committee were Christian Bachman of Strasburg, and John R. Bitner of Lancaster. On Col. Peiper's death, the committee was reorganized, Mr. Bitner becoming chairman and Mr. Bachman retiring—the vacancies being supplied by the selection of John I. Hartman and Jacob Kready, who carried to speedy completion the unfinished work of their predecessors.

The board of directors of the bank is comprised of the following named gentlemen:

Christian B. Herr, Martin G. Landis, Jacob C. Kready, Jacob Bachman, Mr. Buckwalter, Chrn. R. Landis, Benjamin M. Stauffer, John K. Herr, Israel L. Landis, Benjamin Long, jr., Henry C. Lehman, Daniel Huber.

The officers of the bank are:

President—C. B. Herr.

Cashier.—F. H. Breneman.

Secretaries—Jacob Barker and Israel L. Landis.

Solicitor—Wm. Aug. Atlee.

Paying Teller—Walter A. Haldy.

Receiving Teller—Herbert W. Hartman.

Note and Discount Clerk—A. K. Howry.

Clerks—D. E. Bitner, general ledger; C. B. Lehman and M. S. Falck, individual ledger; H. H. Suesserott general clerk.

Messengers—Geo. W. Drepperd, Wm. Kautz.

When the doors of the bank were opened for business this morning, there was quite a rush of customers, and among them was the venerable Christian Newhauser, of Leacock, who is in the 87th year of his age, and who has been a patron of the bank ever since it was started in 1841. The old gentleman is sound in in body and mind and continues to transact his own business with as much judgment as a man in the prime of life.

Many other old familiar faces were among the callers, all of whom were received with warm welcome by the officers. But even amid the general congratulations there was a shade of sadness, for the cheery voice and whole-hearted welcome of Col. Peiper, the late cashier, were missing—he who had behaved so faithfully in the old building and who had done so much towards the erection of the new one, was suddenly called from earth, before witnessing the full and successful consummation of his plans.

COLUMBIA NEWS.

The Boat Club.

That the young men of Columbia will have a boat club this summer is a settled fact. A committee of young men met at the office of Dr. Ray last evening and decided to send out invitations to persons who are interested in the matter to meet at the Franklin house next Thursday evening, when and where an organization will be completed. If possible, three clubs will be raised, and out of the three a selection of seven of the best rowers will be selected to compose the crack club or the "match club." That is, this club will be the one who participates in rowing matches. We hope the idea will be fully carried out, and that those invited will respond.

New Books for the Library.

Another lot of new books have just been received by the library committee for their library. Following are their titles: The Making of England; English Men of Letters—Lamb; John Inglesant—a romance; Oratory and Orators: Hours with Men and Books; 2 vols. of Bret Harte's works; 4 vols. of Young Folks' History—by Zonge; Butterworth's Young Folks' History of America; 4 vols. of Short Studies on Great Subjects; Gold Elsie and By the Tiber—novels; The Fierers of the Leisure Hour Series; Life of John Quincy Adams; The Old Mam' Seller's Secret—novel, and 3 vols. by No Name.

The entertainment for the library cleared over $100, which will soon be expended by the purchase of new books.

A Wife Beater Sent to Jail.

A carpet weaver, living on Fifth street, by the name of Henry Wolfe, has for the past few months been maltreating his wife in a terrible manner. The neighbors attempted to stop it, but not succeeding, entered a complaint before Squire Grier, who placed Wolfe under bail for surety of the peace. This, instead of having the desired effect, only made him worse; in fact, he became ungovernable. Yesterday another complaint was entered before Squire Frank, who had the scoundrel arrested, and after hearing the evidence of the neigbors, sent Wolfe to jail for 20 days—not by any means long enough. Squire Frank acted in a commendable manner, but was too lenient with the prisoner.

Local Brevities.

A. J. Kauffman, esq., made a strong appeal before the board of pardons for Michael Redman and Jos. Wilson, sentenced for burglary, but it was of no avail.

The Citizens are again in trouble, not on account of financial affairs, but—what—no one can tell. There has been some growling for the few weeks past, what gave rise to it, we cannot tell, and doubt very much if the members of the band can. It should be stopped at once and unless they can practice and get along harmoniously they had better disorganize.

Miss Ida Boyd gave a very fine birthday party at her home on Cherry street last Tuesday evening. A large number of invited guests from York, Lancaster and Marietta, helped to make the evening very enjoyable. That the trouble they were put to to attend was fully repaid we judge from remarks made after the affair was over. A table which groaned under the heavy weight of luxuries was prepared, to which all did ample justice.

