Lancaster Intelligencer,

MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 27, 1882.

THE DAY IS DONE.

The day is done, and the darkness
Falls from the wings of Night,
As a feather is wafted downward
From an eagle in his flight.

I see the lights of the village
Gleam through the rain and the mist,
And a feeling of sadness comes o'er me
That my soul cannot resist:

A feeling of sadness and longing,
That is not akin to pain,
And resembles sorrow only
As the mist resembles the rain.

Come, read to me some poem,
Some simple and heartfelt lay,
That shall soothe this restless feeling,
And banish the thoughts of day.

Not from the grand old masters,
Not from the bards sublime,
Whose distant footsteps echo
Through the corridors of Time.

For, like strains of martial music,
Their mighty thoughts suggest
Life's endless toil and endeavor;
And to-night I long for rest.

Read from some humbler poet,
Whose songs gushed from his heart,
As showers from the clouds of summer,
Or tears from the eyelids start:

Who, through long days of labor,
And nights devoid of ease,
Still heard in his soul the music
Of wonderful melodies.

Such songs have power to quiet
The restless pulse of care,
And come like the benediction
That follows after prayer.

Then read from the treasured volume
The poem of thy choice,
And lend to the rhyme of the poet
The beauty of thy voice.

And the night shall be filled with music,
And the cares, that infest the day,
Shall fold their tents, like the Arabs,
And as silently steal away.

THE TOBACCO MARKET.

SEED LEAF AND HAVANA.

For the Week Ending Saturday, March 25, 10 A. M.

United States Tobacco Journal.

There is an ominous silence in cigar manufacturing circles, and most of the great powers in that line are decidedly "blue." The still unsettled cigar tax question (that of manufactured tobacco being determined), the floods in the South and last, but not least, the fear of the abolishment of the tenement-house factories are things which are not apt to impart to cigar manufacturers a great desire to invest in leaf tobacco. Consequently, our market remains in a torpid condition, and only small parcels for immediate use change hands.

Unless the quietness in the market gives way to activity soon holders of old tobaccos, which are put under the head of "fine," will find difficulty in making profitable sales. The new crops are gradually maturing into that state in which their future worth can be determined with some certainty.

Pennsylvania and Wisconsin are now considered as the best of the '81 crops. Some of the New York state is exceedingly fine, while Connecticut is as yet of a very problematic nature. Ohio looks like its predecessor, fiery-and gummy. The sales of the week were as follows:

Pennsylvania—Crop '80: 500 cases; fillers, 6½ to 7½ cents; low running, 12 to 14 cents; medium, 18 to 20 cents; fine running, 22 to 24 cents. (Only 100 cases of fine were sold.)

Connecticut—Crop '80: 380 cases, mostly, 32 to 45 cents.

New York State—Crop '80; 300 cases (100 to a jobbing firm, 200 a manufacturer); price reported to be 13 cents.

Ohio—Crop 80: 600 cases, partly for export, 4½ to 9½.

Havana—Market continues active in all fine grades. Sales, 900 bales. Prices high and firm.

Gans's Report.

Sales of seed leaf tobacco reported by J. S. Gans's Son & Co., tobacco brokers, No. 131 Water street, New York, for the week ending March 27, 1882.

900 cases 1880 Ohio—fillers, 4½ to 4½, assorted, 6 to 6½, wrappers, 9½ to 14. 600 cases 1880 Pennsylvania—fillers, 6 to 6½, assorted, 10 to 17. 450 cases 1880 New England seconds 12 to 12, wrappers, 15 to 35. 180 cases 1880 State, 4½ to 15. 100 cases sundries, 4 to 18. Total 2,220 cases.

A good Baptist clergyman of Bergen, N. Y., a strong temperance man, suffered with kidney trouble, neuralgia, and dizziness almost to blindness, over two years after he was told that Hop Bitters would cure him, because he was afraid of and prejudiced against "Bitters." Since his cure he says none need fear but trust in Hop Bitters. m13-2wd&w

Second Edition of Job.

Mrs. Ogden, N. Division street, Buffalo, says "I cannot be too thankful that I was induced to try your Spring Blossom. I was at one time afraid I should never be able to get out again. I seemed to be a second edition of Job without his patience: my face and body were one vast collection of boils and pimples; since taking one bottle of your Spring Blossom I am quite cured, all eruptions have disappeared, and I feel better than I have in a long time." Price 50 cents. For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.

An Entire Success.

