the year by the use of Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomfle Pills, a special preparation for Nervous Discase, Sick and Nervous Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Neuralgia and Dyspepsia.
