

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

Admiral Along the Susquehanna—Gleanings in and around the thoroughbred... The Vigilant steamer was tried again yesterday afternoon, and worked very well.

Those present in the opera house last evening were treated to the best performance of the season. It was the rendition of "East Lynne," by Miss Ada Gray, supported by an excellent company.

On Monday afternoon two of the members of the P. R. crew, No. 8, who became involved in a distance in the caboose as their train was ascending the Mountville grade.

The following officers were elected last evening by the Chicquering tribe, I. O. R. M.:

President—John Harsh. Secretary—William Buckley. Treasurer—George W. Gilbert. Organist—L. M. Williams.

Mr. William Paxton, who has been connected with the Pennsylvania railroad at this place, for a number of years, and who some time back, purchased a small farm in York county, near to his new home.

Mr. Geo. Hoak is canvassing our town for the "Fruit" brand of new directory. A number of changes have taken place within the past two years so that his efforts to get up the quite necessary book are meeting with great success.

While the Citizens band were parading last evening, three runaways occurred, all doing more or less damage. No person was hurt, however.

Mr. James Harsh left town this morning on a short business trip to Harford county, Maryland.

Mr. Oliver Rolenhauser had one drunk in the lockup last night and Officer Keck took three of those gents to the Lancaster jail this morning.

Caused by the Opening of Marion Street. Yesterday afternoon the report of the receivers to assess damages caused by the opening of Marion street from Ann to the city limits was filed in the clerk of quarter sessions office. They assess the damages of property owners to be paid by the city and county as follows:

The Fire Department.

Last evening the special committee on the reorganization of the fire department elected Davis Kitch, jr., (son of the water superintendent) driver of Engine No. 2, and Jacob S. Bateman and Samuel Beal, hosenmen of Engine No. 1, to fill vacancies.

The committee purchased from Mr. Henry Wolfe, the well-known furniture dealer of this city, the requisite number of coats for the engine houses; they secured also from Messrs. John S. Givler & Co. the necessary blankets, etc., and the equipment of the new department may now be said to be practically completed.

On Saturday, March 25, 1882, Chas. H. Zeller, auctioneer, sold at public sale at the stables of John B. Shelly, in Mount Joy, for Elias Breuneman, 21 head of draught and driving horses at an average price of $150 per head.

THIRD EDITION.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAR. 29, 1882.

WORK OF THE FLAMES.

SEVERAL BIG CONFLAGRATIONS.

What Has Kept the Firemen Busy—An Ancient Landmark in Philadelphia's Suburbs Burned.

PHILADELPHIA, March 29.—Fire broke out early this morning in the flour and dry goods store of J. Rorer, in Brantford, Twenty-second ward. The building, which was of stone, was destroyed, together with its contents. The total loss is about $50,000 and the insurance $30,000. Rorer was postmaster in that suburb.

The store burned was one of the old York pike landmarks, and Rorer has been established there for nearly forty years. The property was half insured. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin.

Store and Hall Burned. WESTCHESTER, Mass., March 29.—Aldrich's store and hall, Rockdale, in North-bridge, was burned this morning. The loss on the building is $4,000, insured for $6,000. The loss on the stock is $3,500, insured for $2,500.

Destructive Flames in Toronto. TORONTO, Ont., March 29.—A fire broke out here last night about 11 o'clock, which destroyed John Oliver & Co. planing mill, the Sobo foundry and the Carter manufacturing company's premises.

Cash Factory at Ansville Burned. READING, March 29.—The cash manufacturing and private residence of Thomas D. Lower, at Ansville, was destroyed by fire this morning. The loss on the building is $50,000, insured for $50,000. The loss on the stock is $20,000, insured for $20,000.

The Democratic Executive Committee. PHILADELPHIA, March 29.—The executive committee of the Democratic congressional campaign committee, to consist of seven members, on the part of the Democratic members of the House has been selected, and will consist of Representative Hoocars, chairman, and Representative Porter, of New York, Randall, of Pennsylvania, Lefevre, of Ohio, Cobb, of Indiana; Thompson, of Kentucky, and Jones, of Arkansas.