It has been proved by the most reliable testimony that Thomas' Eclectric Oil is an entire success in curing the most inveterate cases of rheumatism, neuralgia, lame back and wounds of every description. For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street Lancaster.

The Law of Kindness

Is universal; it affects all the human family, all animals, and may be even found in patent medicines. Some are drastic, and the patient is obliged to suffer pains worse than the disease; but in cases of obstinate costiptation, dyspepsia, there is no remedy so kind, so gentle in its effects, and yet so satisfactory as Burdock Blood Bitters. Price $1. For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen St., Lancaster.

Other physicians, to the number of over five hundred, endorse them in equally strong terms. Every one is now talking of the wonderful cures effected since they have been placed before the public.

REIGART'S OLD WINE STORE.

Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those afflicted with Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than Brandy.

The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A Sovereign Remedy

or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is

REIGART'S OLD BRANDY,

Sold by our enterprising young friend, H. E. SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies, no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case of ases. In proof of the curative powers of

in cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we cite:—

A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—no appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try in his case, he looked up with astonishment but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A PRACTISING PHYSICIAN.

Reigart's Old Brandy,

SPRING DRESS GOODS.

Spring Woolen Fabrics

SPRING DRESS CLOTHS.—OUR SPRING Dress Cloths for Ladies', Misses' and Children's Dresses and Suits are now all in, the assortment is very extensive, and certainly the largest line of cloths in Philadelphia. There are many new shades in plain colors, also a wide range of neat pin-checks of new combinations, changing the effect and making the colorings and styles different from those of previous seasons.

SNODGRASS, MURRAY & CO., MARKET AND NINTH STS.

LADIES', MISSES AND CHILDREN'S COATS AND JACKETS.—Almost every lady wants a Wrap or Jacket for spring, and to put on cool days in summer, or to wear in the evenings while away at the seashore or mountains. We have a very large variety of cloths for this purpose; also, some new broken checks, &c., for spring ulsters.

SNODGRASS, MURRAY & CO., NINTH AND MARKET STS.

SMALL CHILDREN'S AND INFANTS' COATS.—This is an item in our business to which we give much attention. Purchases and importations for this season include everything new and the very latest designs in many different fabrics.

SNODGRASS, MURRAY & CO., MARKET AND NINTH STS.

SPRING OVERCOATINGS.—They are worn much more than a winter overcoat, and every man should have a spring overcoat. Frequently when a heavy weight could not be worn at all, a light weight coat might be worn with great comfort. We have many kinds, very desirable in quality and fabric.

SNODGRASS, MURRAY & CO.

CORDUROYS, BEAVERTEENS AND CORDUROYS.—Buyers of these goods should note the fact that we have made a large purchase at about one-third off market rates, and we are dealing them out to either the buyer of a pair of pants or the dealer who buys a piece at the same proportion. The prices are very low. But you must come and see them and handle the goods to satisfy yourselves that they are cheap.

SNODGRASS, MURRAY & CO., CLOTH HOUSE, MARKET AND NINTH STREETS.

GENTLEMEN'S SPRING SUITING.—Almost every steamer coming into port brings us one or more invoices, selections from English, French and German markets of the best and leading things for gentlemen's spring suits and pantaloons. The styles and kinds are too numerous to attempt details, but we consider that there are among our recent importations some of the handsomest things we have ever landed.

SNODGRASS, MURRAY & CO., MARKET AND NINTH STS.

HANDSOME PANTALOON GOODS.—Among the first things that every gentleman wants at the beginning of the season is a pair of pantaloons. Knowing this our stock of spring cassimeres have been open and displayed for some time, and we are having a good trade in them. Styles for the season are very good and prices reasonable.

SNODGRASS, MURRAY & CO., MARKET AND NINTH STS.

BOYS' SUITINGS AND CASSIMERES.—We have just bought a large lot of medium-weight Cassimeres, all-the-year-round goods, that have been sold at one dollar; price now, 75 cents. They are a decided bargain.

Very good Cassimeres for boys' every day suits, at 50c. and 60c. per yard, warranted to be strong and to wear well.

In buying goods for boys' wear we always keep in view the fact that boys must have strong goods. They do not take as much care of their clothes as older people do, and almost always have worn out knees. For this reason we always combine strength with durability.

SNODGRASS, MURRAY & CO.

TAILORS' TRIMMINGS.

Tailors who do not want whole pieces can buy in such lengths as they want. We have about fifty grades and colors of Italian Cloths and Silesias of every color, both English and Domestic Goods, Canvas, Brown Holland, Hair Cloth, etc
