The New Primer.

Simple Stories for the Pleasure and Profit of Denver Tribune.

Miss Hortense is working a Beautiful Piece of Embroidery. It is a Motto in Green and Gold. It asks What is Home without a Mother. When Miss Hortense gets it Done she will Give it to her Beau who tends a Dry goods counter. You can-not see Miss Hortense's Mother: She is in the Back Yard doing the week's washing. By and by she will be bringing in the Coal for the Parlor Stove, because Miss Hortense's Beau is Coming to-night.

Here is a Molasses jug, It is full of Molasses. How many flies are there in the Molasses? That is a Hard one to Auswer. Those flies will look Proud spread out on Sister Lucy's buckwheat cakes in the Morning. But Lucy will not Care. She will pick them out of the Molasses with her Taper Fingers and wipe them on the bottom of her Chair. But if her Beau were there she would yell and say, Oh, how Horrid. The strength of a Woman's Stomach depends largely on the Surroundings.
III.

Mabel is sitting at the Piano, and she is Singing a Song. The Song says He is Waiting for Her in the Gloaming. Mabel appears to be Giving herself Dead Away. He is not Waiting for her in the Gloaming at all. He has just Drawn a bobtail Flush, and he is Wondering whether he had better Pull out or Stand on a Bluff. Mabel would touch a Responsive Chord in his Bosom if she were to sing, Take Back the Hand Which thou Gavest.

Here is a Sewing Machine. It was made for little Children to Play with. Put you feet on the Treadles and Make the Wheels go round Fast. See how the Thread unwinds and the Needle bobs up and Down! This is Lots of Fun. Do not Deny baby the Privilege of putting his fat little Finger under the Needle. It will make Pretty Holes in the Finger and give Baby something to Occupy his Attention for a Long Time.

Here we have Papa's watch. There is a Fairy in the Watch. Would You like to hear Her Sing? If you will Drop the Watch on the Floor, the Fairy in the Watch will Sing the Prettiest little Song you ever Heard, and all the Wheels will Buzz just as funny as can Be. When papa Comes home and finds the Fairy has been Singing, maybe he will Ask you to Step-out into the Woodshed with him on a Matter of Business.

The young Man is Reading a Letter and seems Deeply Agitated. Maybe it is a letter from his Sweetheart, and she has Given him the Grand Bounce. How his Breast Heaves and how his Heart must Throb under the Celluloid Shirt Front. The Letter is from his Tailor. Let us not Invade the Secrecy of the Poor Young Man's Grief.

Has the Printer tobacco? He has, But he will not fell you So. He carries it in the Leg of his Boot and when he wants a Chew he Sneaks down the Back Alley where Nobody can See him. When he spits tobacco it counds like a Duck diving in the Water. The printer is a queer man. He is a Fickle person. Sometimes he Has ten thousand ems on the String, but they are Always his Dupes. If you are will get Fired. Easily Proven.—It is easily proven that ma-iarial fevers, constipation, torpidity of the liver and kidneys, general debility, nervous-ness, and neuralgic ailments yield readily to this great disease conqueror, Hop Bitters. It repairs the ravages of disease by converting the food into rich blood, and it gives new life and vigor to the aged and infirm always. api-2wd&w

Printer Do not be a Blacksmith or you

"How do you manage," said a lady to ner triend, "to appear so happy all the time?" "I always have Parker's Ginger Tonic handy," was the reply," and thus keep myself and faully in good health and spirits. See adv. ml-Imdeod&oow

Sowing and Reaping.

When a young lady hems handkerchiefs for a rich bachelor she sews that she may reap. When seeds of disease are planted through over indulgence, you can prevent the under-taker from reaping the benefit by using Spring Blossom. Price 50 cents. For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street,

Universal Approbation By the community at large has been given to Burdock Blood Bitters. No instance is known where dissatisfaction has been manifested by their use, or where aught but benefit followed their administration. Price $1. For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster. Honorable Mention. Of all the remedles on earth that well may claim attention, Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil commands especial mention—For wondrous power to cure disease, its fame none can throttle. Its merits are not in the puil, but are inside the bottle. Rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, asthma, bronchitts, diphtheria, etc., are all cured by Thomas' Eclectric Oil. For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.