The State Greenbackers. HARRISBURG, Pa., March 29.—About thirty members of the Greenback Labor party met here last night for the purpose of fixing a time and place for holding their state convention. The committee will meet at 2 o'clock.

BY WIRE. Attention Telegrams Condensed. The striking World compositors in New York had not returned to work at noon today.

The Rochester strike is confined to a single clothing house.

The Newark M. E. conference, in session in Newark, will consider the "Mormon question."

The board of officers of the Pennsylvania railroad company were re-elected today.

Sunday railroad trains and the operation of iron works on Sunday occupied the attention of the International Sabbath observance conference at Pittsburgh to-day.

Another call for bonds, which are issued from the treasury department.

James A. Graves, sentenced to be hanged in Newark, April 13, gets a chance for life by his case going to the supreme court.

BRUTAL ASSAULT. An Aged Invalid Shot by His Nurse.

PHILADELPHIA, March 29.—Last night a man named Thomas P. Leslie visited the house of Thomas Nelson, No. 1817 Jefferson street, and asked to see that gentleman alone. A visitor who was present, stepped out of the room when Leslie at once demanded Mr. Nelson's watch.

Being refused he grabbed at the chain and drew a revolver shot Mr. Nelson in the head, fracturing his skull. He then walked off, and is still at large. Mr. Nelson is an invalid, and is now in a critical condition. Leslie had been in his employ as nurse.

Brumpton to be Sent to England. PHILADELPHIA, March 29.—Judge Butler in the United States district court this morning remanded J. Brumpton, the alleged British forger, to the custody of Scott, the English detective for return to England.

It is now the intention to return Brumpton to Saturday steamer and so put an end to this long pending case.

Probably Fatal Affray Between Brewers. PHILADELPHIA, March 29.—Two brewers named respectively Louis Neihauer and Frederick Gerlach, quarred yesterday in Gerlach's boarding house. Neihauer beat Gerlach terribly over the head with a rubber hose, to which a brass coupling was attached. The wounded man is so badly hurt that Neihauer has been committed for a week to await the result of Gerlach's injuries.

Lady Clerks to Go. WASHINGTON, March 29.—The entire lapse roll of the treasury department, composed of twenty-two clerks, mostly ladies, will be entirely disbanded in the first proximo, because of the lack of funds to pay them for a longer period.

Arthur Taking His Time to It. WASHINGTON, March 29.—The president will take no action upon the Chinese bill before Friday at least, as he has been having it further considered at the next cabinet meeting. He is in daily receipt of a large number of letters bearing on the question from all parts of the country.

Struck by a Squall. NEWPORT, R. I., March 29.—Two tugs, having in tow the dredge Brooklyn, of Fall River, and nine scows, while near Point Judith last night, were struck by a squall and parted from the tow. There were twelve men on the dredge when it sank, but they were all rescued except one young man.

Solitude of a Wealthy Farmer. READING, Pa., March 29.—A special to the Eagle from Norristown says: "Helen Loucker, aged 60, and a wealthy resident and farmer of Plymouth township, Montgomery county, committed suicide this morning by hanging herself in a well on his premises. The cause of the act is not known."

WEATHER INDICATIONS. WASHINGTON, D. C., March 29.—For the middle Atlantic states, warmer south-east to southwest winds, lower barometer, and fair weather, except in northern New York, where the cloudiness will increase with light rains.

Members of Parliament Threatened. LONDON, March 29.—A placard has been posted in Dublin, menacing the members of Parliament from that city, because of their supposed intention to vote for the cloister.

Jersey City's Water Front. TRENTON, N. J., March 29.—Contrary to general expectation the bill relating to Jersey City water fronts was not taken up in the House this morning. It is expected to come up this afternoon.

THE GAITHER BILL OF EXCEPTIONS.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The points of difference in the bill of exceptions in the Gaitner case have all been settled. The bill of exceptions will now be written out and signed.
