ASHBURNHAM, Mass., Jan. 14, 1880. I have been very sick over two years. They all gave me up as past cure. I tried the most skilful physicians, but they did not reach the worst part. The lungs and heart would fill up every night and distress me, and my throat was very bad. I told my children I never should die in peace until I had tried Hop Bitters. I have taken two bottles. They have helped me very much indeed. I am now well. There was a lot of sick folks here who have seen how they helped me, and they used them and are cured, and feel as thankful as I do that there is so valuable a medicine made. MRS. JULIA G. CUSHING.

THE STAR ROUTE CASES

Defending the Validity of the Indictments. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 1.—The Star Route cases came up to day upon the mo-tion to quash the indictments. Mr. Ker opened for the prosecution and discussed He also denied the insufficiency or vagueness of the indictments as claimed by the defense. He contended that it was import sible to always give exact words and exact language, and claimed the law did not re-

Mr. Ker was followed by Mr. Merrick for the prosecution. Mr. Merrick reviewed the facts connected with the finding of the indictments and insisted that there was no irregularity in regard thereto. He alluded to the claim of the defense that the judiciary could not investigate the acts of the executive; that in the case of Brady he could not be tried for official acts. "This," said Mr. Merrick, "is not what we are trying him for, but we are trying him for the crime of conspiracy. If these men are innocent let them be acquitted and let the country be relieved of the scandals.

Mr. Merrick was followed on behalf of the prosecution by Mr. Bliss, who made an exhaustive and technical defense of the indictment as a good and valid one.

A THIEVING TAX COLLECTOR. the Dishonesty of a Harrisburg Councilman.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 1 .- To day in settling up the tax duplicates for the past year, the account of Jacob A. Faunce, a collector for the Sixth ward, was found to be short about $5,000. Faunce has been collector ever since 1877, and his peculations have extended up to the present time. His mode of proceedure was to cover his deficiencies for a past year by collections on the next. The defalcation was discovered, owing to his eyesight be-coming impaired, and he being unable to further attend to the work. He is at present a member of council, was re-elected in February and has always been considered a trustworthy citizen. The affair causes considerable talk, and the rumor is rife of more developments of a like character.

TREASURE TROVE.

The Lucky Flud of Two Laborers in S Louis. St. Louis, Mo., April 1-As two laborers were digging a drain yesterday on the premises of Jos. E. Haggerty, on Collins street, to connect the house with the street sewer, they unearthed a large pot tightly to contain a large amount of English sov ereigns, American silver dollars and about a hat full of Continental currency. The money has not been counted, but there is probably between $20,000 and $30,000 in coin, which is dated in the last century. The currency bears the date of 1777. The house was occupied by Montgomery Blair many years ago, but subsequently passed into the possession of Samuel Gatty.

Sheriff Who Played Burglar and Killed in the Act. DANVILLE, Va., April 1.—Sheriff Wm. E. Stes, of Stokes county, N. C., was shot on Thursday while robbing his own office. He left the safe key with his wife and ostensibly left home for a day. That night two men appeared at the house and demanded the key of the woman. Mrs. Stes notified friends, who repaired to the office and shot and killed the two men while robbing the safe. Upon examination it was found that one of them was the sheriff, who had disguised himself. A Shocking Kentucky Murder, . SHELBYVII.LE, Ky., April 1.—A shock ing case of murder occurred on Wednes. day evening three miles east of Bloomfield, Nelson county, in the killing of Joseph Holt, a school teacher, by Babe Hunter. Holt, who boarded at the residence of Hunter, interfered while the latter was whipping his wife. Subsequently Hunter waylaid Holt while coming from his school house and shot him dead. Hunter fied, but has been captured.

Hit With a Brick and Killed. Uniontown, Pa., April 1.—Last evening three men, named Martin, Landers and Franks, were at work at Runbar when Martin and Franks got into a dispute which ended in blows. Landers attempted to part them, but failing in this, he struck Franks on the head with a brick. Franks died during the night from the injuries, and Landers was arrested this