The Susquehanna is still rising, at present writing about one and a-half inches to the hour. The banks are overflowed and in another day rafting will be stopped until the water falls.

Matrimonial.

Francis Bender, the well-known house carpenter, was last evening united in marriage with Fanny Grosh. The knot was tied by Rev. Dr. Greenwald at the parsonage of Trinity Lutheran church, and this morning the happy couple started on a wedding tour to Philadelphia, New York and other cities.

DOERR CONTESTS BROWN

HIESTAND, EBERMAN AND OTHER POLITICAL PURISTS.

Undertake A Contest in the Interest of Honest Elections.

The following petition has been presented to the court:

To the honorable the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Lancaster county:

The petition and complaint of the undersigned qualified voters and electors of the First ward of the city of Lancaster, respectfully represents:

That at an election held on the Twenty-first day of February A. D. 1882, in the First ward of said city of Lancaster for member of select council for said ward, George. W. Brown was returned as having two hundred and fifty-eight votes and Henry Doerr as having received two hundred and fifty-three votes.

That the said George W. Brown was thereupon declared elected as member of select council for said ward, and a certificate of his election was given to him by the election officers of said ward.

Your petitioners further represent and complain, that the said election was undue, unfair and illegal in this, that thirty or more votes were deposited in favor of the said George W. Brown by persons who were not qualified electors of said ward and had no right to vote at said election, because the said votes were cast by persons whose names did not appear upon the registry of voters, and who did not produce at least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to their residence in the district for the period of two months immediately preceding said election, nor did any witness swear or affirm and subscribe a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit, as required by the act of Jan. 30th, A. D. 1874; nor did the said persons so voting take and subscribe a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit as required by said act; nor were any affidavits preserved by the election board and inclosed with the list of voters, tally-list and other papers required to be filed in the prothonotary's office of said county of Lancaster by the return judge; nor are they now on file in said office as required by law; and also because of divers other reason which your petitioners will be able to show; all of which your petitioners will be more fully able to show, the following list being a list of some of the persons who so illegally voted at said election:

Theodore Lemon, Edward Lemon, W. H. Packingham, Robert P. Jamison, Wm. Richardson, James Wilson, James Maher, Isaac McCutcheon, Richard Maher, H. W. Lutz, Charles Rhodes, Christian Boos, Charles Kautz, Peter Schoolte, Geo. Kuhlman, H. Applebach, Walter Rogers, Samuel Styer, Henry Aument, John See christ, William Peoples, W. F. Rosebury, David Winters, Isaac Mundorf, M. Biemesderfer, Aaron Baumgardner, and others to the number of fifty or more.

Your petitioners, therefore, complain of the return of the election of the said Geo. W. Brown, and respectfully pray that the same may be investigated according to law.

And they will ever pray, &c:

Lewis Walker, John E. Rathfon, D. D. Tripple. D. Bair, Jas. R. McNaughton, F. W. Weaver, Samuel M. Myers, Jno. A. Hiestand, C. F. Myers, C. W. Myers, C. E. Huber, J. B. Lebkicher, C. F. Eberman, John P. Martin, H. E. Martin, John G. Martin, William White, Jer. A. Snyder, Thomas Bakes, Samuel Hatz, J. C. Spaeth, Geo. Schlott, Frederick L. Frey, John H. Schrum, Wm T. Eberman.

LANCASTER CITY ss.

John A. Hiestand, H. E. Martin, William White, C. F. Myers and C. F. Eberman, five of the above petitioners, being duly affirmed say, that the facts set forth in the above petition are true to the best of their knowledge and belief; that the said election was undue and illegal, and the return thereof not correct, and that the above petition of contest is made in good faith.

[Signed] JOHN A. HIESTAND,
H. E. MARTIN,
WM. WHITE,
C. F. MYERS,
C. F. EBERMAN.

Affirmed and subscribed this 22d day of March, A. D. 1882, before me,

J. K. BARR,
Alderman.

Similar petitions setting forth that at the election held the day and date above given, James A. McElhone was unduly declared elected judge of election over C. C. Carman; and Theodore Trout was unduly declared elected inspector of election over Melvin H. Rathfon, have also been presented and filed in the office of the clerk of quarter sessions.

OBITUARY.

Death of Theodore F. Reed.

