LITTLE LOCALS.

Here, There and Everywhere. Court will meet at 10 a. m. for current business and the argument of short rules.

This morning the mayor discharged four vagrants and sent one drunk to jail for a short term.

This morning Alderman McConomy had one train-rider, who was arrested by Officer Gibbert of the railroad police, and he was given ten days in jail. Last evening about 7 o'clock some boy threw a base ball against the window pane in the front of Christian Sharp's confectionery, on East King street, cracking the glass. The ball then glanced and struck an express wagon breaking a wheel from

J. B. McGibeny, father of the celebrated family of musicians, is in town to-day making arrangements for the appearance of the company in the afternoon and evening of April 8th. He reports the family as being well; they have been in Philadelphia all winter, and have appeared in a number of halls in the city every night to big business.

A Boom for Mr. North,

Millintown Democrat and Register.

We had a very pleasant call from Hon. Hugh M. North, of Columbia, on Friday. Mr. North was born and reared in Juniata county. After attaining his majority he settled in Columbia and opened a law office. As a lawyer he stands at the head associating with tramps and men of had character. The third man who was with them has not yet been caught. The watch is of silver with an open face, and its number is 1317. " East Lynne."

Miss Ada Gray appeared before a good andience in Fulton opera house last night, in the play of "East Lynne." While the lady herself is undoubtedly possessed of dramatic talent, she has been unfortunate in her selection of support, as the company were with a few exceptions entirely unequal to their parts. Miss Gray strug-gled against a very bad cold, and the performance as a whole was rather dreary, long-drawn-out and hardly to be compared with the previous rendition of the piece by Miss Gray and a much better company.

Mr. Brosius will accept the invitation if nothing in the meantime prevents The following statement of William J Cough Lim from visiting Albany. Should he be there, we can promise our Albany friends a fine oration.
