The morse Marget.

This morning Joe Sontheimer shipped 25 head of fine horses to New York, which weighed from 1,400 to 1,700 pound each. Mr. Sontheimer sold a very hand some pair of greys to the fire department. They weigh 2,900 pounds, and every one who has seen them say that they are Fiss and Doerr shipped to day to New York, 21 extra heavy draft and driving horses, purchased in Lancaster county.

New Railroad.

The purchasers of the franchises of the Hanover Junction & Susquehanna railroad company have sold their purchase, at a large profit, for $60,000 to a number of gentlemen identified with the Reading railroad interest. There will soon be built on this road bed and under the charter a new road from the R. & C., near Landisville to Chickies and Marietta, and the extensive manufacturers in that vicinity will probably be enabled to get their freights at something less than a tonuage rate of 25 cents per mile.

Beer Stolen,

A couple of thieves yesterday afternoon entered the vault of Reinfried's restaurant in the basement of the Northern market and stole therefrom a keg of beer, and carried it off in a bag. The men were seen to go down to the vault by the northern flight of steps, at the end of the basement opposite the restaurant, but they were supposed to be on business-and so

Testing the Fire Alarm.

This afternoon the boxes of the fire alarm telegraph were tested and by them the Empire bell was sounded. It was done to-day because the men who put up the alarm wanted to be here and they had to leave to-day. It was not known until this morning that the test would be made, and word was sent to the engine houses and no alarm was caused.

Dr. Lamson in Close Confinement, Sir William Harcourt, the British Home secretary, writes a letter refusing any further indulgence to Dr. Lamson, convicted of the murder of his brother-in law, in regard to visits. The doctor's wife visits him almost daily, but is unable to shake hands with him because of the dividing Poisoned.

"Dan" the fine coach dog that has been running for some time past with the Union Fire engine, was found dead in Brimmers livery stable yesterday, some heartless wretch having poisoned him. "Dan" was a trusty watchman and a wide-awake firesharp, and promptly responded to the first tap of the alarm bell.

Home Again.

Dr. J. S. Smith, dentist, of this city, has arrived home from Philadelphia, after attending a course of lectures at the Jefferson Medical college, and the special clinical lectures of MOUTH AND FACE DISEASES conducted by Professor Garretson. The doctor is now ready to attend to his practice as usual, and will be glad to see his friends and patrons at his residence, No. 48 North Dake street, at their con

Grand Opening.

As will be seen by the great announcemen n our columns to-day, the firm of Gottschalk Lederman will open their Great New York Bazaar, 26 and 28 North Queen street, to the public on Saturday next, March 25th, and we can assure our readers that they will witness such an extraordinary display of goods as was never before shown in this city. A great feature of the opening nights will be a present to every lady of a bottle of fine pertumery,filled from the beautiful silver cologne fountain which is placed in the centre of the Bazaar, and from which there is constantly flowing a continuous stream of the sweetest German Cologne, and the ladies are welcon to dip their handkerchiefs in the same. We advise all our readers to be present this Grand Opening and give the Great New York Bazaar a thorough inspection. A Handsome Souvenir will be given away to all the ladies present.

"Life, Growth, Beauty." "What we all admire" and how to secure it: A fine head of hair in its natural color is such an adjunct to beauty that no one who prizes good looks should neglect to use "London Hair Color Restorer," the most cleanly and delightful article ever introduced to the American people. It is totally different from all others-not sticky or gummy, and free from all impure ingredients that render many other preparations obnoxious. It thickens thin hair, restores gray hair, gives it new life, keeps the scalp clean and healthy, causing the hair to grow where it had fallen off or become thin, does not soil or stain anything, and is so perfeetly and elegantly prepared as to make it a lasting hair dressing and tollet luxury. "Lon-don Hair Restorer" is sold by all druggists, at 75 cents a bottle. Six bottles for $4.

Jere Wilson, on behalf of Gen. Brady, filed motions to quash the indictments against their clients. Counsel for Dorsey claimed that the finding of indictments of the grand jury had been irregular -that District Attorney Corkhill had drawn up the indictment without authoriy. In Brady's case counsel claimed that defendant at the time of the commission of acts charged was an officer of the government, and his acts were not the subjects of investigation by this court. Motions to quash the indictments against others were filed. After a protracted discussion as to whether or not counsel should argue their motions at once, an agreement was arranged to postpone further hearing as to Dorsey and Brady until Friday next. After the disposition of the so-called