Theodore F. Reed, son of John K. Reed of the firm of Reed & Henderson, died at the residence of his father, No. 522 East King street, last night between 10 and 11 o'clock. Mr. Reed had been confined to the house for about two months. He had been in a very critical condition for some days past and his death was expected at almost any time. Mr. Reed was in the 34th year of his age at the time of his death. He was well known throughout this city, and for about 10 years was employed in the banking house of the firm of which his father is a member. From this he retired several years ago, when the census was taken in 1880, Mr Reed was one of the enumerators. He had many friends in this city, and was a popular young man.

In the Whole History of Medicine

No preparation has ever performed such marvelous cures, or maintained so wide a reputation, as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. Its long continued series of wonderful cures in all climates have made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ. Against ordinary colds, which are the forerunners of more serious disorders, it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering, and often saving life. The protection it affords, by its timely use in throat and chest-disorders, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it never will. From their knowledge of its composition and effects, physicians use the CHERRY PECTORAL extensively in their practice, and clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its remedial effects, and will always cure where cures are possible. For sale by all dealers. m17-1wdeod&w

Piles! Piles! Piles!

A sure cure found at last! No one need suffer! A sure cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. William (an Indian remedy), called Dr. William's Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 or 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, insruments and electuaries do more harm than good. Williams' Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching (particularly at night after getting warm in bed), acts as a poultice, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared only for Piles, itching of the private parts, and for nothing else. Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry, of Cleveland, says about Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment: I have used scores of Pile Cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. William's Indian Ointment.

RESCUED FROM DEATH

The following statement of William J Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half collar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicine. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and today I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that everyone afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that consumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold in Lancaster at Cochran's Drug Store, 137 and 139 North Queen stre tyr23-1ydeodTh&w2

FRIGHTFUL EXPLOSION.

THE BOILER OF A STEAM TUG BURSTS

Four Men Killed, Several Wounded, Property Demolished and General Havoc Created at the Walnut street Wharf, Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, March 23.—The tugboat Henry C. Pratt, lying at pier 8, at the foot of Walnut street, exploded her boiler at 4:35 this morning, killing four men. George Schully, the captain, was blown over the house tops into Water street; he was taken to the hospital where he died. The dead bodies of Bernard McCann and Patrick Flannagan, firemen of the Pratt, and a man named Maloney, have all been recovered. John Lyons, the engineer of the Pratt, is missing, and it is supposed that he has been drowned. Two other men are reported missing.

The Henry C. Pratt had arrived at the wharf to take out the canal boat, of which one of the victims, Maloney, was captain. When the explosion occurred her boiler was thrown across Delaware avenue, knocking the front out of the building No. 134 of that thoroughfare. Both boiler and wheel house fell on the pavement in front of this building. During the daytime Delaware avenue is thronged with people, and vehicles of all kinds, and had the explosion occurred a few hours later, the result would have been appalling. Immediately following the explosion flames broke out in all directions. Pier No. 8, which is occupied as the passenger and freight station of the Philadelphia & Atlantic City railway, took fire and was completely destroyed. The tug Ella, lying at the wharf below, also took fire and sank, after being well burned. Windows were shattered in all directions for squares distant, but the force of the explosion is better illustrated by the fact that the Pratt's anchor went flying through the air to Water and Walnut streets, where it became entangled and remained hanging among the telegraph wires.

RAILROAD HORROR.

Eight Lives Sacrificed on the Northern Pacific—A Laborers' Train Crushes Through a Bridge Near Mandan, D. T.

BISMARCK, D. T., March 23.—About nineteen miles west of Bismarck, at what is known as Soapstone Cut, Sweet Briar creek, and two miles east of Sweet Briar station, a snow plough, work and boarding train and a passenger train left Sweet Briar in the order above, going at about ten or fifteen miles an hour, when the engineer, hearing a jar, immediately reversed the steam, but before he had time to think, a terrible crash came, and eight human souls were landed in eternity. It seems that a wheel on the head truck of a flat car broke and the whole car jumped the track. The first sleeping car was immediately precipitated into the river, thirty feet below, striking on its side. This was followed by the second sleeping car, which careened over and finally assumed a position similar to that of the first. The dining car followed, crashing into both of the others. After this came the kitchen car, which remained upright against the dining car. The office and store car only partially left the track.

Four bents in the bridge were broken into splinters and their sleepers completely demolished. There were about fifty men on the train at the time of the accident, and the escape of even one seems miraculous after viewing the wreck.

In sleeper No. 1 there were twenty-four men, some of whom were lying in their bunks asleep, while others were smoking and reading and
